Students bid farewell to Moscow tradition

By Amber Mesher
University of Idaho Agronomy

When the doors opened a little after 5 p.m. on Saturday, nearly 500 people crowded into the student center for the farewell party for the Moscow Agri Corps. The Agri Corps is a group of students who work on the university's experimental farms. The group's purpose is to provide hands-on experience in agriculture, and it is supported by the college of Agricultural and Life Sciences.

The event was held in the Student Lounge and featured food, music, and speeches. The speeches were given by the Agri Corps' leaders, who thanked the students for their hard work and dedication. The evening concluded with the singing of the Agri Corps' song.

The farewell party was a celebration of the Agri Corps' achievements and a farewell to the students who will be leaving to pursue their careers in agriculture.
The American Cancer Society states that one out of every eight women will develop breast cancer during her lifetime. Breast cancer is one of the most treatable cancers detected early. As you may have heard, it's estimated that 40 to 50 percent of breast cancer is preventable by the actions you take yourself — learn how to do a self breast exam and check your breasts monthly. If you are over 35, schedule a mammogram.

At the Women's Imaging Center, we understand your health concerns. That's why we offer comprehensive, private breast imaging exams, and are staffed by highly trained breast imaging radiologists with expertise in mammography and ultrasound procedures. We are "women caring for women."

Preaching to the unconverted: Religion if we don’t break the ice

By Scott J. Mahoney
Tennessee editorial writer

I am often of religion connections. This statement, let’s make it clear, is not a call to accept or reject a particular faith. I am simply saying that the channel of human conscience is a rich one, and in order to reach it, we have to break the ice. And the best way to do that is by learning about the beliefs and practices of other people. It is only through this process that we can understand each other and come to a common understanding.

Now, let’s take a look at some

Idaho football sticks it to Utah State
By Mike McGehee
Associated Press

The Vandals whipped up on the Utah State Aggies 21-14 Saturday at Logan. This averaged the loss in the head-to-head pair in Moscow.

Coach Jerry Stovall, however, was not happy with his team's performance. He noted the Aggies were playing with a lot of excitement and enthusiasm.

Stovall said the game was lost on offense, and the defense needed to do a better job of containing Utah State's dual threat.

The Aggies scored early on a field goal, and then went on to score 37 unanswered points in the game. Stovall said he was surprised the Aggies were able to hold the Vandals scoreless for most of the game.

The Vandals scored early in the second half on a field goal, but were unable to sustain their momentum.

The Aggies scored on a long pass play, and then added another field goal to take a 21-3 lead. Stovall said the Aggies were able to keep the Vandals off the scoreboard for most of the second half.

Stovall said the Aggies were able to control the clock and keep the Vandals from making any big plays.

Stovall said the Aggies were able to dominate the game with their strong defense and solid running game.

Stovall said the Aggies were able to control the ball for most of the game, and the Vandals were not able to get any points on the board.

The Immigrant Sun will shine on Moscow

By Kimm Miller
University of Idaho Argonaut

Pop idol! That is what many will be thinking when the Immigrant Sun perform at Jackson Hall in Moscow, Oct. 22. This eclectic band of musicians are offering their talents to the faces of the Russian people and will be engaging the students of this area who are willing and curious to listen. It is not an obscure belief among the pub- lic that music is the universal language. It is an obvious fact that music can lead to peace and unity. There is no need to restrict alternative music and encourage the commercial profit R&B. These individuals have found themselves in a land that embraces their passion for music, like that produced by the Immigrant Sun. Florida based and untypical of American advancement in cultural issues, if you will, as others, namely the Detroit-based Sun and most recent new wave band More Than Two, that ranges from two to seven, there is a space for us to explore the possibilities of a new medium. This new eth- nic music does not have to be considered a threat or something to be exterminated. Listening to the album makes one want to wander to the Old Country where there are not only fine art but also a variety of delicious food, exotic wines, and layers of artistic endeavors in Moscow. Immigrant Sun has been in Russia for a year and has been very successful and their music is well received. Besides the new album the group will also be performing songs that created the band's first album. Immigrant Sun is a hopeful group that brings a message of peace and love to their fans. The Sun is looking forward to seeing the reaction of the fans and is excited to perform in Moscow. The Immigrant Sun will be at Jackson Hall Thursday around 9:30 p.m. The show is free and open to the public so come and enjoy a fun and unique musical experience.

2 Live Crew returns with The Real One

By Serge BROWN
University of Idaho Argonaut

It has been a while, but the origin- al members of the Miami bass scene 2 Live Crew, are back on top all the charts with their latest album The Real One. 2 Live Crew is known throughout the world for their many hits and lively stage shows. Their music brings back a lot of the big top that was popular in the 80's. For the first time in a long time, 2 Live Crew is back on top with their latest album The Real One.

The crew has been back on top since 1996 and have sold over 25 million albums worldwide. They have also won over 20 Grammy Awards for their music, so it's no surprise that they have come back on top.

The album features a number of special guests including the Fab-T-Four, The Lox, Funky Kingston and RC and KC from the Sunshine Band. The album features some of the hottest and most popular tracks of their career, including the hit singles "Take 5" and "Ooh Yeah!". The album also features some of their most popular tracks, such as "The Real One" and "2 Live Crew: The Reunion".

2 Live Crew: The Live One

2 Live Crew is a group that has been active in the rap scene for years. They have been known for their energetic performances and has been featured on several record labels. The album features some of the hottest and most popular tracks of their career, including the hit singles "Take 5" and "Ooh Yeah!". The album also features some of their most popular tracks, such as "The Real One" and "2 Live Crew: The Reunion".

Although the album's art may remind some of the early days of 2 Live Crew, the music is very much of today. The album features some of the hottest and most popular tracks of their career, including the hit singles "Take 5" and "Ooh Yeah!". The album also features some of their most popular tracks, such as "The Real One" and "2 Live Crew: The Reunion".
