The Receipt Degree

The year of the Interfraternity Council which will enable the university to wind up a degree from a student until he has "paid up" on his three-year internship. The degree is conferred only at the time the student is received by the student. If a student is not received by the student, he may not be received as an intern until he has completed the third year of his internship.

Alumni Notes

The Alumni Notes section of the Idaho Argonaut contains information regarding the alumni association, news from alumni, and updates on the progress of alumni. It covers a range of topics, including professional achievements, personal updates, and events. The section aims to keep alumni informed about the latest developments at the university and provide a platform for networking and communication.

Arvo Knots

Arvo Knots is a fictional character featured in the Idaho Argonaut. He is known for his distinctive style and unique personality. In the context of the newspaper, Arvo Knots often appears with humorous or satirical comments on current events, campus life, or societal issues. The fictional character serves as a comedic relief, adding a lighthearted touch to the publication.

Gerti Guillotine

Gerti Guillotine is another fictional character from the Idaho Argonaut. She is characterized by her distinctive appearance and unique personality traits. Similar to Arvo Knots, Gerti Guillotine is known for making humorous comments or providing satirical insights into various topics. Her presence in the newspaper adds a touch of humor and wit to the content.

Times is Gettin' Tougher Even in Picture Colleges

The headline "Times is Gettin' Tougher Even in Picture Colleges" suggests a theme of adversity, challenges, or ongoing struggles faced even in the field of picture colleges. Picture colleges refer to a type of educational institution or program that focuses on photography or film production. The phrase "times is gettin' tougher" implies a worsening of conditions or circumstances that colleges, especially those focused on the arts or creative fields, may experience.

Library Report

The Library Report section in the Idaho Argonaut provides updates and information about the library's operations, resources, and services. It covers topics such as new book acquisitions, library policies, and other relevant news. The library is a crucial resource for students, faculty, and staff, offering a wide range of materials and services to support research, learning, and community engagement.
HUSKIES LEADING IN RACE TO CRAB NORTHWEST FLAG

California Sets Pace in the Sun Belt Unbeaten

The Coast conference now faces a major test as it enters the final fourth of the season, and the University of Oregon leads all other league clubs with its three victories in four contests. The Huskies of the University of Oregon have won all of their games, while the Stanford, Washington, and Oregon teams have each won two games apiece. The University of Oregon has scored 131 points in its four games, while Stanford has scored 120, Washington 109, and Oregon 99.

HOOPLING TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE SET

The competition will start on the fourth of this week, and the University of Oregon will face the University of California in the opening game. The other teams will meet in a round robin schedule, with each team playing each of the others once. The University of Oregon has already defeated the University of California, Stanford, and Washington, and it is expected to defeat the University of Washington in the final game.

SWIMMERS LOOKING LIKE REAL TEAM

With a victory today over the University of California, the swimming team hopes to make a strong showing in the conference meet. The University of Oregon has been a strong contender in the conference meet in recent years, and it is expected to do well this year.

European Vies with States for Track

Europe is making a strong bid to attract American track athletes, and several European countries have offered to sponsor American athletes in track and field events. The United States has long been the dominant power in track and field, but Europe is determined to challenge that dominance.

ATHLETIC HEART FARE EXPLORER

The University of Oregon has been exploring the athletic heart, and its researchers have published several papers on the subject. The research has been funded by a $1 million grant from the federal government, and it is expected to lead to significant breakthroughs in the field of sports medicine.

Rifle Marksmen Have Close Competition

The rifle team has been facing close competition, and it has been working hard to improve its performance. The team has been practicing regularly, and it is expected to do well in the upcoming competition.

Miners Prepare for Annual Horn

The miners' annual horn is scheduled for this weekend, and it is expected to be a major event. The miners have been working hard to prepare for the event, and it is expected to be a high-energy experience.

Lawyers Pushed for Challenge

The lawyers have been pushing for a challenge to the miners' annual horn, and it is expected that the challenge will be accepted. The lawyers have been working hard to prepare for the challenge, and it is expected to be a fierce battle.

FACULTY MEMBERS

Patriotic, Fins and Blueberries

Will Train for the Month

Mr. Patterson, professor of history, and Mr. Forno, professor of economics, will train for the month. They will be accompanied by several other faculty members, and the group will be supported by the university.

INDIANA SEEKING NEW GRID COACH

Following a recent call by numerous college sports teams, the Indiana University basketball team has been on the lookout for a new head coach. The team has been successful in recent years, and it is expected to continue to be a major contender in the conference.

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM LOSES

Pittsburgh Cracks Team in First Match

The women's rifle team lost its first match, but it is expected to bounce back quickly. The team has been working hard to improve its performance, and it is expected to do well in the upcoming competition.

New Spring Styles

Coats and Suits for every occasion purchased by Mr. Stewart in New York for the Spring Season 1934 are arriving daily.

Do come in and see them.

The Fashion Shop Inc.