INTERVIEW

We have with us—For Evening A New Mode

It's a stimulating mode, a touch of diamond and gold mode, a gloriously rich and flattering mode. There are palette frocks and frocks of metal dress. How they science, twisting their way to informants!

It's a lovely mode, with satin a shining success, with lovely velvet, fragile chiffon. With classic drapery and draping molten. With satin hips reflecting the beauty of the moulded waist. A laughing, dancing mode to usher in the new social era!
INTERIOR DECORATING HAS NEW NOTE IN HAYS HALL

A new note in liberal decoration has been added to the program of activities, which are given in the Hays Hall, 511 Morrill Ave. The approach is through design and economy. The purpose is to be found in the students who are now interested in the program of activities, whether they are interested in the work of the school or in the school itself.

A feature of the program is the new note in the Kenyon room, which opened last night under the direction of Mrs. E. C. Brink, the librarian.
The library is furnished in a manner which is both practical and attractive.

The furniture is made of wood and the lamps are made of metal. The room is arranged in a manner which makes it easy for the students to find what they need.

It's The Varsity
at Homecoming-

Next week we are to be accorded the honor and the privilege of entertaining old grads who are returning to the alma mater. They helped to build to those grads we owe a great deal.

No one who has gone from Idaho dering years will forget the Varsity with its cleanliness, homemade-to-goodness food, and the special brand of coffee we have always served.

It will help recall memories of college days gone by to bring your homecoming guest here for lunch or a mid-afternoon nap of coffee, or for Sunday dinner.
We'll expect you, and we'll do our part to make Homecoming pleasant for our guests and yours.
