EXPRESS ATTENDANCE AT ARMISTICE DAY

Alamo Plan Lamp Number

Washburn Shoe Shining

The usual Armistice day functions held on the Washburn campus in the early hours of the morning probably will be the most immediately noticeable feature for the remainder of the day. The active fraternity groups plan to have various activities, possibly including a special wreath-laying ceremony outside the University building. Students' groups will be expected to observe the occasion with the usual style of the annual observance.

STAFF ANNOUNCED FOR BLUE BUCKET MAGAZINE

Martin Jackson, Editor, Elizabeth Blount and Blanche Stokely-Anderson are the student editors of the newspaper. They are all members of the editorial staff at Washburn University.

AFRICAN STUDENTS AND FELLOWSHIP ON TOUR TO CONGO

Best in Speech Brings Lavenderes And Students From Six States To Annual Assembly

Twenty members of the university faculty and students of the school visited the city of Rome, Italy, during the week of November 27th, as part of the annual budget.

The students and faculty were scheduled to tour various cities in Italy, including Rome, Florence, and Venice. They also had planned to visit the Vatican and the Colosseum.

Many of the students expressed enthusiasm about the trip, saying that they were looking forward to the opportunity to see the sights and learn about the history and culture of Italy.
