MONTANA REBATE PLAN IS SIMILAR TO IODAH'S

In 1917, the University of Idaho passed a resolution calling for a rebatable plan similar to Montana's. The resolution proposed a rebate of 50% of state expenses for educational institutions, with the rebate amounting to 50% of the cost of the student's education. This plan was intended to be a way to help low-income students attend college.

VANDALS PLAY POTLUCK THURSDAY

Visiting Team Set to Be Strong—Expect Hard Battle

Boise State is scheduled to play the Idaho State Blue-devils Thursday night, in Boise, at 8:15 p.m. The game is an important one for both teams.

Both teams have won their last two games. Boise State, as a result of their recent win at Pullman, Washington, will come to this game with a lot of confidence.

The Blue-devils, on the other hand, have played well against Montana and the University of Idaho in their last two games. They have shown that they are a strong team and will not be taken lightly.

The game promises to be an exciting one, with both teams playing to win.

CAMPUSS MENUS ARE ORGANIZED

Kitchens of Hill, New Idaho Lodge, Flats to Provide Delicious Meals

All the undergraduates "kitchens" and "campuses" have come together to put on a delicious meal for the students. The football game and the upcoming holidays have provided an opportunity for the students to come together and enjoy some delicious food.

The kitchens have been working hard to prepare the dishes, and the students are eagerly anticipating the meal.

The event is a great opportunity for the students to socialize and enjoy some delicious food. It is a must-see event for anyone interested in good food and good times.
