A.S.U.I. President Calls Matter to Attention of Students

NEEDS AMENDMENT

Constitution Must Be Altered to Put Plan Into Effect

The proposal by President Pillar for the supervision of class elections has been met with mixed reactions. Some students believe it is a good idea, while others think it will only lead to complications. The amendment to the constitution will have to be considered by the student body before it can be put into effect.

Gory Battle On Maple Court Won By "Worms"

Immediately after the A.A.C.-season ending, the earthquakes on the campus have been causing much concern. The seismograph has been showing a steady increase in the number of readings, indicating that the campus is experiencing a higher level of vibration than normal. The authorities have been asked to take steps to reduce the frequency of the earthquakes.

Flotsam 'n Jetsam

An eight o'clock on Saturday, Edith Grove, the former Miss Helen Brown, and her friends and admirers gathered in the Whiskey Valley Room of the University Hotel.

"Bottle 'n Bones" was the name of the affair in which Edith Grove was hostess, and the festivities included a costume dance, a prize dance, and a midnight buffet in the cocktail lounge.

The guests included many of the University Hotel's regulars, as well as some of the University's students and faculty.

The dance was a huge success, and the guests enjoyed themselves thoroughly.
