Indoor Track Meets.
A series of indoor track meets to include all indoor events is being planned by Physical Director Van der Veer. The series will include four meets, the first of which will be held the second Saturday after Christmas, Jan. 17. The meets will be of an invitational nature. The program for the first meet includes the 40-yard dash, 440-yard dash, mile run, relay race—ten laps and tug of war—four man teams, unlimited weights. A basketball game will also be played on that afternoon between the regulars and the short course men. Masa will lead the regulars while the short ag will be captained by Humphries.

FRESHMEN ARE THE CHAMPIONS
Win All Their Games in a Walk in Pink's june class

The Freshman team won the inter-class basketball championship when it easily defeated the Sophomores last Saturday afternoon, by a score of 53-3. The Freshmen had the better of the game throughout and the Sophomores made their scores only in the last minutes of play.

Two other games were played during the last week. The Freshmen best the Juniors 15 to 10, and the Sophomores lost to the Seniors, 16 to 15. Both games were close and exciting.

The Sophomore season ended last night with the Senior-Junior game which was postponed from last Friday. As we go to press the result of the game is still in doubt, and we cannot chronicle the final standing of the teams in this issue.

The scores were:
Tuesday, Juniors 10, Freshmen 15

Brown Leads Strength Test.
Physical Director Van der Veer has been busy with his testing machine for the past week and has recorded some very fine tests. Stanley Brown now leads in the competition for the Freshman strength cup with a test of 707. This is the largest test made by a freshman in several years. McNett held the record for a few days with a test of 6605.

Another excellent test has been made in the girls' department. Florence Brunson made a test of 2935 pounds, exceeding the Idaho average for women by over 600 pounds and the eastern average by about a thousand. Miss Brunson is in only 59.8 inches tall and weighs only 100 pounds.

IDOAH TEAM WINS CONTEST
Stock Juries Carry Off Honors In Both Contests at Lewis Stock Show.

The students' team from the University of Idaho won the stock judging contest at the Northwest Livestock show this week, defeating the team from the Washougal (Washington) Cornell College. A score of 22,842 to 22,640, Idaho got first in sheep, fat cattle and fat hogs, while Washington State College secured first on horses, breeding cattle and breeding hogs.

The Idaho team—comprised of C. F. Lewis, H. C. Heatly, L. I. Case, W. B. Kjosnitt and C. E. Johnson.

The individual scores secured were as follows:

This contest was conducted by Prof. W. K. Clark of the Montana Agricultural college, who was assisted with the horses by G. Wilson, with cattle by Duncan Davis; with hogs by L. H. Linberger, and with sheep by F. M. Rothrock of Spokane.

Prof. R. C. Ashley of W. S. C. and E. J. Judding of Idaho University conducted the stock course student's contest in which there were nine entrants, five from Moscow and two from Garfield high school and two from Lewiston State normal. The rating of the contestants was as follows:

- R. H. Nelson, Moscow, first; H. R. Abel, Moscow, second; H. F. Jones, Moscow, third; James Aberson, Garfield, fourth, Thomas Moffit, Garfield, fifth.
FOOTBALL FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Moscow, Idaho, Dec. 15, 1912
To the Faculty, Athletic Committee and the Athletic Board of the University of Idaho,

GENTLEMEN—
As graduate manager I hand you herewith my report of the past football season.

The report consists of a total list of receipts and an itemized list of expenditures, each expenditure having a number that refers to a voucher that is attached to the find made part of this report. There is also, where it was possible to get one, an itemized account of the articles for which the voucher was spent. These itemized accounts are attached and made part of this report. The season was fairly successful financially, ending with a balance of $1.71.

The manager lost considerable on the Oregon game, which fell short $312.80 or varying itself. All other games paid for themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

G. L. LARSON,
Graduate Manager.

The Williams Jubilee Singers, who will give a concert at the Methodist church Wednesday evening, have appeared in Moscow several times and have always pleased their large audiences. Their selections range from opera to jubilee and plantation songs. The classic selections are rendered with splendid effect, but the songs and melodies of their own race compose the most popular part of the programs.

The quartet is a special feature and is always a favorite. The base and tenor voices also strongly appeal to the average audience. In fact those who have heard the previous concerts of the Williams Jubilee Singers in Moscow say that every number is highly appreciated. The singers have an extensive repertoire and are liberal in their encore. The tickets are on sale at the hotel. The company appears under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

"WHERE QUALITY COUNTS"
Campus Celebrity No. 5
Your full name, please.
Harold L. Axell, The L. stands for Laredo. I'm an expert tennis player, you know. I'm in a class all by myself around here, but I enjoy tennis nevertheless. Next to being in the game myself, I like to listen to the Dean play.
It gives me great pleasure to tell you that you are considered a model professor.
"Oh is that so? I'm very glad to hear it."
But don't get excited. Are you familiar with the definition of the word model? It means a small imitation of the real thing. That puts a different face on the matter—and on you, too, I mean.
"Oh, that's all right. A professor of Greek never expects any words of appreciation. The language itself abounds in hard words—principal parts, irregular nouns and so on."
Can you explain your diminutive stature?
"I think so. My father was professor of Latin and Greek in Kalamazoo College. What are you laughing at? Kalamazoo is one grand little college."
My father like most, college professors, had a rather small salary and consequently our daily bill of fare was somewhat meager; I was practically raised on Greek roots.
Have you ever had any interesting experiments or exciting adventures?
Yes. I once made a trip to Liverpool in a cattle-boat. I had literary aspirations and was in quest of material. Well, I gathered a goodly store of atmosphere—and other things. I made frequent contributions to the Atlantic during the trip. As a means of self-discovery the venture was a success. I had never before realized what I had in me.
POEM INSULT TO EMPEROR

Washington, Dec. 16.—One of the members of the German embassy and has indicated that the embassy regards as "important" a poem by Captain George Streunenberg, U.S. S. Published in the Army and Navy Journal, in which fan is in the name of the German emperor, and Von Molkke. The insinuation of the verse is that the Turks were born in because they followed the advice of German military experts.

It is intimated that while no action has been taken yet, the poem will be referred to the state department by the embassy. It will then be the duty of the state department to refer the complaint to the war department if the state department regards the verses as malicious and improper. Beyond doubt the action of the German consul is in obedience to directions from the Kaiser.

Captain Streunenberg was transferred months ago from Fort McPherson to an army post in the southwest, following the publication of letters in which he ridiculed a band of Southern cities and compared them unfavorably with Boise, Idaho.

Streunenberg's letters created much feeling, especially in Atlanta, as they were written after he had been given entree to the leading Atlanta clubs. There was a movement to have Streunenberg removed by the war department, but it resulted in nothing. During the controversy Streunenberg stood by his letters and declared he had stated the simple truth about southern cities and their people.

Streunenberg was then left severely in a social way and finally secured a transfer.

Army and Navy officers discussed the verses at the Army and Navy club, and while they would not express any opinion on the subject they said that the case was a close parallel to the "Hoch der Kaiser" sensation of Rear Admiral Coghlin, which ended with an even more severe disciplinary action.

One of the members of the general army staff said he was an unequaled law that army navy officers, and in fact, all officers or one Government, shall not express publicly in the attitude of criticizing another power or its people, or persons.

"Sometimes, however," said this officer, "when it is patent a case of only good nature, such harsh measures are taken." Rear Admiral Coghlin did not write the poem, "Hoch der Kaiser." It was written by another officer and delivered by Coghlin at a banquet tendered to him in New York on his return from the Spanish American war. The navy department wrote Admiral Coghlin a mild order of reprimand and the Streunenberg poem is as follows:

OUR OBJECT LESSON

Oh, back ye, Yankee soldiers! From far across the sea;
Come the news that Turkey's fighting men were trained by General von Moltke;
That she faced the Bull-Cities single-handed and alone
With a simple faith in Allah and our Devil.

And they say that on the morning that the mighty was at work
That German trained army vanished in a whirl of dust
That the swords were all unwieldy and their guns were all flat
As they sought the dim Horizons in a Barry jersey

A Montrealer in major gave the flying fox a glance, Then理念 a cigarette and scratched a match upon his pant
And spoke with his German name, "Let 'em have a few more pills.
That is, if your skulls can catch 'em—they've been trained by Von Der Gott!"

A colonel of Bulgarians then tossed aside the cost
And yelled, "Come on, my hearties! Looks like you're winning! Just follow Uncle Fuller to your battle's bust!
While we were 'ee how to do it—they've been reading Giesepkard!"

Away from Constantinople the hosts of Allah cheer;
And the only ones that halted were the ones that stopped the lead.
Youth a German lieutenant then, "The evident to me That's been by studying the books of Von Molt-ker."

A pouting Turkey corporal—from GermanyARMS—coming true.
We ain't much on form, but we sure are br—l—er speed!
For they sprouted night and morning till their legs were in fact.
But they won the six-day Marathon—they reached the city first.
A tale that points a moral. Most anyone can see.
That it's time to disregard the ways of Jessup and Lee.
For the sacred Scripture tells us, 'Ye shall be as them by your works.'
So we set our hats to Von Der Gott, the man who trained the Turks.
And now while Europe trembles on the verge it deathly tray, the dray of peace is coming in the good old U.S.A.
For in Germany political powers will leave Uncle Sam alone.

While our excellent Stenunberg at Leavenworth are studying Von Bohus!
And while the German eagle soars above the Rakish Flag.
It strikes us as a stiffing time to change the uniform of the boys.
Set's get one of these shyte things they wear across the breast
And add a gleaming helmet with an eagle on the crest.
And dugs at many Leavenworth in Dutch, professors rule.
And build a model brewery—an annex to the school—
A mark of Von Der Golz replen-wheat in the hall.

And photographs of Kaiser Bill adorning ev'ry wall.
And he who seeks promotion must subulate a fraud year.
On pretends, cheese and wine-sweeten, and good old German beer;
And notify the colonels—sound the warning note and fly!

That they've got to sing "Die Wacht Am Rhein" before they get the war.
Then here's back to the Fatherland—let's follow her train
And all take up the green step when we march to war again.
Our motto "Made In Germany," triumph-
-phant over fear.
Our slogan, "Hoch der Kaiser!" and the constant "Eh! beer!"— —George Streunenberg, Seventeenth United States Infantry, Fort McPherson.

Many of the older students remember Captain Streunenberg for he was Commandant of cadets at the University just before Lieutenant Smith's regime.

THE LAWYERS BUST.

The smoker, or so-called "bust," given by the lawyers last Thursday, carealed at K. of P. hall was certainly a success from every point of view.

The main object of the holding of such an entertainment was to promote a feeling of fellowship among the students of the law department, or more simply, just to get together as a body for an evening's enjoyment, and thereby pro-

The program opened before the arrival of the faculty by a meeting of the students for the purpose of discussing the advisability of organizing, and it was decided that such steps be tak-

Accordingly a committee was ap-appointed to draw up a constitution and set of bylaws. A description of the rest of the evening's entertainment might read like the following: "A characteristic, high class, eccentric and humorous entertainment, perfectly planned, with realistic action, spectacular scenery, the whole affording an exceptional evening of enjoyment in forensic representations, inspired by the far-famed indies entitled "The Mix of the Mixture" and "The Addled Coffee." In fact an evening long to be remembered as pleasing alike to old and young."

Of course all who were there were young.

The work of the committee that arranged the program is especially to be congratulated on their spirit and work for without a doubt the great success of the evening can be attributed to them. The event is not to die out with this year, but is to go down in history as the beginning of a custom for the lawyers to give every year their annual "bust."

Presentation of Commissions.

Last Thursday evening the commissions were presented to the officers of the U. of I. battalion.

At the beginning of the exercises, the troops in Lewis hall where they were reviewed by President Mac-Leam. The battalion then went into the gymnasium where the exercises known as "Battles Manu-ual" were gone through to entertain the audience which filled the balcony. The lieutenant reviewed in a short talk the purposes of a university battalion, he said in part. "This work we do through;

here has in view a serious purpose.

We are training men to become commissioned officers in our volunteer troops in case of a war.

There are some of course who are better fitted for this than the rest.

Those we are fit to honor so we present to them these commissions." He then introduced President MacLean to the audience as the assembled men. The president expressed gratification over the honors, and briefly the history of the university battalion and their different instructors. He told of that immortal band whose gallant services in the Spanish-American war will never be forgotten. He reviewed with pleasure the discipline that has already manifested the regard of the students.

He spoke briefly of the honor which wasfalling to those who were forming to main commissions in the battalion.

The commissions were given to the officers. Those thus honored are:

Major, Lewis Jones; Captains,

Denning, Carlson and Young;

1st Lieut. and Bat. Adj.,

Adams; 1st Lieuts., Stone

Anderson and Buras; 2nd Lieuts.,

Babcock, Holiday and Gregory.

Sophomore Class Meeting.

A class meeting on Saturday was rather an unusual thing, in fact, it was an unusual meeting which the sophomore class held on Saturday last because the most of the class was there. It came nearer being a turn out than any other meeting of the year. Those who worked hard trying to get a meeting with some spirit into it felt that it was far from a failure.

After a reading of the minutes, the question of a sophomore play was taken up and it was decided that one should be given. A motion was introduced and carried, authorizing the president to appoint a committee to look over different plays, and with the advice of Prof. Lehman and Miss

French to select a suitable one and submit it to the class to be passed up on. The play will be staged some time during the second semester. A bill was presented and allowed for the hand bills which were distributed among the sophomore for the purpose of getting a little class spirit stirred up. The little Hodgers had a fine effect and the spirit that they started was manifest throughout the game with the Juniors, both by the players and the rest of the class.

After a short talk by the president on

"Class Spirit" and "The Chillingness of the Cellar," Pond was elected yell leader and the meeting was adjourned and all the members present went one to the class games to boost for the sophomore team.

At Assembly

A very short student assembly was held last week for the purpose of clearing up all old business before vacation. After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the previous meetings, the question of Students Co-operative Book Store was taken up again and disposed of for the present.

The committee itself seemed to have become a little dubious as to its successful working at the present time, and therefore recomm ended that an attempt be made to have the books purchased through the Bureau's office in a more satisfactory way than what it has been heretofore. The question of the co-operative book store was laid on the shelf for the present time, and the chances are that it will be indefinitely. A committee was appointed to try and secure the necessary reforms in the purchasing of the books through the Bureau.

A discussion of summer baseball was taken up, which resulted in a motion being introduced and passed whereby the delegates to the conference will go instructed to favor the permission of summer baseball in the conference rules.

There being no further business to settle the meeting was adjourned.

Lawyers Seek Favorable Legislation

A meeting of the students of the law school was held last week in order to get the opinion of the students of that department on the question of attempting to get through legislation so that graduates of the law department would be admitted to the bar in the State of Idaho without examination. Short speeches were made by members of the faculty giving the advantages and disadvantages of the proposition as it appeared to them, without leading their influence one way or the other. The speeches made by the members of the student body were all in favor of the movement. Representative-elect W. H. Mason, class '12, of the law school, made a short talk in which, without giving his personal views on the subject, stated that he would be glad to follow the wishes of the students and faculty in working for or against such legislation in the coming session of the legislature.

A resolution was introduced and passed whereby a committee was appointed to take the matter up and try to get the cooperation of the faculty in the attempt to get a measure through whereby the graduates from the law school be admitted to the bar in the State of Idaho upon the recommendation of the dean of that department without examination. Those graduating from the law school and failing to get the required recommendation would be compelled to take the examination of the state if they ever desired to practice.

and only the soft glow from covered lights on the sides of the room illuminated the floor. The orchestra played that beautiful waltz "Dream of Heaven". The juniors can certainly look back on this dance with pride as the swells dance of the grandest affair of the college year.

The dance was closed at 12 o'clock by order of Dean French. As a last farewell the orchestra played "Everyone is in Slumberland," but just You and Me."

The committee which had charge of the dance was composed of Foy C. Robinson, George Scott and Irene Tourney.

The sub-committees were as follows: decorations, Foy C. Robinson, Steven Reece, Elizabeth Geyse, Mabel Audited, Alice Cooner; invitation, Irene Tourney, Jeannette Fox, Vernon Fawcett; refreshments, Gladys Lossinger, Zella Bingham, Charles Horning; Fontaines, Clarence Faye, Margaret Newman.

The patronesses of the dance were:
Mrs. James A. MacLean, Misses personal Friends, Mrs. R. B. McCaffrey, Mrs. J. G. Griffin, Miss Foy Huston.

The refreshments were served by Misses Helen Frantz, Faei Doyle, Maria Stolen, Marian Taylor.

The cot of town guests were Misses Mote and Bolzer from Rocklan, Robinson, Kottenbaugh and Patting from Lawton, Misses Pritchard, Mahesh, Lutheen, McLeod and Shumacher from Pullman.

There were also Messrs. A. Walsh, W. T. Gatwood, Tom Tyler, F. 0. Holt, C. A. Strauss and Governor of W & G.

The committee reports that after paying all expenses there was left about $20. The committee is to be congratulated. It has been a long time since a junior room has paid.

A Cereal Story

A group of agriculture professors were head to make the following remarks about the campus celebrities stories appearing in the Argonaut:
"Such impertinences maize me. They arouse my righteous 'corn for the man whose thoughts have been so tuned away.'"
"I have made an oat of them, too, I can burley stand it. I don't believe the Argonaut editor has a grain of sense.

Now don't get up on your ears. Can you not see that those articles are meant for flattery, not abuse? To me, indirect praise would be just as wheat."

W. W. Clancy, ex-'92 law arrived Monday evening from his home in Juneau, Alaska, accompanied by an Alaskan wolf. He will register the second semester.
