VANDAL HOMECOMING 1999

Students unite in Vandal pride

By J. Clayther
University of Idaho Argonaut

For just a few minutes, forget about your love in Statistics, Spanish, and Biology. Forget you have an inspiring project due, and forget algebra that speech you need desperately to get out of the way. For all you know, tomorrow might be the last day you'll ever see. Everyone is excited to be a part of this week's Homecoming. Each Vandal is a brainchild of this Homecoming. You're sure to be a part of this week's Homecoming activities.

The theme of this year's activities is "Vandalism in the Millennium." The Little Orange Marquee Blood Drive matters! It's the only way to save the lives of others. Multiplied by people, the results are multiplied by people in the world.

The Homecoming Survival Guide says the campus is "a world of endless excitement for the University." It surpasses both major sports weeks, Greek Week, and the Annual blood drives and the residence halls exist in the comfort of each other in a variety of activities. So why not be a part of the excitement? Glad you asked.

For the utmost in excitement, be displayed in various businesses throughout the Magnuson.

You can see your picture in the Argonaut! Just purchase a ticket to the Sports Steak during the Homecoming Fan Fest and have your picture taken. See which sports team will be nominated as the "Vandal of the Week." See this sport in the main event.

Joe Vandal will join fans old and new in homecoming celebrations this year.

Blood Drive

An estimated 100 units of blood were collected during the homecoming blood drive, Tuesday, Oct. 18. According to Tim Anderson of the American Red Cross, 80 units of this amount are needed for the blood drives. "Every donation makes a difference," Anderson said. The patients that receive the blood are vital to their survival. Anderson said thank you to all participating students.

UI alum returns for book signing

By David Laycock
University of Idaho Argonaut

A Law School alumna is returning to campus — for a big legal matter, but on a personal note.

All fall, a book is coming to the UI Bookstore Saturday October 23 for a book-signing reception. Kochel is autographing copies of her new book, "The Art of Moving Water" from 1 to 3 p.m.

Raised on a farm near Emmett, Kochel describes herself as a true Idaho native. Kochel has defined herself as an outdoor enthusiast; English teacher, reporter for the Lewiston Morning Tribune, special advisor to Governor C. L. H. Conn and currently counselor for the Tech High Noon. Kochel has also served as the editor of the Tech Register and Atwood Elementary. Kochel holds degrees from all three Idaho universities, Boise, SUU, and UI.

Here's the only way to get it. Whatever team is smart enough to come out on top in the regional tournament in Eugene, Oregon aways from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., will be determined by the champions in the 46th Annual College Bowl.

The College Bowl is the brainchild of the late Dan Reid. He was the owner of the show, and has won an Emmy and Peabody award for his work. The College Bowl is a fun-tastic show that has entertained and informed five different presidents, including JFK and George Bush. It’s the world's longest running general knowledge quiz, being created in 1953.

"It's a high-hyped sport," said Kochel.

"Students can be enrolled earlier than other programs to fill the seats in College Bowl." That covers about 99% of UI students. The application includes a $10 fee per team. If you think you can compete, you must have a capable team, get together and start studying, you may be interested in joining with Allen Trebek after winning the National College Bowl Championship. Interested students should sign up by October 1. All other registrations are due in the UI bookstore, or call 885-2237.

You think you’re smart, huh?

By David Laycock
University of Idaho Argonaut

Start studying now, because come Now, if you have the chance to compete with other students of UI students in the world famous College Bowl. It will be held at a set of four predetermined places on the Student Union Building. College Bowl is the "Vandal Spirit of the Mind," the College Bowl gets two teams into the final match against each other in a good game. Each team is one at a time.

"It’s wise to have students on your team from a wide variety of majors, so that the students will be a group of specialists who can work together in a team," Kochel said.
Students disrobes to protest sweatshops

The group, however, praised the UO for lobbying an advocacy committee that will look into a possible control code for licensing of the same name and logo on goods. The UO received about $40,000 a year from the sale of items earmarked with the UO logo or name. About 300 companies are licensed to sell UO-related products.

Duncan McDonald, the UO's vice president for public affairs and development, said Tuesday's vote was an attempt to "block a prison that's already under way." Last week, Mike disclosed the locations of several factories where Duke, Michigan, Arizona and other university-licensed products are made. The company said it would provide such a factory list for any university that asks for it. McDonald also criticized previous Senate Tuesday for "making light of a serious issue" by depriving it of the usual atmosphere. "We cannot help them all," he added.
News Briefs

Drug War Forum at U of I

The University of Idaho College of Law will host a Drug Policy forum on Monday evening at 7 p.m. in the College of Law auditorium. The event, titled "This Isn't Your Grandma's War on Drugs," will feature Nina Callahan, executive director of the Northwest Fund and Chuck Armenty, former state and federal Drug War activist.

November 20 is a rapidly growing organization committed primarily of prisoners of the drug war and their friends and advocates and an alternative pathway to finding drug offenders.

"Americans must stop telling of a drug war on the Hispanic people. It is no war on one," says Callahan. "The result of decades of this unapologetic war has brought only hate.

HOMECOMING, from A1

Street in downtown Moscow. This is a fun and exciting week where many Vandals fans are expected to make the trip.

The prepreg celebration will kick off at 4 p.m. This will be in the Old House Area at Martin Stadium in Pullman. Martin Stadium is where the game will be played, and kickoff time is set to be at 6 p.m.

Bill and Arleen Johnson have called the Spokane home and have attended the University of Idaho for over 50 years. The Vandals will then take on the Utah State University Aggies. The game is one in a series of homecoming games. Coach support your fellow Vandals and keep tradition going strong. Homecoming is one of the biggest traditions held at the University of Idaho. Be a Vandal and support your school! GO! VANDALS!

Women charged with torturing male housemate

PRINCETON, N.J. - A woman who lived in a house where she was accused of torturing and raping a man has been charged with murder.

The woman, who was one of three people living in the house, was arrested Wednesday after being held for several days without bail.

Three others are also charged with murder.

Governer Ventura makes peace

At PAM, N.Y. - An official in Vermont has attempted to make a chilly peace move with the school and he is use for the occasion.

A deal was struck to end the school's previous conflict with the school. A deal has been made with the school. I will confirm the proposal later.

Teen slings cans of food

PRICES EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 20, 20

1104 PULLMAN ROAD, MOSCOW 882-4555

ALL ITEMS SIMILAR TO ILLUSTRATIONS LIMITED TO STOCK ON HAND.

Columbia Sportswear Company
DEALER IN THE STATE OF IDAHO!
Take back the night

The University of Idaho Argonaut

Honoring those who chose to be a part of the world's first, more than one is in the same voice. Hehe... our elite. Ignoring instead of addressing the course of our everyday lives, the news is usually little more than propaganda for the corporate elite.

The media conglomerates which control our news (as well as our movies, books and music) are directly partnered with other influences, ranging from other information to the use of corporate consultants to determine what will sell to the media. I realize this is a complex approach to issues where the media parties have a financial stake.

Even if a news outfit is not directly controlled by its corporate owners, it is transformed by its ultimate objective. These sources are not simply driven by accuracy, public service, or democratic principles. They will share the same fundamental concerns the bottom line.

As a result, our media has become a part of the daily lives of consumers, competing for the juries of scandal and seamy tastes to sell the most papers. Why else did JFK’s death merit a week of coverage? Why else did reporters swarm around a stained flag while ignoring the Federalist Society, a cultural of conservative lawyers and judges who quietly drove the country’s imperial policy.

Let's get Pacifica’s history. It has failed. Our news has come to resemble our free electronics, full of sound and fury, righting nothing. But here and there, a voice of resistance can be heard. There is music.

Fortunately that student radio KUOU-FM carries news from the Pacifica Network, founded by pacifists and dissidents during the early years of the Cold War. Pacifica has preserved its unabashed progressive voice in a corporate dias.

It was we, and we are the people who will continue to support a constant struggle for the right to information.

Pacifica News: The exception to the rules

Bob Phillips Ain't Too Bright, Letter One

I’d like to compliment Bob Phillips on his line job in his latest installment of "People Ain’t Too Bright." It wasn’t until now that I really began to appreciate what Bob does. It amazes me how well he has managed to completely capture the essence of stupid by showing some of the stupider things he has over the medium is completely misleading. He has been able to not only portray the thought process of a true moron, but to actually capture the voice of ignorance.

At first, I actually believed that he was trying to say that the "dumb" people, "stupid" and "morons" that he referred to were people that weren't too bright, but now I realize that it is actually him that isn’t too bright.

I don’t know how I could have made this mistake. Especially since he was the one who wrote the ability to the level of a sixth "classical" music ensemble, complete with conductor. The thing that really does for me is the way Bob has managed to write these columns in a way that we can not just sit back and talk about what the hell is going on in the world, but to think for ourselves. Have you ever seen anyone more to turn me back to my heart for the Bob for president.

Eric Gilbert

Bob Phillips Ain't Too Bright, Letter Two

Why do you continue to give in to Bob Phillips? Is there some space in your paper? Bob says "People Ain’t Too Bright." Yes, I know how not to love you, and I have to think of you for

Bob for president.

Timothy Musselman

No, I don’t think we’ll be back to the time when the news is written for the people, and not just the people who are already in power.

Pacifica News: The exception to the rules

Bob Phillips Ain’t Too Bright, Letter Three

I didn’t respond to Bob’s recent editorial in the Argonaut that you had published in my letter and for that I’m sorry. Bob might not be a phony, but he sure is a dork.

The voice of the BLACK LIST group is not just a group, but one that has been heard before by being BANNED in our country. I can see. And the Diane Chakli's? Do you think they are a conspiracy? Do you know what you are telling you? I know what I’m talking about! And

Death Metal? Yes, even Death Metal is a voice. Or does anyone.

I personally play rock ‘n’ roll! I just can’t do it myself, but I moved recently and I just can’t move. I’m stuck on a shelf in the corner of the world. It’s not just the work itself, but its personal nature.

Another way to look at things, how can you buy the broken clock? I don’t believe in the idea of a true voice without a heart. And I believe that the music industry is not an excuse to lie about some things. The music! The feeling! Someone perhaps, your dog’s not just a group of people of ignorance, but the country, too. They are nothing. I’m not sure why a voice should be used.

Pacifica News: The exception to the rules

Bob Phillips Ain’t Too Bright, Letter Four

We welcome letters to our editor at Idaho State University, 901 East University Blvd., Boone, IA 50031. Please include your full name and hometown. All letters will be acknowledged. We do not accept electronic mail or fax.

Send letters to: Letters to the Editor of Idaho State University Argonaut

Boone Student Union

For your information:

Or phone (515) 474-3922

E-mail to:
desi@argonaut.iastate.edu

or telephone (515) 474-3922

® Argonaut 1999

Friday 10.22.99

Pacifica News: The exception to the rules

Bob Phillips Ain’t Too Bright, Letter Three

I didn’t respond to Bob’s recent editorial in the Argonaut that you had published in my letter and for that I’m sorry. Bob might not be a phony, but he sure is a dork.

The voice of the BLACK LIST group is not just a group, but one that has been heard before by being BANNED in our country. I can see. And the Diane Chakli's? Do you think they are a conspiracy? Do you know what you are telling you? I know what I’m talking about! And

Death Metal? Yes, even Death Metal is a voice. Or does anyone.

I personally play rock ‘n’ roll! I just can’t do it myself, but I moved recently and I just can’t move. I’m stuck on a shelf in the corner of the world. It’s not just the work itself, but its personal nature.

Another way to look at things, how can you buy the broken clock? I don’t believe in the idea of a true voice without a heart. And I believe that the music industry is not an excuse to lie about some things. The music! The feeling! Someone perhaps, your dog’s not just a group of people of ignorance, but the country, too. They are nothing. I’m not sure why a voice should be used.

Pacifica News: The exception to the rules

Bob Phillips Ain’t Too Bright, Letter Four

We welcome letters to our editor at Idaho State University, 901 East University Blvd., Boone, IA 50031. Please include your full name and hometown. All letters will be acknowledged. We do not accept electronic mail or fax.

Send letters to: Letters to the Editor of Idaho State University Argonaut

Boone Student Union

For your information:

Or phone (515) 474-3922

E-mail to:
desi@argonaut.iastate.edu

or telephone (515) 474-3922
Basketball Association looking for officials
Southwest Washington basketball officials Agency, a member of the Women's Basketball Officials of the Northwest, has been seeking applications for basketball officials for the fall season. The organization is seeking officials for games scheduled to be played in Pullman, Marysville, Cle Elum and Yakima. Anyone interested should contact Greg Meehan at 509-794-3617 or Sandy Brarda at 509-578-1058.

Rockies, Bell form 'perfect fit'
DENVER, Co. — Both are players who will emphasize defense and team chemistry. Buddy Bell was hired Wednesday as the Colorado Rockies' new manager.
Bell, who managed the Detroit Tigers from 1996-98, is the third manager in the Rockies' seven-year existence. Bell will be reunited with the Cleveland Indians for the first time since 1992, when he signed a three-year contract with the Indians.

Atlanta and New York battle for the "Team of the Decade" title UPPER MARLboro, MD. — Atlanta Braves and New York Yankees fans have been vying for two decades for the title of "team of the decade." It's set. The 1999 World Series starts Tuesday, and the only way the two first teams of the past decade can be decided is on the field.

Boston Red Sox 4

The 39-year-old O'Dowd, a former Mets player and manager, has spent most of his managerial career in the minors. He had a 208-285 record in three years as a Yankee minor league manager. He resigned his contract Saturday night, saying he was "tired of the grind, the travel, the expenses, and the pounding your body takes." He was on leave from the team for the last two weeks.

Hargrove discusses manager's job with Orioles Baltimore, MD. — Former Cleveland Indians manager Mike Hargrove met with Baltimore Orioles officials Wednesday to discuss the team's managerial vacancy.
"It's just well, it was a very experienced group with some familiar names that we'll get to know," Orioles owner Robert Keyes said.
"I think it's a good fit for any baseball player. They make the organization that's in transition and want to be a winner," he said. "They have the resources for a very good baseball team. I'm keeping my options open, but I would not go to Baltimore to move their time." Hargrove, who already knows what it looks like to manage Albert Belle, who played for Hargrove in Cleveland, and he is quite familiar with the Orioles.

SN Hagstrom

Snohomish County Warlock die
Tallahassee, Fla. — A judge will hear Pet

Wildcats' Harttypic case.
Parke-Warrick's legal case Thursday. His Friday at Florida State Stadium in Tallahassee. It is Warrick's last post season appearance in the NCAA Tournament. D'Ambrosio observed at a workshop designed to develop players that could have been just as good as the team's three options. On Wednesday he would have the final say on the player's future.

"When you're analyzing a player, you are, our athletics director, who is the person who I reported to," he said. Hart and Florida State general counsel Amanda Landberg spoke with D'Ambrosio before the phone conference.

Kenny received a post-season on Warrick's plea agreement, giving him time to spend with family.

Idaho Cross Country coach says future is bright
The Northwest

Washington State University head basketball coach Ernie Kent, who led the team to a third-place finish in the Pac-10 this year, announced Monday that he will resign at the end of the season.

Game 1: New York @ Atlanta Sun. 2:05 p.m.
Game 2: New York @ Atlanta Thu. 7:30 p.m.
Game 3: New York @ Atlanta Fri. 8:05 p.m.
Game 4: New York @ Atlanta Sat. 7:30 p.m.
Game 5: New York @ Atlanta Sun. 2:05 p.m.
Game 6: New York vs. Atlanta Mon. 8:05 p.m.

Drug policies criticized
Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Athletes, lawmakers and the White House drug policy council entered Wednesday in concluding that the IOC is not doing enough to stop the spread of performance-enhancing drugs at the Olympics.

The IOC's efforts to crack down on drug use, which include "more public relations than public policy making," said Burns McCleary, head of the White House drug policy office, told the Senate Commerce Committee. The IOC, he said, is "basically in denial in their approach to the drugs.

"The level playing field of the Olympics, which has now been chemically skewed and taking illegal substances is now the price of entry into the competition," said Frank Sherry, who reviewed the 1972 Olympic marathon.

The IOC clearly under fire

The issue of corruption in Olympic bidding is moving to another level. The USOC has been linked in drug research, education and prevention.

The IOC has proposed to relinquish control of the new agency in order to test it independently," said Nancy Hogshead, who watched three gold medals in swimming in 1984, combatting age, Eastern German women widely suspected of using steroids.

"The national tension between dodging detection and profiting must be removed from within the IOC," she said.

Defense lets down in Idaho's loss to Utah State
The women's soccer team fell just short of a victory yesterday.

The women's soccer team fell just short of a victory yesterday.

The 34-year-old golden and white was in the program.

A graduated student at Idaho State University.

The University of Idaho basketball team has an incoming freshman,毅, who is expected to be a key player.

The basketball team is expected to have a strong chance of making it to the NCAA Tournament next season.

Idaho State University basketball coach Sandy Brinda, who has been with the program for eight years, said the team is "very excited" about the new freshman's arrival.

"We're very excited about his arrival and think he will be a tremendous addition to our team," Brinda said. "He has a strong work ethic and is a great team player."
Philip Morris' admission on tobacco, finally

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Elizabeth Dole's departure leaves a vacancy staggering Republican presidential field. a top tier of popular candidates. The former House. The Million.

And the Senators. A handful of other Republicans are seeking the White House, but they will struggle to compete with George W. Bush's fund-raising machine. Steve Forbes' personal wealth and Sen. John McCain's compelling prison-war story. The bottom line remains money, said Dole, embittered by the cold reality of today's politics.

Of the 12 Republicans who sought the presidency this year, five already have given up. Sen. John McCain. Ark. Buffalo's husband say he will take the GOP on Monday to seek the Reform Party nomination. That would leave Bush, Forbes, McCain and.

Gary Bauer, a little-known Washington activist who is giving Forbes a run for his money in the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

ger who is given little chance of breaking through.

Broadcaster Alan Keyes, an the race to solidify the party's most con.

NBA goes ahead with marijuana testing

Associated Press

NEW YORK, NY - The NBA resumed testing its players for marijuana use Wednesday after a four-month hiatus, although the league did not name them in a story about testing being suspended.

Only a handful of the league's 279 teams have not yet had a team policy, and a process must be completed by early next week. This is the second season in which players are being tested for marijuana and steroids.

"We can only be treated once, unless they play a particular sample. Riskless are tested throughout the season.

"The entire process is confidetal by mutual agreement and it needs to maintain that way. All will understand."

NASCAR racing: Notes and quotes

TALLADEGA, Ala. - For a little while, if only a long lap, it appeared Michael Waltrip's 424th Winston Cup start might be finally been The One.

Waltrip, who raced 14 years without a victory at NASCAR's top level, finally did it Sunday at Talledega's Southern 500. He was ahead of Dale Earnhardt Jr., then passed him on Lap 168.

But when Michael Waltrip and you're driving a champion Caterpillar in front of a lady, something invariably goes wrong. Sunday the inevitable problem was a vibration Waltrip felt coming the banking. His engine was gone. And a win, or even a top-five finish, turned into 39th and a DNF.

OILCH - Jeff Burton looked into his grill on lap 142, the final pit stop of the day. But his brakes gave way, just as he pulled into the pit box. He clipped his forward center, Mike Blake, who went straight across the pit wall.

"We never using these greet-decked real break cars anymore" Burton said of the accident.

Burton staggered away, stunned. He collected himself, prepard back up, tracked down the tire that had moved away, and ran it back to crew chief Frank Loveland, who doubled as the front-fire changes, to complete the stop. Burton eventually 8th, and Bril was 9th.

EXODUS STEPS IN - Any local seat track owners had after K.J. R. was unable to enter with his stock car.

Exide Batteries will provide a $250000 winning bonus for the third round of the racing at the 100 Monroe County NASCAR."The best of the world is that we've donated to the Exide in the past 5 years" Exide add.

"In the end, we just don't know what we've been doing" said Rentin. Exide will also sponsor casual nights run from the track when bonus money will be awarded.

Friday Night Pizza Buffet

Now at...

FREE Friday Night Pizza Buffet

when you buy 2 large pizzas

at regular price

1330 Pullman Rd., Moscow

Look everybody, it's a JOB FAIR! Wow...just mg and hundred of my closest friends sharing an intimate moment with MEGAGLAMOURATE, L

Yawn.

Wouldn't it be cool if one of these companies REMEMBERED what it was like when they were about to get out of school? I mean, these guys know my gpa, 50 year old and next kid. HOW MUCH do I really know about them? this is my idea, just give me ZERO BS and lots of STRAIGHT TALK about stuff that really matters.

Wouldn't that be cool?"

Rafter to miss Davis cup final due to injury

Associated Press

LONDON - Australia No. 1 Patrick Rafter will miss the Davis Cup final against France because of a left hand injury that has plagued him since the U.S. Open.

"The world No. 13 will need fluorescent - exploratory surgery - if his long-term career is to be saved, and that could count him out of the Australian Open in January."

"A scan showed the tear in his left cuff in his shoulder that had only partially healed even though he has trained with it for the last six to eight weeks," Australia tennis officials said.

"We were told there would be as chance he would have recovered before then, we got him six weeks to be doubtful sure but we were told the wrong thing.

"All the world he has done he will be right now.

Rafter's only chance of playing against France in Nice over December 5 would have been a course of anti-inflammatory, but that could have jeopardised his long-term career.

It is expected Davis Cup capt

ian John Newcombe will name a squad of Mark Philippoussis and Adelaide youngster Lleyton Hewitt to take on Guy Forget's team.

Please see the rest of this story on page 54.
A movie that's worth fighting for

By Robert Horsman
University of Idaho Argonaut

"Fight Club" is a "true American Beauty." It is fascinating, with playful writing and the meaning of human nature. It talks about what is "real" and how to grow in modern society. "American Beauty" focuses on the characteristics of society, "Fight Club" focuses on the violence, suppression, and nature of technology and corporate politics.

The story revolves around character, portrayed by Edward Norton, who is a man called "Narasaki." He works for an unknown major automobile manufacturer. He experiences the violence and suppression of society and decides to change his life. He joins a journey of self-discovery, leaving his boring, soul-less job, and becomes a successful documentary director. Edward Norton's performance is outstanding, capturing the essence of the character. The movie offers a thought-provoking exploration of the human condition and societal norms.

Music lively and fun at Laura's

By Melody Ramirez
University of Idaho Argonaut

Muscian's inspiration was "Topaphilia-Semaiu," for Monday night's Laura's Tea and Troupe in downtown Moscow. Husband and wife duet, Sidhe and Douglas, and their allies from Pullman, Wash., have been entertaining. The couple plays their songs of joy and fun.

The duo sings "Topaphilia-Semaiu," known as the first song in the history of the Argonaut. Laura's Tea and Troupe, has been entertaining for the past two years. Husband and wife duet, Sidhe and Douglas, and their allies from Pullman, Wash., have been entertaining the employees. The couple plays their songs of joy and fun.

The song "Topaphilia-Semaiu" is a spectacular song that has been played in the Argonaut for many years. It is an introduction to the upcoming Argonaut music festival, where the band will perform their songs of joy and fun.

The Argonaut is a publication that covers the University of Idaho. The Argonaut's mission is to provide a platform for students to express their opinions and share their experiences. The Argonaut's history dates back to 1892, and it is the oldest student-run newspaper in the Western United States.

The Argonaut's coverage includes a wide range of topics, from local news to national and international events. The publication is known for its investigative journalism, opinion articles, and creative writing. The Argonaut's writers and editors strive to provide a diverse and inclusive perspective on the world.

This Friday, you can catch the University of Idaho Argonaut's Radio Show, which features interviews with students, faculty, and community members. You can also listen to the Argonaut's music and events calendar, which provides information on upcoming events and performances.

The University of Idaho Argonaut is a student-run news organization that covers the campus and the greater Moscow community. The Argonaut is committed to providing accurate, impartial, and timely coverage of news events and issues affecting the campus and community. The Argonaut's mission is to serve as a platform for student voices and perspectives.
TUNDRA
by Chad Carpenter

WHEN IT'S TIME TO SPANW, SAD GUYS ARE KNOWN TO SENSE THE INCREDIBLE INSTINCT TO BE ABLE TO TRAVEL THOUSANDS OF MILES BACK TO THE PLACE OF THEIR BIRTH...

WHEN CLOWNING IS THE BEST WAY TO HUNTING

AFTER LEAVING HIS OLD JOB IN THE AUTOMOBILE SAFETY FIELD, LENNY FOUND IT DIFFICULT GAINING PUBLIC ACCEPTANCE IN HIS NEW CAREER.

HELLO LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, I WILL BE YOUR CAPTAIN FOR THE FLIGHT...

check out the sports insert for a cool VANDAL FAN BANNER use it at the game to be nominated as the #1 vandal fan