Inauguration Day

Bush sworn in once more

by William Douglas and Art Knauss
 فهي الجزء المكرِّس للجودة

O n a sunny but chilly winter day Saturday, the future president was sworn in before the nation and world, for the record to disprove the notion that America is weak. Bush took several thousand of us to the Capitol. It was an honor to be a part of the American people, to be part of our great country.

The “survival of liberty” in our land increasingly depends on the success of liberty in other lands.

GEORGE W. BUSH

Iron-Jawed Muscovites

by Joanna Lund

Bush's victory on Tuesday to become the 43rd president of the United States, is the first step towards a new era of global stability. The world is watching as America takes the lead in world affairs.

BUSH, see Page 5

ASUI stays out of state board lawsuit

by Cami Cox

I t's been a little more than 10 months since Sen. Mike Enzi, the Wyoming Republican, called ASUI leaders to begin a lawsuit against the state. From there, ASUI ated to the State Board of Education, filed a lawsuit against the state.

But while his prediction comes true, the state board did not take the lawsuit to court. The lawsuit is still pending.

BUSH, see Page 5

Students ask coach Brice to leave

by Cynthia Reardon

O n a recent meeting held Wednesday evening, the Muslim Student Association (MSA) asked the head coach of the volleyball team, Coach Braden Brice, to resign.

After the resolution was introduced, the team voted unanimously in favor of Brice's resignation. Brice was notified of the resolution on Friday morning.

BUSH, see Page 6

ANONYMOUS

Three medical conditions were identified as potential causes for the death of ASU student Adam Chase.

The conditions were: heart disease, brain injury, and drug overdose.

CHASE, see Page 5

FINANCE, see Page 3

INDEX

Arts & Culture 3
Books 2
Opinion 4
Equities 4

CONTACT THE ARGONAUT | News Editor: Tom Tyler (208) 885-7715 | ads@argonaut.uidaho.edu | ARGONAUT BACKSTORY 1998

Argonaut Backstory 1998

The University of Idaho

The University of Idaho

The University of Idaho

The University of Idaho

The University of Idaho
Don't like the Argonaut? Do something about it.
Pick up an application for the spring 2005 semester in the SUB Room 301, or online at argonaut.sdsu.edu.

CROSSWORDPUZZLE

Across

1. Natural sugar (13)
2. Button on a computer (5,5)
3. Marketing technique (3)
4. The sun (9)
5. A fall of water (7)
6. Against (5)
7. A species of marine life (5,5)
8. A unit of capacity (4)
9. Music (5)
10. A way to communicate (5,5)

Down

1. Death (5,5)
2. A personal computer (5,5)
3. A type of newspaper (5,5)
4. A month (4)
5. A type of figure (5)
6. A place in France (5)
7. A type of food (5,5)
8. A type of color (5)
9. A type of fruit (5,5)
10. A type of drink (5,5)

Solutions from Jan. 18

Across

1. Sugar
2. Button
3. Marketing
4. Sun
5. Waterfall
6. Against
7. Marine life
8. Unit
9. Music
10. Communicate

Down

1. Death
2. Computer
3. Newspaper
4. Month
5. Figure
6. Place
7. Food
8. Color
9. Fruit
10. Drink

NEWSPRINTS

NEWSPRINTS

CAMPUSFIND

Today

Artmex's "Thermost Station" inside Centennial: Reflections on a Sunny Day

Saturday

Marle Becci at the雌 "United Neighbors"

Monday

June Clark at the雌 "United Neighbors"

FREE DELIVERY

5pm to Close

Monday-Thursday 9:30am - 5pm

Friday-9am - 5pm

Back to school sales continue for the Spring Semester.

PRODUCTION

Argonaut Publishing Company, Inc.
1550 K Street, Suite 500
San Diego, CA 92101
Telephone: (619) 233-7837
Fax: (619) 233-7838
Web: www.sdsu.edu/argonaut
Email: argonaut@sdsu.edu

SANDIAGO STATE UNIVERSITY

The University of San Diego Argonaut is published biweekly, Tuesday and Friday, during the academic year. During summer months, the Argonaut is published every other Tuesday and Friday. The Argonaut is distributed free of charge to SDSU students, faculty, staff and other campus community members. It is supported by advertising sales. The Argonaut is a student publication and is independent of the University of San Diego. It is not an official university publication.

The Argonaut is produced by students working two days per week. It is distributed free of charge to the SDSU campus and the surrounding community.

To submit a calendar item:
Send to: argonaut@walcuttd.com. Send "calendar item" in subject line. The Argonaut reserves the right to edit calendar items at its discretion.

FREE DELIVERY

5pm to Close

Monday-Thursday 9:30am - 5pm

Friday-9am - 5pm

Back to school sales continue for the Spring Semester.

PRODUCTION

Argonaut Publishing Company, Inc.
1550 K Street, Suite 500
San Diego, CA 92101
Telephone: (619) 233-7837
Fax: (619) 233-7838
Web: www.sdsu.edu/argonaut
Email: argonaut@sdsu.edu

SANDIAGO STATE UNIVERSITY

The University of San Diego Argonaut is published biweekly, Tuesday and Friday, during the academic year. During summer months, the Argonaut is published every other Tuesday and Friday. The Argonaut is distributed free of charge to SDSU students, faculty, staff and other campus community members. It is supported by advertising sales. The Argonaut is a student publication and is independent of the University of San Diego. It is not an official university publication.

The Argonaut is produced by students working two days per week. It is distributed free of charge to the SDSU campus and the surrounding community.

To submit a calendar item:
Send to: argonaut@walcuttd.com. Send "calendar item" in subject line. The Argonaut reserves the right to edit calendar items at its discretion.

FREE DELIVERY

5pm to Close

Monday-Thursday 9:30am - 5pm

Friday-9am - 5pm

Back to school sales continue for the Spring Semester.

PRODUCTION

Argonaut Publishing Company, Inc.
1550 K Street, Suite 500
San Diego, CA 92101
Telephone: (619) 233-7837
Fax: (619) 233-7838
Web: www.sdsu.edu/argonaut
Email: argonaut@sdsu.edu

SANDIAGO STATE UNIVERSITY

The University of San Diego Argonaut is published biweekly, Tuesday and Friday, during the academic year. During summer months, the Argonaut is published every other Tuesday and Friday. The Argonaut is distributed free of charge to SDSU students, faculty, staff and other campus community members. It is supported by advertising sales. The Argonaut is a student publication and is independent of the University of San Diego. It is not an official university publication.

The Argonaut is produced by students working two days per week. It is distributed free of charge to the SDSU campus and the surrounding community.

To submit a calendar item:
Send to: argonaut@walcuttd.com. Send "calendar item" in subject line. The Argonaut reserves the right to edit calendar items at its discretion.

FREE DELIVERY

5pm to Close

Monday-Thursday 9:30am - 5pm

Friday-9am - 5pm

Back to school sales continue for the Spring Semester.

PRODUCTION

Argonaut Publishing Company, Inc.
1550 K Street, Suite 500
San Diego, CA 92101
Telephone: (619) 233-7837
Fax: (619) 233-7838
Web: www.sdsu.edu/argonaut
Email: argonaut@sdsu.edu

SANDIAGO STATE UNIVERSITY

The University of San Diego Argonaut is published biweekly, Tuesday and Friday, during the academic year. During summer months, the Argonaut is published every other Tuesday and Friday. The Argonaut is distributed free of charge to SDSU students, faculty, staff and other campus community members. It is supported by advertising sales. The Argonaut is a student publication and is independent of the University of San Diego. It is not an official university publication.

The Argonaut is produced by students working two days per week. It is distributed free of charge to the SDSU campus and the surrounding community.

To submit a calendar item:
Send to: argonaut@walcuttd.com. Send "calendar item" in subject line. The Argonaut reserves the right to edit calendar items at its discretion.
MUSCIVOTES

From Page 1

Interminable battle to earn the vote, said Oppy, a local student leader who played a key role in the process. "Those who have been denied their rights can organize."

Full of stories, Oppy began. As a matter of fact, our movement is gaining momentum. Our efforts are not in vain."

Phedringer University of Idaho music teacher and graduate student, Wise was full of praise for the students. "I'm proud of our students. They are working hard to achieve their goals."

Kenton told the students, "I believe in education and I support it wholeheartedly."

BUSH

From Page 1

Rekuhunag Bush supporters, many of them young and other laity, cheered and shouted in support of Bush and his stance on education reform. The President, however, was met with a mixture of cheers and boos. "We are committed to ensuring that all Americans have access to quality education," Bush said."

But Senator Alaskia Kriss, a Democrat, was not so sure. "We need to address the issue of student loans," she said."

Tommy Callery, a key aide to the President, defended Bush's record. "We have made significant progress in education," he said."

The President, however, remained optimistic. "We will continue to work towards a better future for all Americans."

FINANCE

From Page 1

The mission and culture of high education

Boydston said that Kenton has worked hard to establish a reputation for financial management. "We do not take our financial responsibilities lightly," she said."

"It is important to understand that we have a responsibility to our students and their families," Boydston added."

Boydston pointed out that the university's financial positions are based on "extremely solid" commitments. "We believe in the academic mission of this institution," she said."

"It is important for us to maintain a healthy financial position," Boydston added."

LAWSUIT

From Page 1

Kaplan, who works for various universities in the Portland area, was granted a unique and beneficial position, which is constitutionally established.

She added the lawsuit could come to a possible peaceful resolution. On April 14, Kaplan will be seeking a high court to determine the outcome.

We believe that the lawsuit would be beneficial to maintain the status of this institution.

Dr. Management said joining the lawsuit would also be detrimental to the university's reputation.

"Not participating allows credibility and negotiating power," she said."

This could have been a win-win situation for everyone.

BRICE

From Page 1

"We didn't feel that Alaskia Kriss was appropriate for an employee," Brice said.

"This isn't a personal attack against Alaskia Brice," Elizabeth Bentz explained."

Ben, Tom Callery agreed with Brice's decision. "We are committed to an atmosphere of integrity at Wednesday's meeting."

The band you thought you'd never see live again!

The band's lead singer, Jimmy Dean, said, "This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. We are excited to be here."

"We're right on Callery said. "We're doing all the same thing."

"You don't necessarily feel this is a question of his character," Dean said. "It's more about his ability to push through in this particular situation."

The band went on to say that Brice has given them great respect in the way they have approached the decision. "We're proud to be here," Dean said."

This isn't a personal attack against any individual," Bentz said. "We would have done this for anybody in his position."

The band's website, motleycrue.com, is a safe environment for students.

"You are cordially invited to the Eid Al-Adha Festival
Sunday, January 23rd, 2005
Men: Student Union Building (SUB) Ballroom
Women: Student Union Building (SUB)
4:45-5:00 No Host Reception
5:00-5:15 Official Opening of the
5:15-6:00 Dinner
6:00-8:00 Eid Program (games, etc.)
8:00-8:30Gift Distribution and entertainment program

Discover what these programs can do for you.

Website: www.tidahoe.edu/tlo/alab/d3/
Editorial Policy

The Argonaut welcomes letters to the editor. To submit a letter to the editor, please follow these guidelines:

- Letters should be no more than 400 words.
- Letters should include your name, school affiliation, and contact information.
- Letters should be signed and submitted electronically.
- Letters will be reviewed for appropriateness and clarity.
- Letters should be submitted by noon on the day before publication.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Sonora Observer

Sonora, CA

Dear Editor,

I often find myself frustrated by the lack of common sense among our elected officials. It is clear that they are more concerned with political gain than the well-being of the people they are supposed to represent.

Craig Cassidy

Letters to the Editor

EDITORIAL

The Argonaut

What a Jackass

By Jackass

For my final column on the subject of jackassery I will address some of the things that may have probably already figured out I am a jackass.

The evidence abounds to prove that I am a jackass, but here is some of it: I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years.

A.D.

Editor, Sonora Observer

Sonora, CA

Dear Editor,

I could not agree more with your recent editorial on jackassery. It is about time that we start holding our elected officials accountable for their actions.

Craig Cassidy

Letters to the Editor

EDITORIAL

The Argonaut

How to Improve Your English

By Jackass

For my final column on the subject of jackassery I will address some of the things that may have probably already figured out I am a jackass.

The evidence abounds to prove that I am a jackass, but here is some of it: I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years. I am a jackass. I have been a jackass for the last 40 years.

A.D.
Local actor lands contract with Festival

BY ANDREW ANZEIM

The curtains will soon close for one seasoned actor, Mark Peterson, who has performed in each UI production of Shakespeare's "The Tempest" in the last decade. "He's a solid actor," said Lyn Loper, department chair of the UI Department of Theatre and Film. "He's been a real treasure and we're very excited." Peterson will receive credit for his work at the festival and will graduate during the summer. "It's such an amazing opportunity for an up-and-coming actor. We can't wait to see what he's going to do," said Loper. "He's going to be doing solo work and share of the UI Department of Theatre and Film." Due to the nature of this production, Peterson will have the opportunity to be the lead actor. Peterson's performance will be a highlight of the season, and he has been reportedly receiving positive reviews from critics.

Retro-Fit Gallery seeks to bring art to the community

BY CHRISTINA NATAPO

A fish tank glows from inside a retro-fit TV set, emitting light through a window in the lobby of the Oregon Shakespeare Festival's new visitor center, the Gallery. The Gallery opens on Jan. 7, and its first exhibit, "A Fish Tank," features a collaborative installation by artists and students. The exhibit will be on display through April 3.

Season five proves ‘The Simpsons’ is a classic

BY TARA KARE

As Simpson fans know, the show has been on the air for 20 years, but its popularity has never waned. In the most recent season, the show continues to explore the lives of the Flanders family and their many misadventures. As with previous seasons, the show features a mix of humor, satire, and social commentary. The show's ability to stay relevant and popular is a testament to its writers and producers. The Simpsons has been a cultural phenomenon for two decades, and its influence can be seen in other shows and films that continue to pay homage to its many classic moments. In true Simpsons style, the show's creators and writers are always ready to surprise and delight their fans with new material and stories. Whether it's Homer's adventures in outer space or Marge's efforts to get her family through a tough time, The Simpsons continues to be a hit with audiences of all ages. The show's success is a testament to the power of well-written, well-acted, and well-acted comedy that can appeal to anyone.
Blackberry Jam and Dancing Trout bring folk to Moscow

Ani DiFranco presents the same good old work

Ani DiFranco belongs to a unique chorus of musicians. Unlike many folk artists, she strives for poetic lyrics at the expense of accompaniments, and for that reason her success is hard to measure. Behind her acoustic instrument, her guitar is not a mere accompaniment as in many traditionalizers’ hands, but a vital element of the music. Her music is intimate, personal, and passionate. As a result, on top of being an amazing guitar player, she is also a brilliant vocalist. She has a unique voice that never fails to charm, and has a deep and resonant tone that can evoke a wide range of emotions. Her music is emotional, thought-provoking, and timeless.

Ani DiFranco’s most recent album, “Knuckle Dive,” was released in 2023. The album features a collection of songs that showcase her versatility as a songwriter and performer. From the opener “Knuckle Dive,” which is a powerful and emotional piece, to the closer “One More,” which is a joyful and uplifting song, the album is a celebration of DiFranco’s talent and creativity. The album also features guest appearances by some of the finest musicians in the industry, including Benに関連するテキストを以下に示します。

Additional information about the album can be found at: www.frontierrecords.com/knuckle-dive
Romantic novel lovers can now have their cake and eat it too, as the creators of the popular TV show "The Simpsons" have announced plans to release a series of romantic novels based on the characters and themes from the show. The novels will be penned by Newbern Fletcher, who has also worked on the show as a writer.

"The idea is to bring to life the passions and relationships of our favorite characters in a romantic way," Fletcher said. "We want to give our audience a glimpse into the personal lives of our beloved characters."
Vandals open indoor season close to home

BY MACKENZIE BOWE
SPORTS EDITOR

The Idaho track and field team will attend its first meet of the indoor season at the Washington State University Open starting today and continuing through Saturday. The weight throw will start at 1:25 a.m. several returning athletes, along with five freshman athletes, will compete whereas ten conference competitors return to compete this season, including Winger. "All the returning athletes

"All the returning athletes will make a big difference for the team," said Wayne Phipps. "They are the team is the key. A lot of good athletes are returning this year, which will help us compete and go to the next level."

Wayne Phipps and Todd White are the assistant coaches for the women's track and field program. They have been working with the team all season and are excited to see how it performs this weekend.

Freshmen coming up clutch for Idaho

By BRAD CUPPERY
ASSOCIATE SPORTS EDITOR

Since conference play began Dec. 30, the Idaho women's basketball team has won six of seven games and has not lost a game since the Big West Conference Championship. The Vandals have won four of their last five games, and with a record of 18-2, they are the top team in the nation.

"We're just hitting our stride and playing well at the right time," said coach Heather Stowe. "The team is playing well and we're making the right shots."

The Vandals have improved their defense and are averaging 68.5 points per game, which is the highest in the conference. They also have the second-best field goal percentage in the conference at 45.8%. The Vandals have a 15-1 record in conference play and are currently on a nine-game winning streak.

The Vandals are also one of the top teams in the nation in rebounding, with an average of 4.2 rebounds per game. They are also ranked fourth in assists per game at 11.2.

"We're just playing well overall," said Stowe. "We're making the right plays and the right decisions on the court."

The Vandals are currently ranked in the Top 10 in both the AP and ESPN/USA Today polls. They are also the top seed in the Big West Conference tournament.

"We're just playing well and we're confident in ourselves," said Stowe. "We're just playing well and we're confident in ourselves."
Eagles, Patriots avoid NFL's flip-flopping

BY BILL CASH
ST JOHN'S CORRESPONDENT

(TE) In the news of NFL, one tag, which has got a lot of attention this week, the New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles somehow have found a way to co-exist, seemingly in perfect harmony, despite their continual on-field performance and off-field antics. On Monday's conference championship game, the Patriots and Eagles were less than four yards away from victory, as the Eagles were set to close out the game with a field goal. However, a roughing-the-punter penalty on First Down set up a 5th down field goal, which ended up being missed. The Patriots would go on to win the game, 41-33, setting up a clash with the New York Giants in the Super Bowl.

In other news, the Philadelphia Eagles have been named the NFL's most worthless team by Forbes. The Eagles have struggled to find success on the field in recent years, and have had issues with management and player conduct. The Eagles' current owner, Jeffrey Lurie, has been criticized for his lack of action in addressing these issues. The Eagles' recent losses to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game was the final straw for Forbes, who decided to name the Eagles as the NFL's most worthless team.

The Philadelphia Eagles have been one of the most successful teams in NFL history, having won the Super Bowl five times since 1990. However, the team has struggled in recent years, losing in the NFC Championship Game to the New York Giants in 2011, and the NFC Championship Game to the San Francisco 49ers in 2013. The Eagles have also been criticized for their management decisions, and have had issues with player conduct.

The Eagles' current owner, Jeffrey Lurie, has been criticized for his lack of action in addressing these issues. The Eagles' recent losses to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game was the final straw for Forbes, who decided to name the Eagles as the NFL's most worthless team.

The Eagles have a long history of success, having won the Super Bowl five times since 1990. However, the team has struggled in recent years, losing in the NFC Championship Game to the New York Giants in 2011, and the NFC Championship Game to the San Francisco 49ers in 2013. The Eagles have also been criticized for their management decisions, and have had issues with player conduct.

The Eagles' current owner, Jeffrey Lurie, has been criticized for his lack of action in addressing these issues. The Eagles' recent losses to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game was the final straw for Forbes, who decided to name the Eagles as the NFL's most worthless team.

The Eagles have a long history of success, having won the Super Bowl five times since 1990. However, the team has struggled in recent years, losing in the NFC Championship Game to the New York Giants in 2011, and the NFC Championship Game to the San Francisco 49ers in 2013. The Eagles have also been criticized for their management decisions, and have had issues with player conduct.