SECOND ANNUAL
INTER-CLASS MEET

Sophomores Take First Honors
Freshmen Clope Second

As a result of the second annual in- door inter-class meet, the Sophomores came out with highest honors scoring 364 points. The Freshmen were a close second, however, making 33 points.

Several new records were made. Montgomery ran the 33-yd dash in 3 seconds, lowering by one-fifth of a second the record made by Williams last year. He also made a record of 6 feet 4 inches in the high jump.

Easing recorded in the high and long dives of 5 feet 6 inches and 13 feet 3 inches respectively, while Simbeck made 5 feet 2 inches in the high jump—a two inches better than Smith of last year. This, however, was made after the meet so that it does not count as a permanent record.

The 440, 880 and mile were run inside for the first time so that the time in these events stand as records. Jessup won the 440 in 57.5, Denning the 880 in 2:16 and Price the mile in 5:05 4-5.

These are all quite remarkable when you take into consideration the fact that the men have been training but two or three weeks, the hard floor, and the fact that the track was only 86 yards long or twenty and a fraction laps to the mile. Every one was greatly encouraged by the outcome of the meet. Although most of the track team will be comprised of new men, they will make a good account of themselves.

Jessup made the most points of any individual man, taking 14 in all. Montgomery made 13 1-2, and Eising and Anderson made 10 points each.

The following is a summary of the meet:

25-yd Dash—1, Montgomery; 2, Easing; 3, Jack McPeek, Prep. Time, 3 seconds.

440-yd Dash—1, Jessup; 2, Simbeck; 3, F. Titbury, Time, 57.5.

880-yd Dash—1, Denning, Prep; 2, Becker, Time, 2:16.

Mile Run—1, Price; 2, E. Edmondson; 3, Wight, Time, 5:14-5.

440-yd Pot—1, Frazier, Prep; 2, Montgomery; 3, Bashor.

Running High Jump—1, Driscoll; 2, J. Simbeck; 3, Savannah. Heights, 2 ft.

Kope Climb—1, Jessup; 2, Frazier; 3, F. Titbury, Time, 74.4.

High Dive—1, Easing; 2, Simbeck; 3, Boyeson, Prep. Time, 6 ft. 6 in.

Long Dive—1, Easing; 2, Boysen, Prep.; 3, Price, Time, 13.5 sec.

Kick—1, Montgomery; 2, Anderson, Prep.; 3, Driscoll. J. 8 ft. 61 in.

FOURTH TRIANGULAR DEBATES

Washington Wins Two Victories, Idaho One, Idaho Still Three Points in Lead.

The results of the fourth series of debates in the Triangular Debate League show that Idaho is still in the lead. Thus for Idaho has won 19 points, Washington 16, and Oregon 13. The vote of each judge counts as one point, as does each debate that is won.

Of the three debates this year, Washington won two and Idaho one, while Oregon lost both debates in which she participated. Oregon and Washington debated at Eugene, Idaho and Washington at Seattle, and Idaho and Oregon at Moscow.

The question debated in all three of the contests was "Resolved, That, waving constitutionality, the federal government should impose a progressive income tax upon all incomes above a certain specified amount." Each institution defended the affirmative of the proposition at home and the negative away.

At Seattle the University of Washington was represented by Kenneth Durham, Glenn Hoover and Rex Roodbuck, while the Idaho debaters were Ira Tewedy, Jewett Mathews and Robert Jones. The judges were Judge Hinman H. Hatley, of Seattle.

OLD GUARD ORGANIZES.

Third and Fourth Year Men Form Artillery Lewtachment for Seattle Trip.

Last Saturday afternoon the men of the Junior and Senior classes met in the armory for the purpose of organizing a detachment of light artillery to accompany the battalion on its trip to the Seattle exposition in June. The commandant has already written to the war department asking for two pieces of modern artillery. If these are not granted it is probable that two of the older models of cannoneers similar to the two breech loading guns which the battalion formerly used, will be sent.

This part of the service is considered the most desirable form of drill in the regular service and it is expected that the old guard will enjoy the new line of service. Cannon pulled by horses will be an innovation at Idaho and will be no slight addition to the battle of infantry.

Fully twenty men reported for duty last Saturday and more will probably join in the near future. No regular drills will be held until the cannon arrive, after which time drills will be held about twice a week. A distinctive uniform of olive drab shirts and trousers will probably be adopted with the optional use of breeches.

Officers as follows were elected: Commanding officer with rank of a lieutenant; Warren Shope; adjutant, Clyde Chaffins; Leigh Savidge; gunner, Arthur Thomas, Rollin Smith; color sergeant, corporals, Bert George, Ernest Griner.

Matinee Musical.

The matinee given on Friday the 26th inst. by some of the students of the music department drew as enthusiastic an audience that taxed the seating capacity of Last Hall. The young ladies participating took part in the musical comedy through the ordeals with good grace.

The Schubert Scherzo and the God- dard Waltz were both masterfully played by Gladys Nankervis whose natural ease of manner disguises any nervousness she may have.

The Spanish Caprice "La Morena" by Chopin, played by Missie Kiefer, showed careful study.

Vera Gray had both hands full with "Paw's "Brook" and Jungmann's "La Harpe" but easily pleased her audience by her rendition of them.

"If I Wonder if River the Rose" by Slater, Jessie Samms showed much improvement in voice quality and a great increase in delivery.

Anna Kulhank was much in sympa- thy with the Schumann's Piano Dance which she played very cleverly.

Lucie Roberts closed the program with Mozart's Wife in A flat and Mendel's "Ideal d'Amour." In the first she showed a little nervousness but the beautiful theme of Mendel was played with much feeling and style.

The next two months will be a busy period for the detachment, as quite a number of programs are in preparation.

Professor Moore is missing classes this week on account of a severe attack of Laryngitis. He is conducting her "Our Way" rehearsals during her absence.

PROF. HULME, Idaho's Famous Debate Coach

attir, Judge J. L. Stiles of Tacoma, a former judge for Washington, and Henry Walter McClure, of Seattle, who voted for Idaho.

The context was an interesting but a one-sided one. Idaho had much more of the better of the struggle all the way through. The first Washington speaker devoted most of his time to depicting three evils in the present system of federal taxation. Then, in the last two minutes of his speech he asserted that a federal income tax would cure the evils.

The first Idaho debater at once dis- missed the plea for the cure of the evil. He then proceeded to batter down the affirmative case. Not one single piece of this evidence was touched in any way by the affirmative men.

So unexpected was the assault of the negative that the second affirmative speaker dropped his set speech and devoted all his time to mere assertion. Much of this assertion related to minor details and much was highly arg- umented by fact. The speech with the alternative tax was the negative. All this re- presentative income tax smothered.

It was not a difficult mat- ter for the affirmative to follow in the proceeding by doing that, the assault was continued.

The last speaker for the A was compelled to pay some attention to the practicability of the income tax. This he did by claiming, with the min- imum of proof, that stoppage-at-the- source can be used in this country. A chart full of stubborn statistics on this point confronted him, and he proceed- ed to argue these facts out of existence with a few sly assertions.

The third negative speech was pack- ed full of argument against the income tax. In every particular it was sup- ported by the highest authority.

In the final rebuttal speech the affir- mative leader again indulged in a lot of unproven assertion. And so the debate came to a close.

Many of the Washington students were outspoken in saying that the de- bate should have been awarded to Idaho, and among these were several of Washington's former debaters. Professor Hulme, on his return from Seattle said: "I was proud of our boys. If the debate were to be fought again I would not have a single sen- tence of their speeches changed. I know that our boys would not care to change places with the debaters who were awarded the decision."

The debaters and the coach report and exceedingly pleasant trip, and cordial treatment at the hands of the Washington students.

The Idaho—Oregon contest, held at Moscow resulted in a tie to assure victory for Idaho. John Rock of Idaho opened the debate by a clear well debut we cannot force ourselves to the proper appreciation of a student whose analytical machinery runs with the regularity of a moving picture reel. We do not object to a moving picture show whenever the ordinary circumstances of the food. Home's intellect demands that the cheaper novelties be diluted and preserved in picture form, so we suppose he cannot justly be consoled, but he at least try to remedy this fest, and we think a time when a northwest championship at stake is a good time to begin.

Association Notes.

"Choosing Friends" was the topic for discussion by M. E. A. at last Sunday afternoon. After some opening remarks by Mr. Campbell, the leader, and detailed talks by Messrs. Office and History, the meeting was thrown open for general discussion. Some new and interesting views were presented.

Mrs. Eldridge gave a very interesting and helpful talk at the last meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Etiquette. The speaker of the etiquette of the table, on the street and in the dormitory of our social obligations and the attitude of our young ladies toward their gentleman friends. A short social time followed the service and delicious refreshments were served.

PROFESSOR'S APPEAL

Mr. Murley has been a member of the debate team for several years. His arguments were clear and concise, and he was able to respond effectively to his opponents' points. His speech was well-organized and showed a good understanding of the topic. The judges were impressed by his performance and awarded him a high mark for his efforts.

PAUL CLEMENS, '11, who lead the team which won from Oregon

Clemens closed the affirmative case for "Progressive Government," and his speech was well-organized and easy to follow. He presented his arguments clearly and effectively, and his conclusions were sound. The judges were impressed by his performance and awarded him a high mark for his efforts.

PROPONENTS OF "PROGRESSIVE GOVERNMENT"

The proponents of "Progressive Government" argued that the current system of government was inadequate and needed to be replaced with a new system. They presented a strong case, and the judges were impressed by their ability to present their arguments clearly and effectively.

PRESIDENT'S CLOSING ARGUMENTS

The president then closed the debate, and his speech was well-organized and easy to follow. He presented his arguments clearly and effectively, and his conclusions were sound. The judges were impressed by his performance and awarded him a high mark for his efforts.

THE DECISION

The judges then announced the decision, and the team which won from Oregon was declared the winner. The debate was a close one, and the judges had a difficult time deciding between the two teams. However, they were impressed by the quality of the arguments presented by both teams, and they awarded high marks to both sides. The debate was a success, and the students who participated were proud of their performance.
...With Other Colleges...

The basketball teams of Harvard, Princeton, Michigan, California and Stanford will play in Seattle this summer at the A. Y. P. Exposition.

With a student-body of over sixteen hundred, the Ivy League, the annual junior publication at the U. of W., is going to press with barely six hundred and fifty subscriptions.

The All-Middle West basketball team has been chosen and is composed of one man from Purdue, Illinois, Wisconsin and two from Chicago. Chicago won the championship, distinguishing herself by going through the season without a defeat.

One of the latest innovations to reach the Northwestern college world is the club houses for faculty accomodations. Oregon is among the first to attempt it, and it is receiving enthusiastic support from the faculty members.

As the result of a vote of the student-body taken recently at Whitman, the athletic emblem will not be the same for all departments, but each will have a distinctive design corresponding to the relative importance of the departments.

The first intercollegiate wrestling match to be held in the Northwest was recently won by O. A. C. over W. S. C., the Oregon college taking five of the six bouts.

Cornell has installed a set of apparatus in the armory which is designed for use in teaching the baseball men to slide bases.

Recent amendments to the faculty rules at Whitman relative to "street-furnaces" for the "funnies" have made a pronouced hit with that student-body, and there is a decided slump in the market for chaparees.

The Orange, the annual publication of Oregon, will go to press with a subscription of nine hundred and fifty.

An engineering graduate of the University of Illinois won a milliner's prize for a woman's hat design.

The seniors at the University of Washington have met with considerable opposition in their endeavor to be excused from final examinations.

For the second time in three years the students of the University of Oregon have rejected the graduate manager system. The college sentiment is that the time is not ripe for such a move.

A University of Washington chemistry professor has discovered a theory of plant colors that is entirely different from all previous scientific theories. He bases his synthesis on certain chemical compounds, hitherto unknown, and can produce the natural effects in the laboratory under conditions similar to those which a plant encounters.

May 7th at O. A. C. is to be strictly a military day. Inspection by an officer of the regular army will be followed by competitive drills and in the evening an elaborate Military Ball will be given.

Dr. James Berrill Angell, for 38 years president of the University of Michigan, has tendered his resignation to take effect at the close of the present university year.

Festivities in Kansas recently scored a strong point when the bill before the Legislature to abolish fatesities was killed.

Basketball at the University of Washington has not yet reached a high enough plane for the players to be granted the "Varsity insignia."

An enthusiastic effort is being made at Montana to establish a weekly college paper in the University.

Dean Elliott returned from a trip to South Idaho last Sunday.

Miss Mary Belle Mildrum has gone to the hospital for a week.

Mrs. Chen A. Strong, nee Miss Margaret Henderson, '94, is here visiting her parents before sailing for Alaska.

Dr. and Mrs. Kanage entertained the "Five Hundred" Club on Wednesday evening.
