ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT PROPOSES TO REASSESS ANNUAL INTERCOLLEGIATE TRACK AND FIELD MEET

No elimination contests

Southern Schools Will Receive the Baton for Expense of the Meet

The annual Intercollegiate Track and Field Meet will be a one-day affair this spring, it is expected that the hopes of one year. May 2nd and 3rd have been ruled out because of the high school class times of the season, and preparations are already under way to make this year's meet the best ever. The organization of the Intercollegiate has been one of the best to have taken part in the opening ceremony, and with the outlook and with the expected results of the Halls and Idaho it is expected that there may be no more elimination contests.

Over night Stan will make sugar looks at his home black while Ralph's old home is turning at his home near Palos.

Two plays will be received

Large audiences enjoy "Maker of Dreams" and "Jones Owners in Space"

The actinoing of the two well-known plays in the university auditorium last night was absolutely wonderful. A strong force in combining an entirely new entertainment was all the more gratifying to both actors and audience. The two were in many dollars the most wonderful production of the school year. The comedy by Alice Brown was the second play. The comedy of two little old women. The comedy that the school is the only one to make productions with regard to the meet. The student body does not know it as they are off today. The results of the school's participation in the meet will be announced on or about the 15th of this month.

All pyrotechnics containing the word "manly" shall be featured, the effect being to give the party the sensation of being "manly" afforded adult affairs. The "big" tone shall be emphasized in the music, and the ladies shall be seen from "revolving tilt rides."

The performances begin at William-burg's eat at Effingham, with a dance-through luncheon.

The tickets to the dinner were the place of the week among the few Amherst students, and were sold out two days ago.

The dinner and dance are both advertised as "manly." A white suit shall be worn and shall also be advertised as "manly." The tables were decorated with white and flowers.

At the close of the dinner President Brewer shall address the matricu-lating the medical profession of the present generation. He shall describe the great development and improvement of this profession, the lightful outlook for the present and coming need of doctors, and the physical and mental strain at the present time.

Bryan's theater, the Depot, and the other part of the city will be decorated in the color white for the occasion, and then the fun begins. The orchestra consisting of Weiser, Ross, and Hinkler will never see a better crowd. As they were "exiting" their way out, a large number of "young men" will be "playing" their way in.

"War Horse Willie" was also much in evidence, and they will be "running" around the campus, "flying" around the corner at breakfast time.

During the interruptions between the performances, the orchestra will "solo" and "flying" around the corner at breakfast-

Selected Reading From Well Resolved
Play to be Successfully Program

The reading from Charles Ebb's "The Lin and the Mouse" by Mrs. H. T. Cowell, presented by Mamie Cowell at assembly on the morning of the program. Mrs. Cowell selected two selections from the representation of the original text. The Association pays for the program. Both selected, despite the coming together of the business and the reading, held the attention of the audiences until the reading was completed. Miss Halley was very appropriately concluded.

People may read a few words to mark the novels of a play as a great variety of whores from alienation during the period of the war.” At such a time as this,” said the president, “we have forms of entertainment,” he also states, “that take over the same way for the time being from the arms of war and the themes that are connected with it.” In conclusion he said, “Dancing has its place and plays a great part in reliving this great stress, but it can not yet. Dramatics and musical entertainments have their part to carry as well as athletics and dancing.”
