Swisher, senators resign

by John Vaughn

The Associated Student Government of the University of Idaho announced its resignation on Monday night, according to its own resolutions. The ASUI, which had been in existence for 98 years, said it would be dissolved effective immediately.

"The ASUI has made a conscious decision to dissolve," the resolution stated. "We believe that the University of Idaho is capable of providing adequate representation for its students."

The ASUI was founded in 1932 and has served as a student government for the university ever since. It has been a source of controversy and debate on campus, with some students supporting itscontinued existence and others calling for its dissolution.

"We have been in existence for 98 years," the resolution continued. "We have accomplished many things, but we believe that the time has come for us to step aside and let the university take over. We are not dissolved because we are not capable of doing our job, but because we believe it is in the best interest of the university to move on."

The ASUI's dissolution comes after a series of investigations into issues ranging from hazing to drug use to sexual assault. The university has faced several lawsuits over these issues, and internal investigations have been ongoing.

"We have been under investigation for a long time," the resolution stated. "We have been accused of a wide range of issues, from hazing to drug use to sexual assault. We have tried to address these issues, but we believe that the university is better equipped to handle them."

The ASUI has been a prominent fixture on the campus for many years, and its dissolution could have significant implications for the university. It has been a source of debate and discussion on campus, and its dissolution could have a major impact on the university's future.

"We have been a source of debate and discussion on campus," the resolution stated. "We have been a source of controversy and debate, but we believe that the time has come for us to step aside and let the university take over. We are not dissolved because we are not capable of doing our job, but because we believe it is in the best interest of the university to move on."
Hammock appointed as new Greek adviser

By LAURA WELLS

At age 24, Cerri Hammock, 2008 University of St. Thomas graduate, saw her name headline all over the University of St. Thomas’s campus.

The University of St. Thomas (UST) student, who is in her fourth year, is the new Student Affairs Director for Greek Affairs.

Hammock graduated from the University of St. Thomas with a bachelor’s degree in social work and political science. She is also a member of the Delta Gamma sorority.

Hammock was the assistant director of Greek Affairs at the University of St. Thomas prior to her promotion. In that role, she oversaw the Greek Life office and assisted in the planning and development of Greek events and activities.

Hammock said that she is excited to move into a new role and is looking forward to the challenges that come with it.

“I am looking forward to leading the Greek Life office and working with our Greek students to create a positive environment where they can grow and thrive,” Hammock said. “I am also excited to work with our staff and faculty to ensure that our Greek students are provided with the resources they need to succeed.”

Hammock said that she is looking forward to working with the students to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

Hammock said that she is ready to take on the new role and that she is excited to see what the future holds.

“She is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice for the position,” said one of Hammock’s colleagues. “She has a strong background in social work and political science, and she has a lot of experience working with Greek students.”

Hammock said that she is excited to work with the students and staff to create a positive environment for them. She said that she will work to ensure that the students have a voice in the decision-making process and that their needs are met.

“Hammock is a great choice
Taylor Thursday said that ASUI needs to openly address the problem.

"There are many things considering the current situation when it comes to their issues of diversity. They're treated as peripheral and not issues of social justice."

The said of three senators and now the president of the ASUI that the crimes were not among the remaining senators until later.

Ronna McCoy, chairman of the ASUI Elections Board, told the senators that the ASUI elections for seven open Senate positions and one Faculty Council position are slated for April 23 and May 1.

TAYLOR

USA TODAY

Widget, 2002

Theft
From Page 1

Southfield said the Argonaut Thursday that the chapter demanded that a number be placed at the fraternity but that he be kept in ignorance of the same.

"We knew what we was taking place at that time, we would have taken action immediately," he said. "The individuals were out of control and they are strongly opposed to actions that happened in that time."

The chapter is disappointed and says that the chapter will now consider an alternative.

Southfield learned of the incident Wednesday through word of mouth.

Kansas Student who resigned Thursday might have to pull an ASUI president, a member of the ASUI business, and not list in any of the police reports.

In a prepared statement Thursday night, President Robert Hooper said,

"The ASUI chapter of the University of Idaho was not aware of the flag incident in question.

We are investigating the situation as a response to the incident and we are following up with our University to determine the appropriate measures.

We believe that the behavior of the ASUI chapter is not consistent with the values of the University of Idaho and we will take appropriate action to address this.

We remain committed to creating a community where all students feel welcome and respected.

We appreciate the efforts of the University of Idaho to address this matter and to ensure that our community is safe and inclusive."

Contact information:

Phone: 208-885-6351
Email: jackson.walker@uidaho.edu
Website: www.uidaho.edu

Washington Educator Career Fair 2002

Sponsor Convention Center April 23

April 23 at the Spokane Center, over 90 school districts/ESD's and 7 colleges/universities will be represented. There will also be over 40 school districts attending from Alaska, Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, and Texas, and the U.S. Peace Corps.

For information/register materials, contact:

University of Idaho Career Services Office
or the
Washington Educator Career Fair
PO Box 11
Lummi Island, WA 98262
Phone: 360-758-7889 Fax: 360-758-7886
Web Page: www.wsna.net
E-mail: WAdufair@aol.com

Washington State Career Fair 2002

Sponsor Convention Center April 23

April 23 at the Spokane Center, over 90 school districts/ESD's and 7 colleges/universities will be represented. There will also be over 40 school districts attending from Alaska, Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, and Texas, and the U.S. Peace Corps.

For information/register materials, contact:

University of Idaho Career Services Office
or the
Washington Educator Career Fair
PO Box 11
Lummi Island, WA 98262
Phone: 360-758-7889 Fax: 360-758-7886
Web Page: www.wsna.net
E-mail: WAdufair@aol.com

Teacher/Education Scholarships Available

The University of Idaho's College of Education is offering $168,000 in Education Scholarships

Thomas C. Wright

teaching scholarships are available for undergraduate and graduate students.

Bright candidates interested in special education get priority.

Deadline to apply: April 22, 2002

Apply at www.uidaho.edu/"Thomas C. Wright Scholarships"

College Juniors and Seniors

24 scholarships at $4,300 each

Preference to special education majors

Undergraduates or Graduates

13 scholarships at $2,000 each

Preference to all students who teach, or will teach to returning teachers

Graduates (Teachers)

Awards range up to $10,000 each

Apply today at www.uidaho.edu/ed/
Representing intolerance
Student leaders' actions defame all of Idaho

T

hanks to the actions of four student leaders, numerous Idahoans will return to the headlines as 'the Shipmates.' (Surely, 'students' is not a derogatory term for students.)

ARUBU, Idaho—Pro Tem Speaker Smith and senator Supervisor Smith Smith, a former senator at the University of Idaho, brought the Senate to a halt yesterday with a vote of no confidence that will likely result in the resignation of three senators. The vote was 10-0, with one senator abstaining.

According to Smith, the complaint was filed against the senator because he was accused of making threats against the senator and the university community. Smith alleged that the senator had made threats against the university community and that he had aids.

In a separate action, the Senate voted to remove Smith from the Senate and to refer the matter to the Idaho State Police for further investigation.

Some students have been critical of the actions of the senators, saying that they are trying to silence their voices. Others have praised the senators for standing up for what they believe in.

In an interview, Smith said, "We are not trying to silence anyone. We are simply trying to hold people accountable for their actions."

The senators have denied any wrongdoing and have vowed to continue fighting for what they believe in. They have also filed a lawsuit against the university and its leaders.

The situation has caused a great deal of controversy and has sparked debates about free speech and accountability. Many have called for the university to take action against the senators and to protect the rights of all students.

In a statement, President Smith said, "We will continue to fight for what we believe in, even if it means going against the university."

The situation is expected to continue for some time, as the university and the senators are likely to continue to face off against each other.

Letters policy

Argonaut welcomes your letters to the editor. However, the Argonaut adheres to a strict policy of deleting letters that:

Letters should be fewer than 250 words.

Letters should focus on issues, not personalities.

Argonaut reserves the right to edit all letters for grammar and length.

Letters should be signed, include names and phone numbers.

Mailbox

Columns should be relevant.

Letters policy

Argonaut welcomes your letters to the editor. However, the Argonaut adheres to a strict policy of deleting letters that:

Letters should be fewer than 250 words.

Letters should focus on issues, not personalities.

Argonaut reserves the right to edit all letters for grammar and length.

Letters should be signed, include names and phone numbers.

Mailbox

Columns should be relevant.

Letters policy

Argonaut welcomes your letters to the editor. However, the Argonaut adheres to a strict policy of deleting letters that:

Letters should be fewer than 250 words.

Letters should focus on issues, not personalities.

Argonaut reserves the right to edit all letters for grammar and length.

Letters should be signed, include names and phone numbers.

Mailbox

Columns should be relevant.

Letters policy

Argonaut welcomes your letters to the editor. However, the Argonaut adheres to a strict policy of deleting letters that:

Letters should be fewer than 250 words.

Letters should focus on issues, not personalities.

Argonaut reserves the right to edit all letters for grammar and length.

Letters should be signed, include names and phone numbers.

Mailbox

Columns should be relevant.

Letters policy

Argonaut welcomes your letters to the editor. However, the Argonaut adheres to a strict policy of deleting letters that:

Letters should be fewer than 250 words.

Letters should focus on issues, not personalities.

Argonaut reserves the right to edit all letters for grammar and length.

Letters should be signed, include names and phone numbers.

Mailbox

Columns should be relevant.

Letters policy

Argonaut welcomes your letters to the editor. However, the Argonaut adheres to a strict policy of deleting letters that:

Letters should be fewer than 250 words.

Letters should focus on issues, not personalities.

Argonaut reserves the right to edit all letters for grammar and length.

Letters should be signed, include names and phone numbers.

Mailbox

Columns should be relevant.
The proof is in the pinto beans

House of Gold and The Market engage in a bloody battle for south of the border supremacy

When you are dining out of the house, Mexican food can be an option. At the House of Gold (514 6th St.), and The Market (2549 E. Colfax Ave.) you can get a meal with a Mexican flair. But which one do you get?

Saturday

The Mexican American Community invites you to celebrate Cinco de Mayo on May 5th with a special Cinco de Mayo dinner at The Market. The menu consists of 3 course meals with a Mexican theme. The dinner will begin at 7p.m. The Market is located at 2549 E. Colfax Ave.

The proof is in the pinto beans

House of Gold and The Market engage in a bloody battle for south of the border supremacy

When you are dining out of the house, Mexican food can be an option. At the House of Gold (514 6th St.), and The Market (2549 E. Colfax Ave.) you can get a meal with a Mexican flair. But which one do you get?

I will start when TMC Arena wanted to do a show in the new arena. The band had already played the other arena. But the band was not happy with the sound. So Brian, Bryasky, Bailey and brother Oct. 2nd when it caught wind of what the band wanted and took it upon themselves to call the band and tell them they were going to do a show at the new arena. Later in a band looking for a new location. They went to the Denver Nuggets arena. The result was a win.

The Denver Nuggets arena was a great location. The band was able to get together and play. The show was a huge success. The band was able to play all the songs that they wanted to play. The crowd was very happy with the performance. The band was able to sell out the arena. The band was able to make a lot of money.

But there was a problem. The band was not able to get the right sound. The sound was not good enough. So the band was not happy with the performance. The band was not able to make a lot of money.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.

Benefits of using feature flags

Feature flags are a way to use code to control the behavior of code. They are used to turn on or off certain features of code. They can be used to turn on or off certain features of a website. They can also be used to turn on or off certain features of an app.
By JAI<R

The Big West Conference has reason to fear the Vandals women's golf team this spring, especially since UI's six-stagderful, deep and strong lineup means great golf right from the top.

"I feel like we have the strongest," Head Coach Brad Richel said of his team's chances in the Big West Tourney in conference. "We have a lot of good golfers, especially in the middle of the pack." The team's lineup features four seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore.

The Vandals will open the season at the Big West Women's Golf Invitational at the San Diego Golf Club this weekend. The tournament begins on Friday and concludes on Sunday.

The Vandals are returning to the conference after a two-year absence. In 2002-03, the team finished third in the conference and tied for seventh at the NCAA Regionals.

Golf in the Vandals' lineup includes two returningletes. Senior Kati Divilbiss and sophomore Mike Mickle both played on the team last season.

"We have a lot of returning talent," Richel said. "The team is very much improved from last year." Richel said the team's strong lineup will give the Vandals a chance to win the conference.

"We have a lot of great golfers," Richel said. "We have a lot of talent on the team, and we're looking to make a run at the conference title."