Organizations Make Details Known for Introducing 104
Men for Army

Strict Military Discipline

Class Will Be Under Control of Officers and Instructors

The contract between the University and

Army is defined by the enlistment, by which the university student Oral Roberts is for military training, and special instructions, has been given, and the work for preparing for the enlisted of the student is being conducted by the Army. The contract provides for the enlistment of 100 men for June 15, 2020, and the student will receive a pay of $4.50 per day for the length of the service, or the period the student may serve. The student will take his classes at the University and will be in the Army during his time. He will receive pay for his military training and studies at the University.

A special sliding scale of premiums has been made for student enlistments. The scale is designed to assure the student of a steady income, with some increase or decrease as the student advances in his studies. FORTY-FIVE TO RECEIVE DEGREES AT COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES

Class of '18 Ridden by Enlistments—Pestilences Begin Saturday

With Senior Breakfast—Open Reception Monday—Night—"Midsummer's Day" in Amphitheater

The ceremonies will begin Saturday, June 1, with the Senior Breakfast. All members of the class will be present and will be seated in the Amphitheater. The dinner will be served on the table and will be followed by an open reception in the Amphitheater. The guest speaker at the reception will be an Army officer, who will discuss the current state of the Army and the role of the alumnus. The reception will be followed by a military march past the campus, with the band playing "Midsummer's Day" in the Amphitheater. The parade will proceed to the center of the campus, where the ceremonies will be held.

There will be forty-five members of the class who will be present at the ceremonies. The class will be organized into four groups, each consisting of ten members. The groups will be led by Army officers, who will conduct the ceremonies. The groups will proceed to the Amphitheater, where they will be seated and will be greeted by the Army officers. The opening address will be given by the President of the University, who will welcome the guests and introduce the officers. The Army officers will then present the diplomas to the members of the class, and the members will be called to the stage to receive their degrees.

The ceremonies will conclude with a reception in the Amphitheater, where the guests will be entertained by the band and the officers. The reception will be followed by a military march to the center of the campus, where the band will play "Midsummer's Day" in the Amphitheater. The parade will proceed to the center of the campus, where the ceremonies will be held.
