MONSTER ASSEMBLY STARTS YEAR OFF

KAPPA ALPHA THETA AND THE FRENCH CLUB IN SCHOLARSHIP

The Mississippioudi association presented its first meeting in an effort to further the history of the western states in the line of circumstance and education. The club also sponsored a discussion of the current events in the field of science. The meeting was held in the Philosophy Auditorium on Wednesday, November 1st.

The University of Idaho State College was represented by the following students: William J. Evans, president; John T. Hubbell, secretary; and E. M. Young, treasurer.

The school's newspaper, The Idahoian, has been awarded a prize in the annual competition held by the National Collegiate Press Association. The Idahoian has maintained a high standard of excellence in both news and feature articles, and has consistently placed among the winners in the annual contest.

The Idahoian is a student publication of the University of Idaho State College, founded in 1920. It is published weekly during the academic year and bi-weekly during the summer months.

FOREST RANGE RANGER COURSE OPENS AT UNIVERSITY

The university's first forest ranger course this year will open Monday, October 17, in the forest of the University, as ordered today.

The course is for men who wish to become forest rangers and for rangers who wish to become more efficient and to work for more economic promotion. Progress is given for the civil service examination.

The rangers of the course will be selected from the candidates who have completed the study of the course. The work is in two parts, as that of the old grade, so that it is possible to complete the height grade certification for eligible applicants.

OyO PROFESSOR QUEST AT PRESIDENT'S BANQUET

To all at the banquet table with President Oberlin at Boise and from the other plates of Macinlay the most sumptuous dishes of the University College at Oregon, where Mrs. H. L. Maxmillan, president of the University College at Oregon, was the guest of honor. Mrs. Maxmillan, who is a graduate of the University College at Oregon, has been a resident of Boise City, and she was at the banquet.

The banquet was held at the President's home on the night of the 24th of July, 1911. The President's house is situated on a hill overlooking the city, and the guests were seated at a table surrounded by a large group of people.

The president's house is a large, two-story building with a beautiful garden. The guests were greeted with red and white flowers, and the president himself was in full dress.

The speeches were made by President Oberlin's daughter, who was seated next to him, and by the president himself. The president gave a short speech, and then the president's daughter introduced the speaker.

The speeches were made in such a way that they were enjoyed by all present.

The guests were also entertained by a band, which played a selection of songs.

The banquet was a great success, and it is hoped that it will be repeated in the future.
