IDAHO VANDALS TRIM CONFERENCE LEADERS

Macmillan's Men Take Washington

Hoskins Tame 40 to 26 Defeat, Thereby Forming a Comparison Between a 14 Point Victory and One Point Win—Visitors Outplayed, Outgunned, Outplayed.

Conference Rough and Fast

Combination Proves Effective With Keane at Guard, Edwards at Forward

WASHINGTON—The visit of Macmillan's Men, a team of veterans to the University of Idaho basketball, was expected to be rough and fast, but the visitors were overwhelmed by a combination of fast play and effective teamwork. The game was played on the University of Washington campus, and the visitors were outplayed, outgunned, and outplayed.

In a game that lasted for three quarters, the visitors were forced to rely on their veteran players to keep the game close. However, the home team's combination of fast play and effective teamwork proved too much for the visitors, who were eventually defeated by a score of 40 to 26.

Conference Happening

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The conference season is heating up as the teams prepare for their upcoming games. With the season in full swing, coaches are putting their teams through rigorous practices to prepare them for the upcoming season.

The conference is not lacking in excitement, as teams are vying for the top spot. The competition is fierce, and every game is critical in determining the conference champions.

IDAHO-GEORGETOWN SKELETONS

C. C. Gray, president of the University of Idaho college of agriculture, in the class of 1936, has been appointed field instructor in agricultural economics for the University of Idaho, according to the United States Veterans' Bureau.

Gray will be stationed at the University of Idaho's Agricultural Economics Department, and his appointment will be effective on November 1.

He will be assigned to work with the United States Veterans' Bureau, and will be responsible for the training of veterans in agricultural economics. Gray was a member of the 1918 World War I Army Training Corps, and has been involved in agricultural research and education throughout his career.

He will be working closely with the United States Veterans' Bureau to ensure that the training of veterans is effective and up-to-date.

Seating Problem in Gym is Serious

Lin Starts Forming at Six O'clock—Huge Crowd Faces Weather and Snow Two Weeks to Obtain Seats for Game—Reservation Sell Out

Not Even Standing Room

Spectacles Hang From Railers to Willcox Contest

3,500 Attend

Two hearts before the Washington-Idaho game, a huge crowd was waiting to see the game. The arena was packed, and the visitors were faced with the task of finding a seat. The gymnasium was filled to capacity, and some fans were forced to stand on the balcony to get a view of the game.

The game was a hard-fought battle, and both teams played with great determination. In the end, the home team emerged victorious, and the crowd cheered them on with enthusiasm.

Many developments in the game are expected to be discussed in the coming weeks, as the teams prepare for their upcoming games. The conference is in full swing, and the competition is fierce.

Mrs. Sargent To Address Assembly

On Existing Conditions in Europe

A. J. U. President Hurdle

Made Possible by Ads

PROVISION MADE FOR BASKETBALL PLAN

Three New Departments Created—Argonist Published Twice a Week

The exact number of conditions in Europe is unknown, but the most recent report suggests that the situation is complex and ever-changing. Mrs. Sargent will address the assembly on the existing conditions in Europe, and the audience is expected to gain a deeper understanding of the current situation.

Many developments in the game are expected to be discussed in the coming weeks, as the teams prepare for their upcoming games. The conference is in full swing, and the competition is fierce.

COED BASKET STARS TO PLAY CLASS GAMES

Young Idaho basketball team will have opportunity to display their skills against older class games, according to announcement of Idaho's Women's Coed Basketball Club.

The women's coed basketball team will be playing against older class games, and the announcement suggests that this will be a great opportunity for the younger team to gain valuable experience.

The game will be played on the university campus, and the women's team will be looking to display their skills against the older class games.

Spring Vacation Dates

March 31 to April 9

A ten-day spring vacation, including Sunday, will be enjoyed by all students at the University of Idaho. The combined vacation period is expected to provide a much-needed break from the academic year.

The break will be a welcome respite for students, who have been working hard throughout the semester. The vacation period will be a much-needed opportunity for students to relax and recharge before the start of the next semester.
The University Argonaut

Member of The Pacific Intermountain Press Association, connecting all the most important universities and colleges in the Pacific territory. Published by the Associated Students of the University of Idaho each weekday afternoon. Please

During working days, 25c each copy; evening, 10c each copy. Published every other week, 90c a year; also subscriptions outside of the United States and Canada, 1.00 a year. Issued by the Associated Students of the University of Idaho, 814 North Sage, Moscow, Idaho. Published under the auspices of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho. For new correspondence address: Editor.

For sale at the postoffice, Moscow, Idaho, second class mail.

Robert L. Bolles, Managing Editor

For the Associated Students of the University of Idaho.

Published under the auspices of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho.

MUSICAL APPRECIATION

No man is a cabin man or women, if he is a rolling stone unless he be an au courant person on matinées and afternoon teas. The musical appreciation is at its height. The Associated Students of the University of Idaho have, therefore, started a concert series. The music appreciation committee under the guidance of the Associated Students will be taken care of by the Associated Students. The next concert is to be held on Thursday, May 9th, in the cabaret of the Associated Students.

SLIGHTLY WANGRED

The Associated Students are planning a concert in the cabaret. The concert will be held on Thursday, May 9th, at 8:00 p.m. The Associated Students will provide music appreciation.

WARNING

The home of good clothes for men and women.

If it’s to be made of wood, place your order with us.

The MOCABINET SHOP

Our modern woodworking machinery insures accurate as well as speedy work. As much work as needed.

MOSCOW CABINET SHOP

407 So. Washington Street

Aerodynamic designs brought to you by the Associated Students of the University of Idaho.

FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN WHO CARE - LET MINI SHOEIMPROVE YOUR APPEARANCE!

DR. SCHELL'S

FOOT CARE APPLIANCES

Buster Brown Shoe Store

PURITY CREAMERY

Manufacturers of Dairy Products

Telephone 163

West Sixth Street

Moscow, Idaho
Dan Cupid Sends Valentine Letter; Argonaut Cub Registers Big Scoop

The Argonaut cub has made a mark of late—the most recent of several. In the first place, he was the owner of the top copy of the Argonaut for Wednesday, the advance copy of which was not found until late that night.

This morning's mail contained letters from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Cupid, all of which were addressed to the Argonaut cub. In the most delightful letter, they told him that the Argonaut had made a name for itself in the advertising business and that the Argonaut was now a part of the Austin News Company.

Then he went on to say how proud he was that his son had managed to get the Argonaut for the second time in a month and how much he enjoyed the experience. He said he was sure his son would be a success in the business and that he looked forward to seeing him grow up.

Dear Cupid,

Your letter was just the spur I needed to keep me going. I'm really beginning to feel that I'm doing something worthwhile. I'm not sure if it's the excitement of the business or the thrill of seeing you, but I'm definitely working hard on my letters and trying to make them as good as possible. I hope you're happy with what I'm doing.

Love,

—Cupid

REGENTS ACCEPT PLAN FOR BOOKLET ON MANAGED CARE

Kappett, From New Press—Torealize the vision of the University of Wisconsin, the following plan has been accepted by the University of Wisconsin Board of Regents:

1. The plan for the university will be published in two parts: the first part will be a general statement of policy, and the second part will be a detailed statement of procedure.

2. The plan will be reviewed and revised every three years.

3. The plan will be made available to all students, faculty, and staff.

4. The plan will be published annually in the University of Wisconsin Bulletin.

Subscription Drive for Booklet on Managed Care

The University of Wisconsin has announced a subscription drive for a booklet on managed care. The booklet will be published by the University of Wisconsin Press and will be available for $5.00 to members of the University community.

Negotiate for Debate

The University of Wisconsin will be negotiating with the University of Minnesota for a debate on the question of centralization versus decentralization of university administration.

Spanish Club Presents Unique Program

The Spanish club will present a program on Spanish literature and music on February 15th. The program will be held in the University Union and will feature readings from famous Spanish authors and performances by Spanish musicians.

Military Ball?

Dinner Suits for Men

Everything that is new and correct in men's apparel for evening wear. Order evening clothes now.—Rentals.

Paul B. Gibbons, 26, a star halfback on the Wisconsin football team, was shot and killed by a campus policeman after a minor fracas. The incident occurred on the University of Wisconsin campus, and the police officer, who was killed, was later identified as Edward L. Johnson, 25, of Milwaukee. The football team was playing a game at the time. The cause of death was stabbing. The victim was a junior at the University of Wisconsin.

Military Ball?

The Argonaut has been invited to attend the military ball at the University of Wisconsin. The ball will be held on Saturday night, February 20th, at the University Club. The Argonaut will be represented by a delegation of 25 students.

The delegation will consist of the Argonaut editor, the Argonaut business manager, and 23 other students, including the Argonaut's staff writer, the Argonaut's art editor, and the Argonaut's sports editor.

The Argonaut will be featured in a special section of the Wisconsin Daily, which will be published on Friday, February 19th. The section will include a special report on the military ball and a special section on the Argonaut's activities at the University of Wisconsin.

The Argonaut will also publish a special edition on Saturday night, which will include a special report on the military ball and a special section on the Argonaut's activities at the University of Wisconsin.

The Argonaut will also publish a special edition on Saturday night, which will include a special report on the military ball and a special section on the Argonaut's activities at the University of Wisconsin.