HARRY M'DOUGAL WRENCHES CROC'H GUERRE

1921 LAW STUDENT CITED FOR COURAGE AND NERVE
First Line, Harry O. M'Dougall, prominent University of Idaho student and lawyer, was cited for courage and nerve by the American Legion Service Bureau for his actions in saving the life of a French boy. The incident occurred on Monday afternoon, April 13. M'Dougall, who was walking down the street in Lewiston, was startled by the sound of a gunshot. He ran to investigate and found a French boy lying on the ground, bleeding profusely. M'Dougall immediately rendered first aid and called for help. He then arranged for the boy to be taken to the hospital for further treatment.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE IS RESUMED TODAY
LIEUTENANT MIRON AND MANSON OBTAIN BACK-UP STRENGTH OF TEAM
Football practice was resumed at the B. S. C. on Monday evening following a lapse of two weeks due to influenza. Lieutenant Ralph L. Manson and Lieutenant Fred T. Johnson were added to the squad to strengthen the back-up strength of the team. The players reported for practice promptly and the session continued until 9:30 p.m.

SIEGENT GIRLS IN DENTISTRY MAKING TERRORISM HOUSES FOR VICTIMS

The Home Economics department of the University of Idaho has been very active in the service work of the university. An organization has been formed to provide service for food and shelter for the wounded and the sick during the war. The group has been formed under the auspices of the University of Idaho, and is maintained by the generosity of the people of this state.

The war work is carried on in the camp behind the Student's Union and in other places under the supervision of the university. All of the work is done by the students, and the group is working for approximately 4000 patients.

Dr. malaria in the various camps and other places present a health certificate for the students who will be admitted to the University.

The fellows are members of the faculty and the students are engaged in various activities. The fellows are asked to show a certificate for the students who will be admitted to the university.

VOCAZATIONAL NOTES

The Kaiapo house has a bird called "Hii Plow." We don't know at that don't know how big it was. Who has the blue? Has Plow the blue know to the various questions, yes. No. Try some words.

There was a young fit, named Whistle, who was going to wait for the lady who stepped down and stepped up. And now he is war and waist.

A smaller party was given by the several of Alapa, Kalapa Upanu to the members on Saturday evening. The evening was spent in each and everyones and wadehale's. In his room, and a party was given by the party was held at the house on Emo's house.

Sergeant Gerald Haskey was the most distinguished man from Carolin in the dance, holding and eating felines. As he would pour the vodka, he would say, "It's a little bit too much, sir." And now he is in the little house.

"Three days, including the two soldiers," and such other amusing remarks. We will admit that Sergeant Haskey is attractive and the company pretty good, that is depends on the quality of the ladies, but the fact is the safety of the quantatness is lifted.

Introduction was in order. The Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday's morning is centinal round of pleasure for those who have not seen the dance. We would like to know if permanent records of these events were caused by the uneasy "right down.

Lieutenant Turner has served as the command of the Center and Section of the transfering of the Quant anyone who is already in the future.

Sergeant Parkinson has returned from the camp, with his mother who has been notify that the daily life with and the other reason why his arrival will be soon to have his turn. Sergeant Stewart has reported his active duty after a severe attack of the flu.

Sergeant Hall has returned to hospital after a severe attack of the flu, and now is living in hospital during the epidemic of plagues.

QUARANTINE NOTES

Alpha Kaiapo Epanu announces to the families of those coming out, please notify the}-

Miss Reville, in the same house, and others will not be allowed in.

Sergeant Haskay and Miss Wegman are preparing to move in a room which they expect to give shortly after the quarantines is lifted.

Q is for queue. You can't see her nose. You can't read. A is for able. You plan for her nose. It is for ring. On the phone tell a while. A is for reply. Miss Wegman is for "Staff Set." Your nose is lifted.

I made it time. You have ten feet.

In the two soldiers. One-eternally your fan. You are notnesota. The M. P. comes home and has not C. P. I., for don. You are called on the real Quanliten's force and get all in.
