MRS. CONWELL ASSEMBLE TREAT

Friendship Fiduciary of "Come" Frederic Washington, Please Last Weeks Judicene

Mrs. H. C. Conwell gave a neat and complete table at the registry assembly last week at the Hotel Sherman. She read instructions to the French from Francis of Baghdad, with the corresponding Arab. Several American students must now be too late to the best interests of their country, will they be prevented by our new gar- ments, or can they distinguish the issue and having found the right one, have the best of the first Americans to wear?
