Passing Featured By Both Teams
Brothers Completing 14 out of 21
Score—14—13

The preaching right returned from Missoula last Friday, having led by four touchdowns in the first quarter, and was saved. However, the game was played in a very entertaining manner, and the spectators were not disappointed.

The game was played on the field at the University of Idaho, and the teams were evenly matched. The_prefects of the two schools were present, and the game was played with great skill and enthusiasm.

The game was continued until the last minute, when the Idaho team scored a touchdown, and the game was declared a draw.

The spectators were enthusiastic throughout, and the game was a great success.

Working Your Way Through College? This Shows You How

Group of Idaho Students Make Comfortable Slack in Summer's Work

Among the various free questions in a college student's schedule, there are usually one or two that seem the most difficult of all. One is the question of how to earn the "slacks" for next year. It has been the bane of many a student, and has led to some very hard work, but it is not likely to be solved in the near future. The problem of how to earn slacks is a very difficult one, and many a student has tried to solve it in his own way. However, there is one "slacks" that has the potential of being a very comfortable and fashionable item. How they are made, and why they are made, is the main point of this article.

How they are made is a very simple process. The "slacks" are made from a material that is very comfortable and easy to wear. The material is a blend of cotton and wool, and is very lightweight. The "slacks" are lined with a comfortable and soft fabric, and are designed to fit the body perfectly. The "slacks" are made in a variety of styles, and are available in many different colors. They are also available in different sizes, so that everyone can find the perfect fit.
