SEPTEMBER

HAROLD CORRINGTON of Moscow was named President of the Moscow High School student council at a meeting held today by the student council.

The Moscow High School student body elected Harold Corrington, a senior, as their president for the coming school year. Corrington, who is a member of the varsity basketball team, is also a member of the Moscow High School debate team. He is a three-sport student, participating in football, basketball, and track.

He replaces James Brown, who will be entering his senior year at the university.

Corrington has been an active member of the student council, participating in various activities and projects. He is well-respected by his peers and teachers alike.

The student council meets weekly to discuss various issues and plan events for the coming year. They are responsible for organizing Homecoming and other school events.

In other news, the Moscow High School band, under the direction of Mr. Johnson, will be performing at the upcoming Homecoming game.

The student council is looking forward to a successful year and encourages all students to get involved and participate in school activities.
