Editor Poe of the 1916 Grad of the Montana Mines says that the best book that will come out of the war will be in the hands of the University by May 19, as a result of the efforts of the faculty to have the book held in the up to date. The book, called "A Student's Guide to Life in Montana," is written by John R. Poe. The book will be published in the fall and will be available to students in the months to come.

EXPERIENCES WILL BE PAID

Mary Natenberg, a student at the University, has been awarded a scholarship in the amount of $200 for her work in the preparation of the school's first yearbook. The scholarship will be used to cover the cost of the yearbook, which is expected to be published in the fall.

SEED SCARCE IN THE SOUTH

A telegram received last week by the agricultural department of the University from the headquarters of the western division of the national organization of the reserve corps. The telegram stated that the supply of seed in the South is nearly exhausted and that the flow of seed from the North is very slow.

MOUNTAINTA PLAYS "COURTSHIP"

The play "COURTSHIP" was performed in the University Theatre last week. The play was well received by the audience and was considered a success.

STUDENTS WILL TAKE TRAINING

The war conference has been held at the University, and a large number of students have volunteered for military service. The number of students who have volunteered is expected to increase as the war situation becomes more critical.

Old Photo Shows Strange Central Business District of Des Moines

A large photograph of the Idaho Central Business District of Des Moines, which was taken during the war, has been released to the press. The photograph shows the district in 1917, during the war, and the changes that have taken place since then. The photograph is expected to be used by the war department in the promotion of the war effort.

Why Go To "Idaho"
The choice of a university or college to be attended by a student should be based upon four principal requirements: 1st, a high purpose and high goal for one's life; 2nd, a practical faculty; 3rd, sufficient equipment; 4th, a student body of high ideals. The University of Idaho fully satisfies these requirements.

1. Purpose and Field
Its purpose is to serve the people of Idaho in developing and training students; in advancing the entire state educational system of which it is a part; in meeting today's solution of economic and social problems; in furnishing expert knowledge in Agriculture, Engineering, Education, and Life Sciences. It is the purpose of the university to serve students in residence but also to all who desire it throughout the State.

2. Faculty
The faculty is made up of eight to twelve teachers of thorough training and efficiency studies aided by the work of temporary instructors. They are

3. Equipment
The campus is ample. It has a library of over 50,000 volumes, excellent laboratories and classrooms, and well provided lecture rooms for the natural and applied sciences.

4. Students
Its student body is about one thousand and one in the school year of 1906-07, and continues to grow. It is a vigorous body, of which the students are proud, because they are princes in the University of Idaho in professions, the industrial vocations, and in the building and operation of homes.

The four colleges and the central agricultural experiment station are located at Moscow; the law college is at Boise, and the agricultural extension office is located at both of these points.

The information and application should go to the UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO
Moscow, Idaho.
