

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK BRIGHT
Thousands Go To Pinto Field On Opening Night

With every prospect for the coming year being the most glorious in its history, the University of Idaho prepares to open its football season today despite the inclement weather and the severity of the cold which will return to the region of the lip pages of local football to the university. In Idaho, the manuscript today by Coach Thomas Kelley.

Mr. MacMillan, who did his college work at the University of Idaho, was a football player and baseball player in high school and college, and his individual career included a term of service with the Idaho National Guard, which played through the west with the Idaho unit. MacMillan's football career and his coaching career have been entirely in the state of Idaho. He began coaching at Boise, his alma mater, and he was coach at Boise State and at Idaho State before coming to the University of Idaho.

The following is a list of concessions at six large locations.

Six Month in Italy

Dr. Edward McMillan, Dean of the college of letters and science, has been in residence in Paris this summer. The purpose of his trip was to study the various aspects of the cultural life of France, with a view to gaining a deeper understanding of the life and work of the French people.

While in Europe, Dean McMillan visited a number of the larger cities, including Paris, London, and Berlin, and traveled through parts of France, Italy, and Germany. His stay in Paris was particularly noteworthy, as he spent much of his time in the city, both in the afternoon and evening, studying and visiting art galleries and museums.

During his stay in Britain, Dean McMillan met with a number of prominent figures in the world of literature and art, including the famous painter, Vincent van Gogh, and the celebrated writer, Charles Dickens.

He returned to the United States in June and has since been in residence at the University of Idaho, where he continues to teach and conduct research.

MAGA

Observing the principles at Moscow, Idaho, as before other schools, the Maga Coast was held with much enthusiasm. This edition was published by a group of students from the Moscow of May, 1912. The Maga is the publication of the University of Idaho.

A Thousand people generally had the privilege of attending the Maga. It is well known that nothing about the paper that is not careful and systematic is published. The principles of the Maga are liberal and thorough, and the Maga Coast was the best one that could possibly be.

The Maga was the best Coast that has ever been printed. It was the most thorough and well-rounded Coast that has ever been run.
