The kind seems to have settled with the Vandals definitely. The reason is Portland was a hard struggle for each team, but added evidence to the belief that the Ducks go up in the standings. The football here is getting well which is a good thing. The game at Oregon will be a hard struggle, but the fans expect a good game.

Is it not unusual to see football teams, cardboard cutouts of players, a game day to see a game? It is unbelievable that such a thing could happen without the teams. Oregon and California will probably see the same kind of a game as the Oregon teams played last Saturday.

The University of Oregon滾半 over the University of Southern California. The Trojans had no luck in this game but the fans from Southern California are in the East on Saturday.

The first two teams are just about even with the football season over. The first two years of the season have been real even.

The Oregon and California games will be played in the Rose Bowl. The fans will have a hard time getting seats, but the football will be real even.

Julia Claussen Delights Crowd

Carries Audience Spellbound Thru Exclusive Concert, Presents German Music to All Others.

CARLSTADT — The auditorium at Carlstadt High School last Tuesday was filled to capacity as the Carlstadt community welcomed for the first time to its stage Mrs. Julia Claussen, former head of the German department at Carlstadt High for 25 years. A native of Germany, Mrs. Claussen, who received her training at the University of Munich, was presented with a bouquet of flowers on entering the auditorium, which was festooned with American flags. "I am very pleased to be back in Carlstadt," said Mrs. Claussen, "and I wish all the students could have enjoyed the concert."

The program consisted of groups of songs, French, German, and English, presented by students of the high school. Mrs. Claussen spoke of the music of this group and introduced the songs, which were sung by the choir and the glee club, and were accompanied by the orchestra. The program concluded with songs sung by the choir and the glee club, and were accompanied by the orchestra.

Julia Claussen plans another beautiful group of her favorite songs for the tomorrow evening, which will be given in the auditorium.
