W.S.C. WINS 2ND THE IDAHO-WHITMAN TRACK MEET

Idaho Wins Annual Meet from Whitman College— Relay Deciding Event

Idaho has never lost a dual meet to the missionaries, but was defeated twice in the triangular. The day was almost ideal for a light breeze which blew down the croquet court. The track, however, was slow as it was not solid covered with a half inch of dust. The best event of the 100 yard dash, promised to be close as Martin and Montgomery had recorded 9.6 seconds. But owing to the slow track and breeze Mrs. McCausland won in the disagreeable time of 10.5. The 220 yard dash was also won by Martin in 21.2-2.5 seconds, which was slow also. The 880 was a pretty event won by Cox of Whitman. He established a Whitman record of beating his own record.

Idaho scored 68 points, while Whitman scored 48 points.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY.

The monthly student assembly occurred last Wednesday. The program was taken up by A. S. U. I. meeting. President Magee called the meeting to order and after the reading of the minutes of the last meeting he turned the chair over to Mr. Matthews. The report of the last meeting was read and approved by Mr. Thomas. He reported that next Thursday has been set aside for the lads to build the lumber mill which had been ordered and will be delivered by that time. Mr. Dutton has kindly consented to be the necessary helper. Mr. Thomas cautioned all students to keep a close watch on the tools and to see that they were returned when not in use. The next business brought up was the matter of work to be done by the A. S. U. I. constitution which was proposed last week but which was not been distributed to student body. They were read and will probably be voted on at the election of officers next Tuesday.

Nominations for A. S. U. I. officers were then opened. There were not by two-thirds of a second. Denning for Idaho ran the best half he has ever run and finished a close second. The shot out was won by Frazier as was also the hammer throw. In the latter event Idaho took all three places. Price ran a good mile. The time was not remarkable as he did not want to lose his own form and out too much at the beginning of the race. Strohecker had some trouble in winning the high jump. In the pole vault he tied Foster for first at eleven feet. Too much credit cannot be given to "Stro" for his work in this event. The Whitman coach said "That man

AN EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Something That Will Interest Everyone, Especially University Students

Perhaps the most important musical program ever given in Moscow will be that rendered next Friday evening, May 14, at the Episcopal church by St. Mark's Choral Society. This society consisting of twenty-five or thirty members has appeared twice before this year and won for itself a reputation for fine work that will stand it in good stead for generations to come. On this occasion the society will give two exquisitely beautiful and thrilling tunes and will be followed by a series of excellent spirituals. The first of these, "The Crucifixion," by Stainer, is so widely known as to need little comment. The story is that of the agony and crucifixion of the Saviour, concluding with his burial upon the cross. The music as befits the theme, is infinitely melodious, sad and appealing. There are two well-known choruses, Processional to Calvary and the Appeal of the Crucified. There are also some very fine choruses, the most important of which will be sung by Mr. Edgerton and Mr. Snow. The second chorus is now, having been produced in New York with great success, for the first time since last Easter season. It is called "The Lord of Life and Love" and was written by J. Edwards. In tune, theme, and treatment it forms a perfect contrast to"The Crucifixion." The story relates the joy and triumph of the risen Lord. The opening chorus is one of the most beautiful in the opera. The concluding chorus has volume, melody, and splendid climax. The special numbers are a mixed quartet, a duet by Mrs. Hodgins and Miss Kierle, and a soprano solo by Miss Bonna, who directs the program.

Carey's orchestra of five pieces, and the organ player by Miss Stockton will accompany in both concerts. This fact will ensure the beauty and harmony of the productions. Every voice in the chorus is a well-trained one, and the practices have been so numerous as to make the singers fully familiar with the music, which is in reality very difficult.

It is certain that never before in Moscow has our city an opportunity attempted music of such high character. It is the object of the society to give the audience a program that will please even critical ears. No one can afford to miss the rendition of these two beautiful cantatas.

The choral society will wear white dresses, gowns, and a platform with a processionary hymn, the handsome new processional crown being designed by General McLaughlin. Denning, Jessup, and the platform in four tiers has been erected for choir and orchestra so that the audience may have every advantage in seeing and hearing the choir.

The personnel of St. Mark's Choral Society is as follows: Soprano—Mrs. Roland Hodgins, Mrs. Wm. Armstrong; Alto—Mrs. Andrew Simmons; Tenor—Mr. McCausland; Bass—Mrs. Redway, Miss McGregson, Miss Backus. Altos—Mrs. Wm. Mankepper, Miss W. Webster, Miss Stotler, Mrs. Metz, Mrs. Houghton, Miss McCausland.

they asked to be dismissed a week early, and that was granted. They have received all that they have asked for, and more than they could reasonably have expected. Yet they are not satisfied. Many say that they will be upset and move on.

Will the members of the legislature think of the University and especially of the cadets if, after all, there is no trip to Seattle and the, money appropriated has to go back to the state? Will it place them in a mood to grant favors to the University in the future? We think not. We believe that the proposed encampment is a chance in a lifetime and will, in reality, be worth more to the average student than a semester in college.

In this opinion we are sustained by many of the seniors who have announced their intention of going as privates. In the second place, we believe that, after all that has been done, it is the duty of every cadet to go. They have done well so far, i.e., they have asked for everything they could think of and it has been granted.

Now is it up to them to do something and will they make good? Are they true to Idaho and do they know what honors mean? We expect an encampment at Seattle—just ninety per cent of the cadets to go. We have confidence in the University battalion.

SOPHOMORE NUMBER

The next issue of the Argonaut, May 19, will be entirely in the hands of the editor of the Sophomore class in English composition; and in the next issue, May 26, will be edited solely by the B. A. division of the same class. These issues will be devoted to the respective departments

here in the University and will probably be twice the size of the regular paper. Besides showing what these classes can do, they are expected to be important in advertising the University.

Everyone should order their copies and order them early. Mr. James Gough was the unanimous choice of the engineers for editor-in-chief and

Mr. Loren Brown was appointed associate editor.

Idaho's New Coach

The appointment of Mr. John S.

Grogan as athletic coach in the University has just been announced. Owing to the fact that Mr. Middleton was unable to continue his services in the department of athletics this new appotment is timely, and Mr. Grogan will be in charge of three departments of athletics. The new coach is a graduate of Knox College and from that time to 1901 was a member of the Knox football and baseball teams,

when the football team was at its best, defeating all the secondary teams of the Middle West and holding such teams as Nebraska, Wisconsin and Chicago to almost every scamp.

For several years Mr. Grogan has had complete charge of athletics in the North Dakota College of Agriculture, Fargo, and under his direction the athletic teams of that institution have defeated college teams in Minnesota and North Dakota, with the exception of the University of Minnesota. Thus

Mr. Grogan comes with five years a most excellent character and popular with the students, faculty and general public, and enthusiastic in his work. He thoroughly understands all the various branches of college athletics. Idaho should have bright chances for the 1909-1910 season with the new coach in charge.

Notice.

On account of the military inspection, the regular exercises of the University will be suspended at 10:30, Wednesday, May 12th.

On account of Labor Day, the regular exercises of the University will be suspended for Thursday, May 13th.

Mrs. Eldridge entertained her bible class at dinner last Friday night.

Mrs. Williams, niece Nora Maurer, '10, was the special guest speaker.

This issue of the Argonaut is in the hands of the associate editor.

Bessie Perkins left Tuesday for her home in Lewiston to make the most of a short vacation.

Mr. Clark is spending a few days at Richardson Hall with his daughter, Ollie, '12.

Mr. W. Keene, of Kendrick, was the guest of Louise Jessup a few days last Saturday.

Henry Smith, '10, accompanied his father to Chicago, yesterday, where the latter will undergo an operation for cancer.

Elise Larson, '11, received a visit from her mother and sister last Saturday and Sunday.

Remember the Fourth Annual Third Year Blow-out to be given Friday, May 14, at Eggen's Hall.

Ira Cleveland, '12, who has been visiting around the U. for several days, left for Lewiston last Tuesday.

Fred Lukens and Norman Adkinson have both been re-appointed as assistant principals in Grandville and East High School.

Prof. Philip Steare who has been visiting schools in Northern and Eastern Idaho returned to Moscow Monday morning.

We learn that Merrill A. Vothen, '07, has been re-elected to the instructing staff at the Michigan Agriculture College at an increase in his pay tally. Idaho sneads are making good every winter.

H. F. Exon has just entered his new studio, which has been enlarged, making it one of the largest and most convenient in the Northwest, especially equipped to do the highest grade of work on commencement orders.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting last Thursday was led in an interesting manner by Miss Florence Shinn, "The subject of the meeting, "What It Costs," was illustrated by this lives of two of the greatest women Americans, Fanny Crosby and Frances Willard, sketches of whose lives were given.

The Alumni rally planned for this year is working out very nicely. All the committees are organized and at work. A large and attractive invitation has been issued to each member, and the largest rally in the history of the institution is anticipated. These in charge of the arrangements are very enthusiastic over the results obtained so far.

Seniors to Please.

At the meeting of the Senior class Friday afternoon it was decided definite lines are to be fixed with the '09 class with a paper. A petition having been duly made to the faculty for permission to lease German Lea and Rods and Bridges in a slumber one day, and said pleas having been granted, the class has promised to be the best available place to foliose because the vicinity thereabouts will permit of track meets, base ball games, etc.

The class took a decided stand in favor of holding this event as a reality and has the consent of the majority of the lower classes. Inasmuch as this is to be the last real gathering of the class it is thought advisable to make this limitation.

Mrs. James A. MacLean and Priscilla Junior will act as chaperon.

First Senior Dinner at U. of I.

The first Senior dinner was given May 6th in Dom. Sci. Department at 1:30 by Lilian Clarke and Lotta Menneker.

The banquet was worked out according to a dietary standard by Prof. Awarth. Each girl was allowed $1.50 as a compensation including food and laundering of linen but not flowers and place cards.

The menu was as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fruit Cocktail</th>
<th>Chicken and Apple Jelly</th>
<th>Puff Potatoes in Ramekins</th>
<th>Buttered Asparagus</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Hot Rolls</td>
<td>Redfishes</td>

<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Cream Fruit Loaf</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr> </tbody>

The color scheme was carried out very prettily in pink and white. A highly polished table was used, with linen doilies. The centerpiece was a large bouquet of pink carnations. The coming weather was foretold, and lighted by candles with pink shades. The color scheme was carried out in the menu by a dish of different garnishings.

The guests were Miss Myron, Mrs. Menneker, Mrs. Burton, L. French, Mrs. Rubbedow, Miss Caldwell, Mrs. Kielur, Misses Menneker and Clarke were the hostesses. The banquet was prepared by Senior Cookery class and served by Misses Charlotte Tuttle and Bos Lee.

A sample of the dietary worked out from the above menu is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Meat</th>
<th>Quantity</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Beef</td>
<td>20 pounds</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Carrots</td>
<td>4 dozen</td>
</tr>

News of the Battlefield.

Although the weather has not been most conducive, work on the two hundred and three hundred yard targets has been started. No steeling scores have been made although Latin teams Smith act, the proper column as commanding officer, by scoring 47 out of a possible 50 at two hundred yards. Insular work will not be taken up again this spring.

Captain Hurst of the entire staff will inspect the Battalion today and the berg hill anything like they have been "hillring" he will certainly be favorably impressed with Idaho. The chief up a splendid apparatus and they execute the maneuvers like regulars. We think they will easily carry off the honors at Seattle.

Captains Mitchell of W. S. C. is trying to arrange for a rifle contest at the Calgary, Alberta, at which the different clubs of the Northwest may compete for the National championship, instead of going to Seagrove. He is staunchly supported by all the interested interests.

A football emblem is granted to Oregon by the yell leader for each football season.

"Service After Education" was the topic under discussion at the regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Sunday afternoon.

The place of the learned man in society was first pointed out, after which the various calluses were taken up. The present sentiment of the meeting was that any work which is honorable and tends to aid mankind is worthy of a Christian man whether digging in the ditch or teaching in a college. And, further, every man when he has once chosen his profession, should guard it against deterioration and should give his best service towards upbuilding it.

New Rules Adopted.

That for the delay in registration of any matriculated student beyond the regular regulation period a fee of $2 be charged.

That for any special examination due to any cause except sickness a fee of $1 be charged but that the maximum charge to any student for the irregular examinations in any one semester shall be $3. This does not include the regular condition examinations. That this fee be added to the maintenance fund.

In support of this action it may be stated that the following universities make charges for delayed registration: Minnesota and Iowa charge 25 cents per day for each day delayed; Illinois and Wisconsin charge 81; California $2, Nebraska $3 and Michigan and Harvard $5 for any delay.

The Senior Play.

Unless some decided change occurs immediately in the character of the rest of the season play, the College will not prove to be the greatest draw of the commencement week at the class hoped to make it. Miss Moore who has entire charge of the presentation, reports that progress is extremely slow and the indifference of some participants very discouraging. So far the most conscientious work and the best interpretations of parts have been contributed by Miss Devere, Miss Mathews and Mr. Goodwin, Miss Curtis and Mr. George have also been faithful in attending to interpret their parts, Miss Corn, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Gerlough and Mr. Peebles have caught the spirit of their roles and have evidently tried to present them well, but at present they have only imperfectly interpreted them. Among those who have up to tais time shown no success in getting hold of lines of interpretation are Mr. Pauls, Mr. Vasco, Mr. Magen, Mr. Johnson, and Miss Kiefer, Mr. Kiefer, Mr. Magen, and Miss Johnson have been conspicuously guilty in absenting themselves from their work.

It is felt that every member of the cast should have pride enough in the class play to make every effort, sacrifice, etc., if need be, in order to insure the success of an undertaking that is as herculean as it commendable.

The English Department is held responsible for the adequate presentation of the drama, and it does not feel with failure on account the indifference and lack of members of the cast.

Seniors at Whitman wear the cap and gown to one chapel service each week.

The Board of Control at Washington has made it easier for an athlete to win his "Willie" by lowering the requirements in football, baseball and track.

The date for Commencement at the University of Washington has been changed from June 2nd to May 31st, to avoid the confusion of the opening of the fair.

Strolling, during the spring vacation, was popular at Michigan this spring. One group walked to Chicago, another to Niagara Falls, and a third to Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

An apartment house is being built near the Missouri campus. A stock company of students will run a cafe on the first floor.

Kappa Sigma of the University of Washington has won the cup for interfraternity championship in baseball.

A glee and mandolin club composed of about 30 members, from the University of California, will soon begin a tour of Chicago. They will give entertainments at points in Arizona, New Mexico, Kansas and Missouri.

A petition signed by all the seniors at Whitman asking for exemption from the final examination, was turned down by the faculty.

The annual debate between Washington State College and Whitman will not take place this year.

The Whitman College Glee Club recently returned from a successful tour in the Willamette Valley.

A tug of war across Geyser Basin at the University of Washington is likely to replace the annual cake rush between the freshmen and sophomore classes.

The seniors of the University of Colorado are embarrassed with a surplus in the treasury. A banquet will be given to deplete the funds.

The U. of U. Chronicle this week has devoted over half of its front page to a write up of their famous coach who has decided to leave Utah for Nebraska. Among other inducements the salary offered by Nebraska is just three times that paid by Utah. As a last resort the Mormons tried to induce Mr. Macdougal to refuse to live in Nebraska.

The students of Washington are advocating the raising of the registration fee for the first semester from 83 to 85. This fee to secure for the students the Daily Wave and admission to all S. U. W. athletic activities including football, track, regattas, and also debates and oratorical contests.

Willing Material.

A cordial of tailings containing about two per cent of lead, and two tons of a very grade of zinc ore from the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines, were recently put into the ore bins in the metallurgy building. A Calows settling tank is being installed, and the mill will be in full operation for one or more days, before June.

Preps Defeat Lewiston.

The Preparatory students of the University defeated the Lewiston High School at base ball last Wednesday by a score of 7 to 6. It was a good game interesting from start to finish. Robinson of Idaho is establishing an enviable record as a pitcher.

Professor of Law School.

Mr. John F. MacLane, who has recently been appointed professor of the Idaho Law School is a graduate of Yale and later of the Minnesota Law School. He practiced law in St. Paul 1902-5, after which he was in the editorial department of the West Publishing Company for about three years. Since then he has been practicing in Idaho. Being code commissioner editor under appointment of the supreme court he compiled the present code of Idaho.

He is now assistant attorney general. The regents are to be congratulated in securing an able man for this important position.

Dandies.

The work of killing dandies is now being carried out in a practical manner and what we believe it will prove to be a very satisfactory manner. A number of students are digging them up with hoes. This is slow work but a dandie only has to be dug up once and disappearance will surely prevail.

On Howard, ’09, left for his home in Lewiston yesterday for a short visit.
