PRESIDENT, Great Britain and the Netherlands, which also have problems with the same kind of issues, are working closely with the United States and Japan.

POWERS, The pending situation of Idaho has also been settled for the time being, according to financial planners for the area. The powers were taken by the state in order to stabilize the state's financial position.

WASHINGTON: President Hoover was asked to settle the dispute after Montana and Idaho were left with a large gap in their financial planning. Ms. Hoover has set up a plan to stabilize the state's financial position.

WASHINGTON: Disappointed with the results of a such a costly plan, the President declared that the additional states would be asked to join the plan in order to stabilize the state's financial position.

Who's School Is This?

HAVING given the University of Idaho a new deal the legislature prepared for the board of education to approve. While the present students can only influence their present votes, the day will come when the power of the alumnus will be realized. If our barracks must play at politics with the educational systems of the state, it will be a battle which we cannot afford to lose. So let us not be ashamed of our alma mater, but let us take pride in it, and throw our best efforts into it.

Gertie Guillotine

Drop-a-jury Californians — Well, it's the jury system in action and us all for it. We're used to it, and we like it, and we're going to keep it. The jury is the best form of government we have, and we're going to keep it and make it work.

OH COCKTAIL AND OTHER FORMAL EXPRESSIONS!

Reports from the infirmary of the last few days show 3 Gompers, 1 College, 4 Phillips and a Buggs. All, except two, are expected to recover. The other two are serious cases. It is feared they will not survive.
