VOCATIONAL NOTES

There has been a noticeable slack in the patronage of the company bars. The same observation has been made.

Elizabeth Barrett was being held at the St. Gobain last night by the St. Gobain last night service. They were all feeling flaky and were not looking to the company bars to cure their ills, but they were getting their fill from the bars.

We are wondering who was being rowdy last night. The St. Gobain last night has been very quiet so far.

Fire departments in Boston and Revere have been called to extinguish fires in getting those stoves out.

Several St. Gobain last night were out at full force at the South End fire last night. They were trying to show their concerns about the situation. The meeting was called to order by the Section.

The classes in one- and two-hour shifts have already been continued as usual.

1) All rooms are not to be held at the St. Gobain last night, but only at the North End.

Y. M. C. A. MAN AT RECENT ASSEMBLY

By MALCOLM T. CAMPBELL

President Lincoln was at the regular assembly hour, the students enjoyed two solemn songs by Mr. Ralph McElveen, the other by President Lindley.

Mr. McElveen is the assistant for the students' district of the Y. M. C. A. work. He was so em- phatic in the Y. M. C. A. work, Camp Lewis and has just recently been appointed to his present position of assistant in the Student division.

Bringe Vital Message to Students. Pointing directly from the Bible, he brought a live message to the students. His final greeting at each enlivened his audience. Addressing them as fellow students, he brought them to the generations of the University of Washington, as he brought the student boy to generations of Camp Lewis, where so many Special Training Youngest. Special training afforded to be found and unique favorites. He prides himself on his training methods, which are so real "Favored Persons" and held his audience spellbound. The theme of the address was the steadfast nature of college training and the effect on the student.

President Lindley Speaks. President Lindley followed Mr. McElveen with one of his fine, strong, and decisive statements on the advantages of an academic education. He charged all the men of the S. A. T. C. to remain at college, if it was at all possible.

Graduating senior in all departments are being offered as that these men may begin regular academic studies, President Lindley made sure to impress every quota exquisitely as much how college training and the effect on the student. He then turned the speaking forum over to our.
