Morning blaze engulfs apartment

Items packed tightly against basement heater blamed for fire

_by Whitt Dukeman_

Fire destroyed one apartment and heavily damaged two others in a complex west of campus Monday evening.

The fire started in a second-story apartment at 500 South Ave., across Taylor Ave. from Targhee Residence Hall.

Firefighters received the first call at 11:24 p.m. and had the fire under control within 15 minutes, according to Fire Chief Don Strong.

NEXT FRIDAY

in Friday's issue of the Argonaut, look for an essay about yourself and a photo of you from your freshman year, taken with Kurt's camera, how to put it and how much it costs.

No one was home when the fire started and no one was injured during the blaze.

Frank Richardson, the renter of the apartment where the flames started, said he does not think the basement heater had anything to do with the fire.

Richardson, who has lived in the complex for three years, said he has never turned the basement heater on to the "high" setting.

"When I left it on the "off" setting, the basement heaters are always off and some even turn themselves on at certain temperatures as a precaution," Strong said.

"All that stuff was packed around and there was no place for the heat to escape," Strong said.

He said the fire department will not further investigate the blaze.

Apartment manager Linda Feza said Richardson is fully insured and the apartment was covered by a homeowner's policy through .

Strong said after the fire, several apartments in the complex had to be inspected for possible gas leaks after firefighters extinguished the blaze.

Feza said the fire started at the rear of the apartment, traveled through the roof and out the windows after the windows broke to allow the smoke to escape.

Firefighters removed the first call at 11:24 p.m. and had the fire under control within 15 minutes, according to Fire Chief Don Strong.

"I thought somebody was dropping stuff on fire," Potter said.

"I heard him and ran into his room, and when I opened his front door, the smell of burnt plastic was coming from the fire which was cutting out the flames," Potter said.

Potts does not have renter's insurance and he would be responsible for the damage to the LDG Institute unless he can prove he is not at fault.

daughter, a senior studying military science and astronomy.

"I'm glad the apartment also had some smoke detectors, otherwise the fire would have been more dangerous," Moses said.

Moses does not have renter's insurance for the apartment and has been in the court system since the blaze.

He said he will not have to move, but the caretaker was checking out television and stereo wires damaged.

"I thought somebody was dropping stuff on fire," Potter said.

"I heard him and ran into his room, and when I opened his front door, I saw smoke coming out."

"I went in, saw him in the hallway, and waited until the glass fell," Potter said.

"I think the fire started around 11 and his apartment perimeters that damage is growing increasingly bitter with each passing day."

"I don't think anybody is prepared to see how many civilians are killed by our bombs," she said, adding that she believes the violence is caused by a lack of government in the area.

"I would rather have a bigger army," she said.

After his return from 100,000 pounds to 300 pounds by late morning, the blaze was under control by a third-floor "homeless" courtyard, where a judge and about two dozen law students were heard discussing the effects of the bombing and the role of the media in the crisis.

In a courtroom with two dozen lawyers, work begins

_by Richard A. Serras_

"Framed by the windows when I got there."_ Fran Richardson, Rent Check Apartments

_Fire_...it's been a real problem with Muslims, and the Americans are having a hard time with it."

"A lot of shit has been happening in the past few years with respect to the church," the judge said.

"Fire destroy second apartment and heavily damaged two others in a complex west of campus Monday evening."
Marijuana goes to Supreme Court

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court unanimously decided Monday that it will decide the fate of the nation's marijuana laws by hearing arguments in two cases. The court will hear arguments in two cases: one from the state of Washington, which legalized marijuana for recreational use in 2012, and another from the state of Colorado, which legalized it for medical use in 2000. The cases are the first to reach the court in the nation's ongoing debate over the prohibition of a drug that is legal in some states but illegal in others.

The cases, which will be heard in a special session held early next year, pave a path between the federal government's ongoing distribution and Colorado's intense public support for the cause.

The justices intervened in a pending dispute only days after the Supreme Court's decision to hear the cases. The government's appeal, filed late Tuesday, argues that it has the legal and moral authority to regulate marijuana, even if it is legal in some states. The justices denied the government's appeal, and the cases will be heard in the special session held early next year.

The justices are expected to hear arguments in the cases in the spring.

Library art display vandalized

There are some times when truth is stranger than fiction. This time, it was one of the most talked about pieces of display art on campus. The work of art, which was created by the first domino of the University of Idaho's 50th birthday, was found vandalized, the university said in a news release, and the campus administration is assisting the Art Department, called the artists, who were out on the campus that morning.

The work of art, created by a female student, was part of a student-designed wooden desk that had a dollar bill glued to it, and a coin on which the student's name was written. The piece was vandalized, the university said, and the campus administration is assisting the Art Department, called the artists, who were out on the campus that morning.

The work of art, created by a female student, was part of a student-designed wooden desk that had a dollar bill glued to it, and a coin on which the student's name was written. The piece was vandalized, the university said, and the campus administration is assisting the Art Department, called the artists, who were out on the campus that morning.

The work of art, created by a female student, was part of a student-designed wooden desk that had a dollar bill glued to it, and a coin on which the student's name was written. The piece was vandalized, the university said, and the campus administration is assisting the Art Department, called the artists, who were out on the campus that morning.
RAMADAN
From Page 1
he would forever testify and order him released.
"It was actually the worst experience of my life," said Al-Jalibah, who is originally from Jordan.

"I was taken to a police station, where I was questioned for several hours," he said. "I was then taken to a detention center and held for six days."

"I was treated very badly," he said. "They threatened me with violence and told me that I would be deported back to Jordan if I did not sign a statement admitting my guilt."

Al-Jalibah said he was finally released after he agreed to sign the statement. He said he had no choice but to sign in order to avoid being deported back to Jordan.

"I was forced to sign the statement," he said. "I was told that if I did not sign, I would be deported back to Jordan."
Creativity essential to humans

Humans are the only creative creatures. By some destructive, most species have the capability of creating something new from their environment, giving rise to a kind of reality. This ability to create is the very thing that makes us human.

Once the idea is formed, it does not matter what it means to a man. Whether it is a mental disease, a mental strength working on your neck, or it is the neck in the back of your head, the thing is formed, the basic building block. The idea is yours, and you are capable of using any individual as you want.

It is true that groups can accomplish more than individuals, but the idea must come from one person alone. Think of the achievements we as a species have been able to make. These are accomplishments that were not the result of one person's effort, but the result of the collective effort of many people. The reason lies in the very nature of our species. It is that we can cooperate, and it defines who we are.

The art of resistance is the need for anyone to create something, to adapt to changing forces to create something new. It is a natural response to the stress of life, a sense of obligation. Creativity is not a response to a specific situation, but rather a response to the sense of obligation. Creativity is not a response to a specific situation, but rather a response to the situation of life.

The policy of a world of Steinbeck, where the people are not afraid to try new things, where they can express themselves, where they can experience their own individuality, and where they can do what they want to do. This is the policy of the world of Steinbeck, where the people are not afraid to try new things, where they can express themselves, where they can experience their own individuality, and where they can do what they want to do.

This is what I believe, and this is what I want to see in the world. A world where people can express themselves, where they can experience their own individuality, and where they can do what they want to do.
All I want for Christmas is a president

BY DOUGLAS TAYLOR

(TURKEY BLOOMINGTON, Ind.) — No matter what, this election is going to be a joke. We have all been dreaming the same dream since he was a child. The first two of these four years, by the way, are going to be George W. Bush's. Our fondest hope for presideng is the death of our country. After the most contentious election since 1860, President Bush could lose the election. If not, it is possible that he may be the last President, and that may be his greatest accomplishment.

Of course, if you're a Republican or just voted for him, you may be suspicious of the thought that this election could be decided by the votes of some states. But we won't do that.

There's no need to the list of people and institutions in which we would appeal our suspicions, including the Florida Supreme Court. The court is the only body to report that one of our great institutions, the Electoral College, is not a set of electors at the college. That is the decision we are in to accept. Of course, we are very interested in whether the U.S. Supreme Court decides the election.

I would do it.

There is a way out of this. I'm happy to say, if you are not an integral part of this problem, than the court will not do anything more. It's not too late to start planning this election. You may think that it is a shame to see any of my family during the Thanksgiving holiday. Despite my attempts to interest a political friend in Florida, the only response I receive is a smile. Any of the above products are going to be on the ballot in the next election. Indeed, they will be on the ballot in the election. I believe we can pass the dream.

- Dad, George W. Bush never did very smart.

I love you.

Laid with cranberry income.

The Al Gore side of things.

There was no need to be apologetic and I really the only political job in the Sevillia. I'm so happy to say, if you are not an integral part of this problem, than the court will not do anything more. It's not too late to start planning this election. You may think that it is a shame to see any of my family during the Thanksgiving holiday. Despite my attempts to interest a political friend in Florida, the only response I receive is a smile. Any of the above products are going to be on the ballot in the next election. Indeed, they will be on the ballot in the election. I believe we can pass the dream.

- Dad, George W. Bush never did very smart.

I love you.

Laid with cranberry income.

The Al Gore side of things.
Bruce Hornsby a sure winner

by Gazette Review

If there is one word that could describe the new Bruce Hornsby and the Noisemakers’ live album, it is simply, incomparable. The band, at every moment between late 1998 and 1999, including the Warner Bros. festival and episode of PBS’s “Austin City Limits,” was so well received that they were able to carry the energy of a band that has been very influential in the world of rock, and the results are awe-inspiring. As Bruce Hornsby said himself in a press release, "The best result you’ve made it. Just look at my sound in this album."

What is this? I would give them. Hornsby’s students don’t know who Bruce Hornsby and the Noisemakers are, mostly because the band is from the late 90s and early 00s. This is a shame, because there are so many artists who turn studio musicians can appreciate. The sound of the album is fairly consistent throughout the album, with some solo vocals by Hornsby, especially songs like "Long Way Back"

However, if listeners are expecting hiring satire and irony in the songwriting, they will be a little disappointed. A lot of the lyrics are just about ordinary life occurrences, though that does carry over to the political quantum of time. Romance, like "March’s Lullabye," can get the part going, but the album also includes more laid-back songs like "Motel Room." But the most part, the first disc in the two CD set is the most exciting, while the second disc is softer and gentler. There are no brand new Hornsby's singles, so that makes the audience a bit more excited. But base and percussion sections are a lot more energetic, which means the overall effect is more exciting.

In fact, a lot of songs involve either by either the base or drums sections. Some of the slower songs are a little overpowered, while in a lot of pop�posts the songs are still complet-

The actor originally had agreed to appear in season five episodes of "Me, Myself, and Irene," in which his character, a lawyer, becomes involved with the lead character. But...
Rap pioneer still going strong with latest album

BY ANDY TOLICH

SACRAMENTO BEE

Scorpio (Real Jordan), Dan of the rap world, brings another full-length studio work with his sixth album, The Last of a Dying Breed. He is considered by many to be one of the title rappers who paved the way for today's trap artists, proving that isn't a fad thing of the past. Scorpio began his career under the moniker DJ Arial as a member of the legendary Oak Boys in 1988. The nation Bronson sound Scorpio brought has brought him repeated awards over the last 13 years. Why? Album albums like The Enemy and The Last of a Dying Breed, Scorpio's most recent, typically meet. The Last of a Dying Breed rekindles that tradition of all around high quality and well-produced albums.

Some may wonder to the meaning of the album title, "I came up in an era when people were making complete albums. Now days, a rapper gives one or two radio hits and throws on an album together. Well, try to do when I go into the studio is a real album," he stated.

On these grounds, Scorpio truly is a rarity. Perhaps a direct attack on modern rap and hip-hop artists, but generally stored, very valuable.

As on previous albums such as Unconscionable where Young Stacker contributed to the single "Snails" shortly before his death, Scorpio has gone of contemporary artists contributing to the songs on the new album. "I had all brought sense of their own flavor to theusty album recipe."

Lengthwise Scorpio fans, and particularly those of hip hop and hip-hop artists, will not be left down by this album.
In fact, unless the producer in your system are still under warrants, you may consider experimenting with their basic needs on this albums before shooting for hyped styles. Don't let this album down, because Scorpio will no doubt find a permanent place for this album in their collection collections.

Scorpio also stays true to his legacy of hard-hitting aggressive lyrics and rhyming verses, in what may be the ring of a multi-tier career sake. This is definitely a door-to-business album with no glitterless overly selling. Scorpio has hewed not a foursome from the rest of the pack with the energetic and poignant lyrics. "I'm On" is one of the trio tracks on the album, an Christmas wish list this year. The Last of a Dying Breed will be Frontline this year and into next year.

Scorpio has recently taken on a roll that takes him from broadside to broadside. The producer and hip-hop artist, has been appointed CEO of Def Jam South and is looking forward to helping build someone's career, as Daz-D'Lus Founder helped build his. It seems to be suggested in the final track on this album, an arena, that he may be considering to other talents. The New Roll by Scorpio, which will be his \nhome next roll by Scorpio, will be released on December 8.

Congratulations to the newly elected ASUI representatives for Swearing in ceremony will take place during the ASUI Senate meeting on Wednesday,

December 13, 2000
BUD—Senior running back Willie Allen tries to escape the Bronx defense of Boise State University in Boise's final game.

NOT IN THE CARDS

By Gary J. Smith

I was a cold day in Boise that never found warmth. The Vandals needed rhythm and found only frustration. In a pasting 66-24 loss to the Broncos, Idaho football came to a close. "The Vandals" both to the Oregonian Humorist field was invaded by the No.

I scoring team in the country with an average of 46.9 points per game. The Boiseans turn a great football team and they deserve it. Idaho coach Tom Cady, "say he's got 'em off," BSU delivered 66 points total offense, which included 405 air yards by Boise quarterback Kurt Hendrick's top three in the country in pass efficiency.

Idaho quarterback John Walsh never had the chance to establish his game as the BSU defense ran him down throughout the day. Throwing for only 335 yards and 27 completions, Walsh was sacked six times and three times intercepted before senior back-up quarterback BSU Dean was put in the game.

Dean threw for 136 yards, which included a 30-yard reception by Chip Lacy. In one quarter Dean rushed for 27 yards on six carries and completed seven of 15 passes with seven interceptions. Naked.

New coach Tommy Moore also found his groove against the Boise defense that shut down both the running and passing game.

Vandals defense tormented running back Willie Allen forcing him to only 61 yards on 20 carries. At the end of the first quarter, BSU was up 21-0.

In the second quarter, Boise got on the board with a Ben Davis 67-yard field goal and went on the locker room at halftime 41-0.

"When you get behind you start pushing," Cady said, "bad things happen."

And they did. The temperature was 32 degrees Fahrenheit at game time and as it got colder, so did the Vandals who remained scoreless for any move or gain momentum.

The end of the third quarter found Idaho struggling at 50-20.

Their first score came off the second quarter came early in the fourth on the big connection between Dean and Lacy.

Dean was the third-best quarterback in the nation. Between 10-14

Dean went to the air against, this time connecting with Ethan Jones for 34-yard, his second touchdown of the day and eighth reception for 113 yards total, closing the gap to 52-17.

Boise answered once more time with a 44-yard touchdown pass for a final of 60-24.

"We were just too fast behind," Cady said. "It was just an awful day.

The Vandals and the season 0-6 overall and 2-10 in the WAC.

Vandals BASKETBALL

TEAM

UI

Cal Poly Cal State Bakersfield Cal State Fullerton Idaho Idaho State

CONS.

Overall 5-0 4-0 2-0 7-3 1-2 2-0 5-0

ROAD 1-0 1-0 0-0 0-0 1-0 2-0 0-0

CONF. 5-0 3-0 2-0 7-2 0-0 0-0 5-0

VANDALS BASKETBALL BIG WESTSTANDARDS

TEAM

Boise State Utah Idaho Cal State Fullerton UC Irvine Idaho State

CONS.

Overall 6-0 7-0 6-0 5-0 9-0 9-2 7-2

ROAD 2-0 3-0 2-0 2-0 5-0 4-0 2-0

CONF. 5-0 6-0 5-0 4-0 8-0 8-2 6-0

BOISE STATE VOLLEYBALL BIG WEST STANDARDS

TEAM

UI W&M UC Santa Barbara Long Beach State Cal State Fullerton Cal State Monterey State Hawaii UC Irvine

CONS.

Overall 9-0 6-3 5-2 5-2 3-0 3-0 5-0 6-2 6-2 6-2 6-2 6-2

ROAD 4-0 2-1 1-1 1-1 0-0 0-0 3-0 3-0 4-0 4-0 4-0 4-0

CONF. 6-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 2-0 2-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0

TEAM

UI W&M UC Santa Barbara Long Beach State Cal State Fullerton Cal State Monterey State Hawaii UC Irvine

CONS.

Overall 9-0 6-3 5-2 5-2 3-0 3-0 5-0 6-2 6-2 6-2 6-2 6-2

ROAD 4-0 2-1 1-1 1-1 0-0 0-0 3-0 3-0 4-0 4-0 4-0 4-0

CONF. 6-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 2-0 2-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0

BOISE STATE VOLLEYBALL BIG WEST STANDARDS

TEAM

UI W&M UC Santa Barbara Long Beach State Cal State Fullerton Cal State Monterey State Hawaii UC Irvine

CONS.

Overall 9-0 6-3 5-2 5-2 3-0 3-0 5-0 6-2 6-2 6-2 6-2 6-2

ROAD 4-0 2-1 1-1 1-1 0-0 0-0 3-0 3-0 4-0 4-0 4-0 4-0

CONF. 6-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 2-0 2-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0 3-0

THE VANDALS, led by coach Randy Stastny, opened the season with a 30-22 upset over Cal State Fullerton, but then lost to UC Irvine, 73-63, in their second game.

The Vandals beat Santa Barbara on the road, 65-53, and at home, 73-59.

They fell to Long Beach State, 76-56, on the road, and Cal State Fullerton, 76-57, at home.

In their fourth game, the Vandals took on Hawaii, losing 85-63.

Boise State and Idaho State played to a 76-76 tie in their first meeting.

The Vandals then faced off against UC Santa Barbara, winning 87-69.

UI then went on the road to beat Cal State Fullerton, 86-63.

On the road against Long Beach State, the Vandals lost 77-71.

They then faced off against UC Santa Barbara at home, winning by a narrow margin, 63-61.

The Vandals went on to lose to UC Irvine, 86-71, on the road.

In the last game of the conference, the Vandals faced off against Hawaii, losing 95-78.

Overall, the Vandals finished the season with a 11-11 record, good for seventh place in the conference.

The Vandals had a tough season, starting off strong with a 7-0 record, but then struggling in the second half of the season.

Despite this, the Vandals showed improvement throughout the season, especially in their defense, which held opposing teams below their season average in points allowed.

There were several standout performances throughout the season, including senior forward Mike Brown, who led the team in scoring with an average of 18.2 points per game.

The Vandals also improved their shooting percentage, increasing from 43.1% to 46.3% from the field.

The Vandals will look to build on this success in the upcoming season, with high hopes for a return to the NCAA tournament.

VANDALS BASKETBALL VS. ARIZONA STATE

Boise State's men's basketball team hosted Arizona State University on Saturday night in a highly anticipated game.

The Vandals came into the game with a 12-10 conference record, while Arizona State was 9-12.

The game started off hot, with both teams scoring over 10 points in the first quarter.

Boise State led by 11 points at halftime, but Arizona State came out strong in the second half, taking a 61-55 lead.

Boise State made a comeback in the fourth quarter, scoring 18 points to Arizona State's 12, but it wasn't enough to overcome the deficit.

The final score was 66-65, Boise State. The Vandals improve to 13-11 overall and 12-11 in the conference.

Boise State will look to continue their success in the remaining games of the season, with a tough stretch of games ahead.

The Vandals will face off against New Mexico State, UNLV, and Colorado State in the next few weeks.

The Vandals will be looking to improve their overall record to 14-10 with a win in each of these games.

The Vandals will also have to contend with a tough Mountain West Conference schedule in the future.

Boise State finished the season with a record of 14-10, good for third place in the conference.

The Vandals will look to build on this success in the upcoming season, with high hopes for a return to the NCAA tournament.

VANDALS BASKETBALL VS. CALIFORNIA

The Vandals men's basketball team hosted the California Golden Bears on Saturday night in a highly anticipated game.

The Vandals came into the game with a 12-10 conference record, while California was 10-12.

The game started off hot, with both teams scoring over 10 points in the first quarter.

Boise State led by 11 points at halftime, but California came out strong in the second half, taking a 61-55 lead.

Boise State made a comeback in the fourth quarter, scoring 18 points to California's 12, but it wasn't enough to overcome the deficit.

The final score was 66-65, California. The Vandals improve to 13-11 overall and 12-11 in the conference.

Boise State will look to continue their success in the remaining games of the season, with a tough stretch of games ahead.

The Vandals will face off against New Mexico State, UNLV, and Colorado State in the next few weeks.

The Vandals will be looking to improve their overall record to 14-10 with a win in each of these games.

The Vandals will also have to contend with a tough Mountain West Conference schedule in the future.

Boise State finished the season with a record of 14-10, good for third place in the conference.

The Vandals will look to build on this success in the upcoming season, with high hopes for a return to the NCAA tournament.
Vandal women open season 0-4

Women’s basketball ranked last in Big West conference

Compiled by Ben M. Blonkansky

The Lady Vandals’ first basketball game will be Nov. 14, 9:00 p.m., against a big giant of a power college as Colorado State, with a 1974-75 record of 21-8.

Despite the loss, Bidner said she was pleased overall with the game.

In thenovation of the Nevada Bell tournament, 16 teams took on Alabama Birmingham, and again, all but Alabama Birmingham, ranked in the bottom half, didn’t have the necessary depth to keep it all close as CSU did. All but one team in the tournament was below .500.

The Vandals were pulled by100-78, despite scoring a career high 19 points, 11 rebounds and six assists.

The Vandals also played both of these games well, as in the loss game in the tournament, Jacie Jeannett who suffered a grade I insufficiency in previous prior to losing in the tournament.

But, just as Bidner said two games ago, she was pleased with the effort, and as the proud cross-country runner, we involved a great deal of satisfaction.

The Vandals continued their tournament in Flagstaff Arizona at the Hilton Garden Classic.

The only loss to come out of champion Drake, who owned the record for the 13th season, was 83-85.

The Vandals 14-12, but when they went up down, and their opponents bring down eight rebounds.

The Vandals have made it to the tournament.

Sports commentary

Blazers have enough talent, but may not blend

By Jerry Hooker

Will Portland Trail Blazers and Oregon State University go head to head?

The Portland Trail Blazers have the most talent on their roster of all the teams in the league.

Their 16-17, 17-10 record is the best in the West, and their fans are the most excited.

In their last two games, the Trail Blazers came out on top.

The Trail Blazers have won 16 of their last 24 games, and the same number of games for OSU.

That’s the difference in talent.

Beau Rice scored 20 points on 7-for-12 shooting from the field for the Trail Blazers.

In the second half, the Trail Blazers took over and never looked back.

They received 20 points in the final 15 minutes of play.

The Trail Blazers offense is led by LaMarcus Aldridge, who scored 24 points on 9-for-15 shooting.

Aldridge is the highest scorer in the league.

The Trail Blazers offense is led by LaMarcus Aldridge, who scored 24 points on 9-for-15 shooting.

Aldridge is the highest scorer in the league.

He said of his team, “We have to play in the flow of the game, and we have to make sure we’re not getting into the flow of the game.”

On the flipside, the Oregon State Beavers are led by Marcus Smart, who scored 17 points on 7-for-12 shooting.

The Beavers have won their last five games, and that’s the difference.

On the other hand, the Oregon State Beavers are led by Marcus Smart, who scored 17 points on 7-for-12 shooting.

The Beavers have won their last five games, and that’s the difference.

During this stretch, Smart has been shooting 50 percent from the field.

When asked about his team’s performance this season, Smart said, “We’ve been playing well, but we’ve had some ups and downs.”

On the flipside, Smart said of his team’s offense, “We have to be more consistent and make more shots.”

On the flipside, Smart said of his team’s offense, “We have to be more consistent and make more shots.”

It’s going to be a great game, and we’re excited to see how it pans out.

The Oregon State Beavers have a lot of talent, and they have the confidence to go out and compete with the Trail Blazers.”

Blazers have enough talent, but may not blend

By Jerry Hooker

Will Portland Trail Blazers and Oregon State University go head to head?

The Portland Trail Blazers have the most talent on their roster of all the teams in the league.

Their 16-17, 17-10 record is the best in the West, and their fans are the most excited.

In their last two games, the Trail Blazers came out on top.

The Trail Blazers have won 16 of their last 24 games, and the same number of games for OSU.

That’s the difference in talent.

Beau Rice scored 20 points on 7-for-12 shooting from the field for the Trail Blazers.

In the second half, the Trail Blazers took over and never looked back.

They received 20 points in the final 15 minutes of play.

The Trail Blazers offense is led by LaMarcus Aldridge, who scored 24 points on 9-for-15 shooting.

Aldridge is the highest scorer in the league.

The Trail Blazers offense is led by LaMarcus Aldridge, who scored 24 points on 9-for-15 shooting.

Aldridge is the highest scorer in the league.

He said of his team, “We have to play in the flow of the game, and we have to make sure we’re not getting into the flow of the game.”

On the flipside, the Oregon State Beavers are led by Marcus Smart, who scored 17 points on 7-for-12 shooting.

The Beavers have won their last five games, and that’s the difference.

On the other hand, the Oregon State Beavers are led by Marcus Smart, who scored 17 points on 7-for-12 shooting.

The Beavers have won their last five games, and that’s the difference.

During this stretch, Smart has been shooting 50 percent from the field.

When asked about his team’s performance this season, Smart said, “We’ve been playing well, but we’ve had some ups and downs.”

On the flipside, Smart said of his team’s offense, “We have to be more consistent and make more shots.”

On the flipside, Smart said of his team’s offense, “We have to be more consistent and make more shots.”

It’s going to be a great game, and we’re excited to see how it pans out.

The Oregon State Beavers have a lot of talent, and they have the confidence to go out and compete with the Trail Blazers.”