Wright selected as Greek adviser

By Kenie Wibetham

A 2005 University of Idaho graduate who has been told to vacate the post--

Adrian Wright was recently selected by the Office of Student Affairs to fill the position of Greek adviser. He was previously an advisor to both the Interfraternity Council and the National Fraternity Council, and is currently the graduate assistant for Greek Life at Central Idaho. Wright will also be the new advisor to the Idaho Student Senate, as well as the new advisor to the Idaho Student Senate. Wright will work with Greek Life officials to create a new leadership program and develop a new leadership team.

Wright, who has been involved with Greek Life at Idaho for several years, said he is excited to take on the new role.

"It's a great opportunity to work with the students and help them develop their leadership skills," Wright said. "I'm looking forward to working with the Greek leaders and helping them grow.

Wichman's DUI case on hold for now

Hispanic youth welcome their 'UI challenge'

By Joe Mullen

Additional: Dutch's role included making sure the "real" Dutch is used to describe the Dutch language, and he was an active member of the Dutch Language Club.

See YOUTH, page 4

GRE overhaul may not be set back for students

By Sonny Heli

A delay in the launch of a revised Graduate Record Examination test, approved by the new leader for the GRE, has been announced by the Educational Testing Service.

The delay will allow the GRE tests to be used in the fall of 2007. The revised GRE will be available in fall 2008.

The changes announced by the new leader for the GRE will be implemented in fall 2007, according to the Educational Testing Service.

The changes are expected to be implemented in fall 2007, according to the Educational Testing Service.

Student Union

The Student Union was one of the first to respond to the changes in the GRE.

"I think it's a great opportunity," said Student Union President David Smalls. "I'm excited to see how it changes the GRE.

Wichman's case has been on hold for now, but it is still possible that he will face charges in the future.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the GRE, please contact the Office of Student Affairs at (208) 881-2000.

See WICHMAN, page 4
Saturday
National Engineers Week scavenger hunt
UT campus 8 a.m.

"Words"
Kiva Theatre 7:30 p.m.

Sunday
"Words"
Kiva Theatre 2 p.m.

Local BRIEFS

Jazz Festival street restrictions start Wednesday
Several streets and parking lots on campus will be subject to the Labeled Jazz Avenue Program from Feb. 28 through March 3. The program will box more than 30,000 visitors during the festival, many of whom will be traveling to and from the Stuckey Student Union Building and Buildings.

Downtown Street will be one-way southbound from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. from Sixth Street to College Avenue and may be closed at various times to accommodate street closure, loading and unloading. Access to the building of the Office of Parking and Transportation Services will be via College and Railroad avenues behind the Butterfly. The Westward loop on Diamond Street will be temporarily relocated to the north side of Sixth Street, east of the railroad tracks. Portions of the SCF parking lot will also be closed.

For more information and restrictions, see www.mysidaho.edu/Details.aspx?

Questions can also be directed to Office of Transportation Services at 885-6412.

Vallas named president of Idaho State University
The Idaho State Board of Education announced Wednesday that Larry Vallas will be the next president of Idaho State University.

Vallas will begin in July, taking over from interim President Michael Gallagher, who has served in that capacity since Richard Brown retired in October.

"Larry is an individual of innumerable qualifications, particularly in science, along with vast amounts of experience as a dean, and I must say I was impressed by his enthusiasm and communications style," said Idaho Governor J.B. Witwer for Idaho State University," said Rod Lewis, president at the SBOE.

Vallas is chief chancellor and vice president for research and intellectual property management for the University of Arizona System and the University of Hawaii. He joined UI in 2005 as vice president of research and vice provost for faculty advancement and dean of graduate and professional studies.

Prior to joining UI, Vallas was associated dean for research and development at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, a university he served in numerous capacities.

He received his Ph.D. at the University of Iowa and Master of Fine Arts at University of New Hampshire before playing football.

The "S" in Vallas's salary at $400,000 per year is consistent with other Idaho university presidents, housing and any other salary increments.

Vallas is married to Laura Vallas, assistant dean of the College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics at the University of Hawaii.

Late Night
Co-Sponsored by the Women's Volleyball Club
Co-ed Volleyball Tournament
Friday, February 17th
9:00 p.m.

Registration Deadline:
Wednesday, February 13th

Free to UI Students
Non-students pay $4 to participate

To be successful, UI students study, go to class, complete homework, organize, and stay healthy!

Weather FORECAST

Today
Sunday

Area

Storm

Partly

Sunny

storms/

Cloudy

High

Low

Best

Lowest

32

57

14

39

17

21

22

50

21

10

5

Monday

UI closed for President Day
Men's basketball vs. Nevada State College
7:05 p.m.

"Remembering Giants: Highlights from the inaugural Hampton Jazz Festival":
8 p.m.

Sudoku PUZZLE

Complete the grid so each row, column, and 3-by-3 box (in bold borders) contain every digit, 1 to 9. For strategies on how to solve Sudoku, visit www.sudoku.org.uk.

AC Pacesetter finalist, 2003-04
5% Mark of Excellence winner, 2005
Local legislators weigh in on amendment

Opposing ASUI bill fails

By Frank McGovern

An amendment banning gay marriage in Maine has passed the Senate's Appropriations Committee, approved in the Senate by a vote of 27-9. Similarly, an ASUI measure concerning the amendment failed to pass Feb. 1 by a vote of 6-4.

Though Idaho politics relate to gay marriage, Rep. Lawrence Denney (R-Midvale), who penned the proposed constitutional modification, still says the bill is necessary and urgent.

"One cannot make people void of love, kindness, or support, and the law is for the love of all that is good for society, as well as for the people," Denney said.

"You cannot make people void of love, kindness, or support, and the law is for the love of all that is good for society, as well as for the people," Denney said.

"This amendment, proposed in January, passed comfortably through the House with a vote of 33-7. It will now be placed on the November ballot for the citizens of Idaho to vote on.

Sen. Orson Welles (D-Moscow), who spoke at length about the bill would pass, pointed to the extensive local issues that could result in more unnecessary amendments, as the aforementioned

SenorREPORT
Open Forum

After years of advocacy, the Civic Engagement Board Chair Megan Godwin briefly discussed and was praised for re-establishing the Commons and Union Board.

President Cassels-Cornell congratulated Sen. Ryan Ringo for his recent legislative success. Ringo has been working to ease the financial burdens of buying textbooks. He suggested either lowering costs or looking into making textbooks electronically.

McNamee was also commended by Cassels-Cornell for actively making solutions to problems with on-campus lighting. Cassels-Cornell was generally in favor of her general deter-

Senate Business

Megan Godwin briefly discussed and was praised for re-establishing the Commons and Union Board.

After two years of absence, the board has held its first meeting this past Friday. Cassels-Cornell proposed the board chairship for Sen. Ryan Ringo. Cassels-Cornell also noted that Senate Bill 506-37, providing for the appointment of a daughter, instead of a son, to ASUI president. Ringo was effective immediately once approved by the ASUI

It's about the experience...

Don't miss out on these career opportunities!

Dress for Success
Feb. 27 @ 5:30 - 7:00 pm Idaho Commons

Whitewater Room

Mock Interviews
Feb. 28 @ 8:00 am - 5:00 pm Idaho Commons Room 334

Etiquette Dinner
Feb. 28 @ 6:00 - 8:00 pm WSU CUB

Career Expo of the Palouse
March 1 @ 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Booth 602-611

For information contact Career Services and Regional Planning at Idaho Commons 334

Cotterman's newly adopted daughter as a "Lifeline for students of color" through the ASUI. Among the classes covered was ASUI's field experience. Cassels-Cornell placed on the assertion that the ASUI Senate is sure the Cotterman family will prosper with love.

Frank McGovern
This document contains various sections discussing topics such as the culture of secrecy, the GOP, and the strike down of gay marriage. It also includes quotes from political figures and discussions about media and political influence. The text is a mix of news articles, editorials, and personal reflections on political issues. The overall tone is informative and analytical, with a focus on dissecting political strategies and their impacts on society.
Festival staple back again

Roy Hargrove takes a solo on the fipplephone during last year’s Saturday evening concert. The trumpeter will return to this year’s jazz festival with his quartet — which includes Justin Robinson on alto saxophone, Willie Jones III, on drums, Dennis Burn on bass and Ron Wilson on tenor saxophone.

JAZZ FEST

"I used to drive my mother crazy, practicing all the time.

Roy Hargrove

"I'm still in that hip-hop generation, but I'm not exactly that way anymore. When Hargrove asked hip-hop artists like Common and Q-Tip to participate in the RX Factor, he said he "wasn't consciously trying to make a crossover appeal to a younger audi- ence, but it just happened that way in his mind." He said, "It's trying to make a crossover appeal to a younger audience." When Hargrove was asked about the RX Factor side of Hargrove's music, he said, "I'm trying to do something new, something that's different."
Spreading love the indie way

By Len Ross

Valentine's Day was very, very pop. Oh, the music in the US Billboards charted.

REVIEW

Concert

February 14 was a day of love, but the<...>葦s was a wonder-<...>

“University of Idaho, will you be my Valentine?”

Andrew Zullo

from Carlisle, Maine

The idea of Value in the_itself seems to be the concept of_... combination of love and hate._

SUMMER OF '12:

Fame

executive producer Clara Abrego.

So, the idea for the film is to play out of con-<...>

PHOTOGRAPHERS

available

at subsidized cost by picking players from past doses who would create sparks when thrown together to suit.

Abrego said "Fame Games," which has a group of celeb-<...> and 47 celebrities having appeared on the show, there will be plenty of "Surreal Life" veterans to see in the cast and crew in Las Vegas, which will serve as a backdrop for the challenges.

Abrego said she's not concerned about the "Fame Games"

Fame Life," which has a group of celebrities traveling in a theme park for two weeks, the players on "Fame Games" will live in the same place in Las Vegas, which will serve as a backdrop for the challenges.

There is no shortage for the show.

VH1's 'Life' just keeps getting more 'Surreal'

By Richard Hult

The conclusion of VH1's reality show "The Surreal Life" brought moreующий the band's two newest tracks, "All Modern Circles" and "This is Our Emergency," as well as older songs, and rounded out set with a few numbers from the forthcoming release, "Evan Skin," out in April.
Learn some new song and dance

by Carlotta Wright

Agnew

Roberta Radovich has been a member of the faculty of the College of Idaho since 1981 and is a member of the English Department. She has been teaching English for over 50 years. She is a seasoned teacher and a respected writer in her field. She is known for her work in public art.

Radovich is a member of the College of Idaho Faculty Senate and has served on various committees. She has been involved in a variety of community events, including the Vandal Student Art Festival, which she co-founded in 2001. She has also been involved in the College of Idaho's Reunion Weekend events, where she has given talks and workshops on various topics.

Radovich is a founding member of the Idaho Arts Coalition, a group that promotes arts and culture in the state. She has been involved in the organization's many events, including the annual Idaho Arts Festival. She has also been a member of the Idaho Arts Council, a state agency that supports arts and culture in the state.

Radovich is a member of the College of Idaho Faculty Senate and has served on various committees. She has been involved in a variety of community events, including the Vandal Student Art Festival, which she co-founded in 2001. She has also been involved in the College of Idaho's Reunion Weekend events, where she has given talks and workshops on various topics.

Radovich is a founding member of the Idaho Arts Coalition, a group that promotes arts and culture in the state. She has been involved in the organization's many events, including the annual Idaho Arts Festival. She has also been a member of the Idaho Arts Council, a state agency that supports arts and culture in the state.
Junior forward Igor Vulic goes for the rebound during Idaho's game against Utah State Wednesday night at Cjonie Mcdonald. The Vandals lost to the Aggies 80-42.

By Mackenzie Stone

MHIGA's Nikolai Jakovljevic may not be the kind of scoring machine that the Vandals need most during the season, but he is one of the most memorable players in the team. During the game and especially on the bench, Jakovljevic rises up the crowd with his constant banter.

Originally from Serbia, Jakovljevic joined the basketball team in August. The new freshman decided to attend the University of Idaho after visiting the states on a basketball tour. He played basketball for six years in his home country. While he plans to return to Serbia after completing his general studies degree at Idaho, he will continue his career as a point guard and especially as the main basketball team's shooting guard.

1. How did you get started in basketball?

I have a brother that is eight years older than me and he played basketball. I wanted to follow his footsteps and every year I would go shoot on a basketball court, but he would never let me play.

2. What was your biggest success in your basketball career?

I have been coming here for six years. After six years in basketball I found the game. I don't have big games and the same condition as Australia. The best basketball in the world is here and it was my dream to come back here and see it in action.

3. You have a reputation among the students because you get excited during games. How do you feel about that?

It's something I've been doing since my freshman year. When my teammates do good, I get excited and when they don't do good, I don't care if it is for the Vandals in the game, I'll like to cheer.

4. What do you miss when you are away from Idaho?

I miss the food, my mom's cooking, my home back there. It is more healthy and we don't eat so much hamburgers. I like to eat a lot of soup and bread and they don't do that at all here.

5. Favorite food?

My favorite meal is soup. I love soup. Especially my mom's homemade soup.

6. What is your favorite drink?

I like tea.

7. What is your biggest role model?

My brother, he is older than me, and he has always been there.

8. You are a senior. What are you most looking forward to this upcoming season?

I hope I can win a national championship.

9. What is the one thing you can never forget about the University of Idaho?

I can't forget about the University of Idaho because it sounds like my nickname.

10. If you could change one thing about yourself, what would it be?

I can't change myself, I am who I am.

11. What is your favorite movie?

It's not a favorites. I like dramas.

12. What is your favorite book?

I don't have a favorite book.

13. Who is the one person that has influenced you the most?

My family.

14. What is your future plan?

I want to be a basketball player.

15. What is one thing you will miss about Idaho?

The people.

16. What is one thing you want to accomplish this season?

I want to win a national championship.

17. What is your favorite color?

Red.

18. What is your favorite color?

Green.

19. What is your favorite color?

Blue.

20. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

21. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

22. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

23. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

24. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

25. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

26. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

27. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

28. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

29. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

30. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

31. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

32. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

33. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

34. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

35. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

36. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

37. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

38. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

39. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.

40. If you could have a Superpower, what would it be?

I don't have a Superpower.