FOOTBALL AT IDAHO

With Only Four of the Old Team Back, the Prospects Are Not Bright.

Coach Grogan and Captain Stokely realized that in order for Idaho to put out a good football team this fall, they must work harder than they have ever worked before. Not only that, but each man on the team, or who expects to be on the team, must work hard and persistently and train conscientiously, or he will see the silver and gold go down in defeat.

We have four of last year's team. Captain Stokely will hold down his old position as right guard, Landstrom will play right half, Jewell is back for center, and Thornton for fullback.

These four men are in excellent condition and are almost a team in themselves. Besides these there is a report that George Armstrong and Jay Jellick will both return to the university, which will mean a right end and a left tackle, whom our rivals have met before. In addition to the first-team men of last year, we have Williams, Montgomery, Cook, Cooper, Haynes and King, who nudged last year. Williams is trying for tackle, and will undoubtedly win his "1" this year. Montgomery, Idaho's famous sprinter, will probably not be out until next week, but he is in good condition, and much is expected of him. Cook is out for center or guard, Cooper for center, Haynes for guard, and Edwards for right half. This is all of our old material. Our new material, while some of them are very promising, are uncertain. They are new in our line and to the coach, and should have been here in training a month ago.

Hillman, who played left half for Blair Business college last year, is certain to occupy the position here. Shankoff, for end, is a fast man and should make good. The Lewis brothers at tackle and left end are making a splendid showing. Graves is in his acting and should make a good tackle. These are four men out for quarter, Curtis, Terkens, Denning and Dipple. Our quarter will have to work for his place, as we are sure to have a good one. Farner for end, Buffalo for halfback, Carr for guard, and Gray and Stein for fullback, are all making a show at least twice as many as there are. It is not three weeks until we meet the University of Puget Sound, October 16, and then a week later we play Whitman. Less than a month to get ready for what will probably be the hardest game of the season.

Whittam has nine of her old men back and expected to put out a winning team. From then on there is just a breathing space between games. We play -Washington on October 30, Gonzaga on November 5, Washington State college on November 6, and Oregon on November 13. There will be no game with Utah this year.

In setting forth these statements we hope that we shall not be considered pessimistic, for we are not. We see the conditions as they are and publish them, but we are not discouraged. We would not have our rivals think that we are afraid. We have a small squad, most of the men are new, and practice was begun late. Still they are Idaho men, thoroughly imbued with Idaho spirit, which has never yet been beaten. Not only the university, but the entire state will wish these boys with breathless interest. We expect Idaho to overcome all these difficulties. We expect her to win.

Letter of Sympathy.

Moscow, Idaho, Sept. 29, 1909.

Mr. Ernest Jewell, Laygrly, Wash.

Dear Sir: Having heard of the sad event which befell your sister, we the class of 1912, wish to express to you our heartfelt sympathy. Signed: Fletcher McIntosh, Jesse Fuller, W. E. Chamberlain, James X, Koe, C. A. Stokely, A. Rick's, C. H. Buffington, Laster Hoobler, Harry Bond, Allan Stein, Ray V. Snapp, R. D. Leeper.

The Registrar's Books Show That Three New Residents Are Coming in Faster Than Ever Before.

Some people have set Idaho's records alight, for there is no school in the state always was. We are at first doubt of what any such school could do. We find, however, that up to the present time over one third of the total registrations has been by new students, two-thirds of these being college students. The harvest season, which is just closing, is holding a large number of applicants, and with the present outlook we feel confident that before another month that seemingly wild prophecy will be fulfilled.

The main part of our administrative building is finished and all of it occupied except the library, which is in a few weeks (as soon as the books are received). This leaves Morrill hall for the entire last month in which, from present indications, will soon be one of our strongest courses. The gymnasium is used for athletics and drill. The only class room there I saw was no longer occupied by Lient Smith and Dr. Kanaga.

The central heating plant will be in operation before cold weather sets in, and there will be no more freezing in the library. The Preps are safely housed on the third floor of the new administration building. It is a hard climb for some of the little ones, but some of them need the exercise.

ALONG THE PRACTICES ARE BRIGHT.

Our faculty has been much improved, and everything points to a very successful school year.

College Orchestra Organized.

An orchestra composed entirely of college students has been organized. The members of the orchestra, although not exactly professional musicians, are men of wide experience in the music line. It is their intention not only to play for assemblies, but to play for all college dances, banquets and receptions.

The orchestra is here for business, and with that end in view the two or three members have elected J. Russell Fox as business manager and director. Other officers will be elected later. At present the orchestra consists of two violins, two cornets, piano, trombone and drums.

Their initial appearance will be at assembly on Wednesday, All the students should boost this college organization and dance committee, etc., should engage them to play for their dances.

The Staff Social.
Last Friday evening the first social event of the college year was held in the form of a stamp party under the supervision of the Y. M. C. A. "Old Clothes and New Puddles." and the large delegation of college men came simply proved, to the discontent of all those arriving late who were compelled to run a gauntlet in much the same fash-
on as white men were obliged to do when captured by Indians in bygone days.
The gathering was a complete suc-
sess in every way and the Y. M. C. A.
officials are to be complimented on the wise manner in which they arranged
the program of entertainment, the morel idea of luncheon, and in fact upon every feature of the college fellowship
and good sport which they are promo-ing.
The social opened with a short address of welcome by President Mac-Lenn in which he welcomed the new students to the college activities, and extended a wish to them that they have a prosperous college year. He next spoke of the duties the college man
ow owes himself and his university,
and concluded his address with a proposal to form a club to be known as the "Idaho Fellowship," with a unique set of bylaws.
The remainder of the evening was spent in practicing the college yells and songs, and in participating in an amusing contest between the different classes, in which the Sophomores proved the victors.
A luncheon consisting of "College Island"
sandwiches and coffee was served,
and the parts broke up about 10:30, everyone feeling too well
fed to become more thoroughly acquainted with his fellow classmen, and that college fellows are of a most congenial kind.

Last Saturday afternoon and evening, the husband members of the faculty entertained the "freshmen" faculty in a very interesting manner. They went out to the hills in wagons and on horseback. Thereafter, the "freshmen" had been duly blessed, being able to rush and wrestle, a popular ball-game was arranged for. Rev. L. I. Mason and Miss Maynard led the two opposing teams, one of the rules being that only ladies could carry the ball. After the chases was organized and supper was cooked over a camp fire. Even the "freshmen" seemed well pleased with the trip.

THE IDAHO DYE WORKS
MOSCOW, IDAHO

We have been in Moscow one year this month and have made good, for our business has increased 150 percent in the last six months. Moscow is 25 years old; in the last 16 years there has been 21 Cleaning, Dyeing and Pressing Places opened up and none of them has ever lasted 12 months.

But there doesn't seem to be any likelihood of our leaving for want of business, for our business is increasing each month.

THE IDAHO DYE WORKS does all kinds of Dying, French Dry Cleaning, Up-to-Date Pressing, and repairs everything. We clean 4-year Velvet, Silk Curtains, Sofa Pillows, Ribbons, Neck Ties, Silk or Kid Gloves, Block and Re-trim Hats—in fact everything that men, women and children wear, except shoes.

If it is made of cloth, send it to the Idaho Dye Works. They can improve its look.

Marriages.

During the summer Professor Evan T. Sage preparyory instructor in classical languages was married to Miss Shanks, sister of L. P. Shanks, former French instructor. The Argument joins sage "the" sweet home in wishing them much happiness.

Miss Jessie Rowton, '08, and Bayard Morow, '06, were married on June 15th at the home of the bride's parents in Kaysville. They are now living in Gem, Idaho, where Mr. Morow is assayer of the Hecla Mine.

William E. Curtis.

In a recent number of the Chicago Record-Herald Mr. William E. Curtis had a very complimentary article on Idaho, mentioning especially the university. This shows that Idaho is being recog- nized in its true light as one of the best institutions of learning in the country.

Freshman Class Meeting.

On Friday afternoon, September 25, the Freshmen held a class meeting. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mr. James Wight; Vice President, Mr. Parker; Secretary, Margaret Keener; Treasurer, Nathaniel Carr; Sergeant-at-Arms, Franklin Edwin. Kiefer Denning was elected class representative to the Athletic Board.

Beta Sigma Entertainers.

Tuesday evening, September 21, a very pretty dancing party was given by the Beta Sigma girls in honor of Misses Margaret Stolte and Ruth Annette of Boise. All guests report a most enjoyable time.

"I'mba" Once Again.

At the spontaneous football rally on the bleachers one night last fall, the assembled multitude with uncovered heads sang "I'mba" for what was supposed to be the last time on a Californian grandstand. But it seems that the famous old song will not die down and the question of reviving it is one that is now agitating many of the student body.

When the song was officially declared dead last fall, the action called forth considerable comment, but at the moment popular opinion seemed to be against the song. Those responsible for the movement to abandon "I'mba" were accosted by the fact that the piece is famous as the battle song of a great university and that the chances were better for California to find a great song of her own if the Yale favorite were out of the way. The supporters of "I'mba" contended that the music was not written at Yale originally, but that it is a Hawaiian air and as such we are welcome to use it. They further held that it has for years been known on this coast as a Californian song, and out of all our University songs, it is the one that the alumni know best. Many Yale men—men on our faculty who have expressed themselves as opposed to the discontinuance of the song and in favor of its revival.—The Daily Californian.

Socks Give Him Away.

Deputy Sheriff C. C. Brown secured another confession from Gordon Estes, a few days ago, having first gotten the confession of the old lady who had mended the young burglar's socks. The lad admits that the socks are his, and that the shoes he had swiped from the Boston Store. These shoes he had left in Bunyan & Bull's shoe store the day before robbing it at night. Sheriff Robbins found where the shoes came from and who the socks had been darned for. Young Estes also confessed to having stolen a lot of revolvers from the Idaho Hardware Co. and from Swann & Co.'s grocery store the tidy sum of $25.00. Deputy Brown pushed the confession a little harder and then he told how he had been a pretty fair burglar at Nezperce, but was compelled to quit the city because it gave him too hot for him. His stepfather settled one case by paying a hundred dollars. Gordon C. Estes will be taken before Judge Steele at Lewiston next Monday for sentence.

Christian Church Celebration.

The one hundred anniversary of "I'mba" Christian Church in America was celebrated at Culdesac Sunday evening by an appropriate program in which a large number of visiting ministers participated and which was attended by a large number of people of California and the surrounding country. An appropriate program, which included a number of addresses was rendered. The following are the subjects and the names of the persons making the addresses: "The present need of our plans," by Attorney John Green; "Redemption versus reformation," by Rev. J. R. Lister, of Sand Point; "Our plan and the communion," by Rev. E. R. Black, of Moscow; "What we are," by Rev. G. H. Ellis, of Nezperce.
