FLINTHURST SPEAKS FOR EXTENSION STAFF

Rev. Hinckly C. Smith, of Lewiston, was the principal speaker at the Extension Department of the University of Idaho at the weekly business meeting of the Extension Division.

BANKERS DEBATE: THE CHALLENGE OF THE 20TH CENTURY

The Extension Division staff of the University of Idaho met for a round-table discussion on the challenge of the 20th century.

Dr. W. H. Flinthurst, the Editor of the Extension Bulletin, opened the meeting with a brief introduction.

L. E. FLINTHURST, President of the Extension Division.

Dr. Flinthurst emphasized the importance of the 20th century as a time of great change and opportunity.

He discussed the challenges facing the world, including issues such as technological advancements, social changes, and environmental concerns.

The discussion continued with each member sharing their perspective on how the Extension Division can best serve the community during this time of transition.

The meeting concluded with a call to action, encouraging everyone to be proactive in addressing the challenges of the 20th century.
