CO-ED BASKET BALL
NOW IN FULL SWING

Girls basketball started in full swing this week, with the beginning of the season. All league numbers will be played off this week, it promises will then begin the interscouse games. Worth mentioning is being the excellence of the girls for the home games, those girls who have played on home teams are eligible for membership on the class teams.

Gladiators are being grouped together to form teams, enough not enough girls are turning out for the teams. Two games were played on Tuesday in the gymnasium, and more will be played on Thursday evening. Practices will also begin for interscouse contests. After two weeks of still qualifying, the team will be ready. Miss Pauline Foss, director of girls' basketball, is in charge of all games.
