The Idaho Football Team, under the leadership of Coach L. S. Kinney, is off to a fine start this year. The team, which consists of the best men from the University, has already established a record of two wins and one tie. The victories were against the teams from Lewiston and Burlington, while the tie was against the University of Rochester.

L. S. Kinney, the new coach of the football team, has developed a keen interest in the sport. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and has played football for several years. He is known for his ability to develop young talent and for his aggressive coaching style.

The Idaho football team is expected to do well this season, and fans are eagerly anticipating the next game, which will be against the University of Oregon. The game is scheduled for Saturday, and both teams are expected to give their all.

JUDGING TEAM WINS CONTEST
Organization from Aq College Schools

The victory at Lewiston of the Idaho team over the students from the University of Lewiston, this afternoon, is a result of careful planning and hard work. The team has been working hard to perfect their skills, and the victory is a sign of their success.

The University of Lewiston, who have also been working hard, are expected to give their all in the next game, which will be against the University of Idaho. Fans are eagerly anticipating the game and are looking forward to a great contest.

Turk Gerloough, one of the best football players in the state, has graduated from Idaho and is now a member of the team. He has been working hard to perfect his skills, and the results are evident. The team is looking forward to his contributions and is confident that he will make a valuable addition to the squad.

TOMMY ELDRIDGE GETS CALL TO FRANCE

Dean of University Faculty Summoned
Army "JJ" for duty on Feb 1st
May Leave

One of the biggest surprises of the N. M. C. A. campaign was the news that Tommy Eldridge, a member of the American Football team, was summoned by the army to go to France on active duty. The news came as a shock to the team, who were preparing for their next game. However, the team is confident that they can carry on without him.

The team is looking forward to the next game, which will be against the University of Oregon. The game is scheduled for Saturday, and both teams are expected to give their all.
