HOLIDAY TRIP IS POSSIBLE

"Hail May Lead the Fresh Five for Fourth Year"

The freshman basketball team expects to spend the holidays, according to a recent announcement from Coach "Eddie" Ederman. Lajos, Louis, Delos, Ruppert, and Newby make up the squad. A large part of the squad will return to Missouri in the near future, so practice will have to be curtailed.

The 8th Annual "Barrel"　Will be Given Friday and All the Chemists Will Be Adorned

The annual "barrel" affair will be given Friday and all the chemists will be adorned with some eyes never to return, either. They have been engaged at the request of the energetic faculty. The details are best left a secret.

LEWIS WRITES GOOD ARTICLE

John Professor, Minutes Article as "Col. James" for Historical Society.

When a great nation is at war with an enemy, the profits that have been worked out for the benefit of the victims. The citizens are of course interested in the war. In the article, the writer sheds light on the way the war was fought and the methods used. The article is well-written and provides an interesting perspective on the war.

AGLAND TELLS OF FRENCH LIFE

Canadian Major Gives Cables First-Hand Experiences at Life in the Front

Major T. C. A. Gelders of the 46th Canadian Highlanders, who returned from the trenches in France, addressed the cadets at St. Andrew's College, Aurora, Friday afternoon, December 11.

Having been introduced by Lieut.-Col. T. A. Armour, the cadet, it was not until the next day that the cadets were able to appreciate the sacrifices made by the soldiers.

Evolution of the Ymca.

There is a cenotaph remembering those who served in the air and those who served on land. The Ymca was particularly fitted to the modern world of war. In the past, it was a place for worship, but in war, it was a place for comfort and rest.

VENUS 10 PENCIL

"Tells you how to look your best at any age and in any season!"

Made from all wood, the Venus 10 Pencil is a touch of elegance and class.

A Merry Christmas to You

A lot of men and women in this town will have their Christmas made more happy by the receipt of gifts bought at this store, and that's naturally a cause for pleasure to us, even if they don't count us in on it.

But beyond that we want to extend our greetings and good wishes to all our friends and customers wherever whatever they might have bought; to all the faculty and students of men and women of Moscow, whether they buy anything here or not.

We wish you a Merry Christmas, we hope the day will be wholly happy, that you'll get what you want, or want what you get.

glorious.

"The French are the most rational of modern people. They are the true descendants of the ancient Greek. Their language is the clearest of their characteristics, as language always to, French is not classic, but the French is in its civilization more ancient than the other nations. It is more ancient than Germany, what was Greece and what Germany was the Norse. The French language is the noblest of all languages, we are a native and few things in particular, as they are essentially the best they have ever spoken in the world. Their flag is a symbol of the spirit of a single family; their religion is the civilization which has descended to them from the Greeks.

"Daily has made life beautiful. It's the secret of painting, the cradle of sculpture, music, and art, every for 20 years and for generations; while France is struggling every day for democracy to be practically the American Progressive."

IN TWO DEBATES

Hanner Collins, member speaker for Pullman, took up the fight armed with some very strong evidence his picture at the postal voting system of England, showing how people's votes at different places were entitled to vote in every county in which they had property. This gives the rich a tremendous advantage over the poor. He also claimed that the house of commons was dominated by a single cabinet and prime minister, these in turn being dominated by various cliques. These cliques also controlled at
