STUDENT ARMY TRAINING ABSORBING "I" THIS YEAR.

ENROLLMENT REACHES TOP OF 7,000 IN S. A. T. C. DEPARTMENT.

Male's Student Army Training Camp is absorbing "I" this year, due to the increased demand for soldiers for the nation's defense. Arrangements have been made by the Department of War and the United States Army to provide training for the students. The camp is located at the University of Idaho, Moscow, and provides a comprehensive training program for students.

The camp is accepting new members daily, and the enrollment is expected to reach the 7,000 mark. The camp provides a unique opportunity for students to gain valuable training and experience in a military setting.

SEVEN OF NINE OFFICERS CONTINUE LEADERSHIP.

The University of Idaho's Student Army Training Camp is continuing its tradition of providing effective leadership to the nation's future military leaders. With seven of the nine officers continuing their leadership roles, the camp is well positioned to meet the nation's needs.

The camp's leadership is composed of a mix of experienced and new officers, ensuring a smooth transition and continued success.
