Prospects For Track Rosy

Smith, Fawcett, and Edmundson Form Nucleus for a Winning Team

Dearth of Material for the Weights and Distances

Since the fateful examinations have come and gone, the candidates for track athletes have begun to do their shot putters and sprints. Nearly all of the old men are labored at, and more new ones are joining the ranks daily. The prospects for a winning team are bright.

A glance at the material will convince one that Idaho will be strong in the dash, sprints and distances, and, unless something unexpected happens, will be wonderfully weak in the field events. "Here" it will be the iron men in these events, but one can never win them all, so Idaho must develop more weight men. In another fact is apparent, and that is Idaho is not strong in the triple jump, near enough to win an event. But first places will not alone win track meets and she will have to win the first and third place point winners in order to win the coveted first place.

Coach Dawson calls it, and has not yet appeared but comment on the capabilities of some of those who are training will give some idea of what material Idaho has.

Penna, "11, looks like the mainspring in the 100 yard dash. He is the fastest interscholastic sprinter in the Idaho Empire and easily defeated Idaho's best in the spring. Of course. Gwyn, "11, is a youngster who did good work last year, and promises to develop under Coach Dawson's tutelage. Fawcett is an old man and will become the "Vandal" on the track several seasons. Fawcett's best race is the quarter. Thornton, "11, is the fastest man on the football squad, and will undoubtedly make good on the track.

The quarter mile brings out a host of candidates. It goes without saying that Captain Edmundson and Fawcett will win places in this event. Among others who are trying are Williams, "11, Cling, Montgomery, Thorndon, Hulme, Montgomery, Thornton, Keynes, and Cooper. From this bunch of enthusiastic young men, Coach Dawson expects to develop two more good 440 men, which will insure Idaho of a winning team.

Edmundson, Hunting, and Price are the only men who are training for the 200 yard dash. Edmundson is the "Vandal's" last year's cinder to the cinder; if the competition rules hold good, and Idaho's cinder runs a good race, he will lower a few records. Hunting showed up last year's metes and is running stronger this season. his season. Price has done considerable work on schoolies.

For the hurdlers Armstrong, Dohle, Montgomery, Wadsworth, and Cooper, they have the material. The men are in the gymnastic daily, working consistently. Armstrong holds the college record in the low hurdles.

"Here" Smith is doing the best in high jumping. Steenbecker of Garfield High School, an Idahoan, is the record holder. Although both are leading in the long jump, a scholarship meet last year, is training. It is safe to say that at least one of them will probably be a point winner in this event. They both are trying to win the Broad Jump. Both men should be good for points this season.

Molynex is the most promising candidate for leaping. He is the first man ever to come to Idaho from Ames, where he has had good record as a vault. Coach Dvork has a high hope for him and will make the first man ever to come to Idaho from Ames, where he has had good record as a vault. Coach Dvork has a high hope for him and will make the first man train consistently. All in all, Idaho's prospects are indeed encouraging.

Idaho will have three big meets this year. On May 9 the University of Montana and Idaho meet for the first time, at Moscow. The Whitman, W. S. C., Idaho meet occurs about the first of the month, and the inter-state triangular on Decoration Day.

Debate News.

The membership of all six of the intercollegiate teams will take part in the next series of debates in the Triangular League has been determined. At the meeting held on Tuesday, it was decided to create three affirmative and three negative teams. Each team will be made up of students from one of the three sections of the University.

One of the teams will consist of members from the University of Idaho. The members of this team will be selected from the men of the Western University. The members of the team will come from the University of Oregon. The team will be selected from the men of the Eastern University. The team will consist of members from the University of Washington.

Music Notes

One more musical society has been organized under auspicious circumstances at the University. This time the co-eds are the prime movers. The Girl's Glee Club is the new organization, its inception, two weeks ago, has been rapid. There are now twenty two members of the club and many others have signified their intention of applying for admission.

The club has organized permanently and has elected Anna Kelley, '09, president and Jessie Gearhart, '10, secretary. It meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week.

The club is to be directed by Miss Caldwell. Miss Caldwell is a pleasing exponent of natural ability and had the opportunity of studying under some of the best tutors in the country. Most of her training was received in Omaha and Chicago the two musical centers of the middle west.

The vocal is not, as yet, a regular department in the University but will undoubtedly be made a permanent department as soon as conditions will permit.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting was held last week with a number of delegates attended the convention recently held in Walla Walla for the Associateds of Idaho, eastern Oregon, and eastern Washington gave their reports.

Jennie Horton spoke on "The Leaders of the Conference," Ethel Hume on "The Social Side," Edith Keyes on "Mr. Rader's Address," and Minnie Smith on "The Other Religious Meetings." More folks than usual were present and altogether it was a very successful meeting.

Debate Blank Question

Washington State College and the University of Montana club debate this spring upon the question, "Resolved, that the United States should adopt a central federal banking system." This is similar to the question to be discussed by "W. S. C. and Whitman. In the former contest with Montana the State College has usually come out victorious.

Classical Club

Professor H. L. Axtell interested the members of the Classical Club last Wednesday evening by a thorough description of ancient Rome. With the aid of maps and views he made the audience feel that they had actually spent several months in that ancient metropolis.

This club meets every fortnight and always has an interesting program, to which all students are invited.

Agricultural Club

An audience of encouraging members listened last Friday evening to the weekly program of the Agricultural Club. The principal feature was a debate on a subject of interest and importance to agricultural students.

An effort is being made to secure as speaker at Y. M. C. A. next Sunday a member of the Washington State College faculty. The idea is a part of a reciprocal arrangement entered into sometime last with the leaders at W. S. C., under which Prof. Philip Sorenson recently addressed a large audience at W. S. C. under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.
New Commandant Arrives

Lieutenant A. W. Smith, who has been detailed as commandant of cadets at the university, arrived in Moscow last Friday. Lieutenant Smith has already issued a call for the able-bodied to report and it will please the lower classes to learn that they can at last don their blue clothes and parade the campus, preserving of peace.

Lieutenant Smith entered West Point as a cadet from Pennsylvania and chose the cavalry. He graduated in June 1912 and joined the Ninth Cavalry. He was stationed at Fort Walls, Walls for two years and at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, for two and one-half years. He was sent to the Philippines with the 9th in June, 1917, and was transferred to the 3rd Cavalry in November. Immediately after transfer Lieutenant Smith was detailed to the Idaho tour. He returned with the 3rd Cavalry on February 14 and immediately headed for Moscow.

Lieutenant Smith, being a West Pointer, is well fitted for duties such as he will have at the "Varsity. He is a young man and has already made a host of friends during his short act, quittance.

Miss Belle Sweet spent from Friday to Monday visiting friends in Lewiston.
