YOU BOISE SPECIALISTS:

When the long train pulls out Thursday afternoon and all the Idaho students take the dust of college from their feet, let each one forget that he is still an Idaho student and that as such he is given the reputation and her honor while on the trip south.

Upon his every act and every word depend the kind of Idaho people will receive of his university. On the train, in towns along the way, in Boise, if he is a true Idaho student, he will so conduct himself as to reflect nothing but credit upon his alma mater. He is the pride of Idaho; he is the world to him; and he will tell the world about it.

GOOD WORK, STUDENTS!

Admirably exemplifying, to the latter, Idaho's grand old song, "Idaho, Idaho, Idaho," the student body followed its leaders with a remarkable display of teamwork at the game Friday. Acting as one man, it moved in support to the mighty Vandals who carried the silver and gold to a glorious

The airship between halves was well executed and made a good impression upon the visitors. Despite the piercing cold and the lingering interest in the later stages of the game, practically every Idaho student remained at the game.

In short, Idaho students certainly did themselves proud on that memorable day and deserve the commendation of faculty and townsfolk.

IDAHO MEASURES UP

Sportsmanship, that all-important, indispensable ingredient of Idaho spirit was present in full measure at the game on Saturday. The Bulldogs appeared first on the field and were given a romping welcome by Idaho students, and on every occasioning a scene when a Gonzaga player was hurt or replaced he received a cheer.

It is always easier to cheer a rival team which is losing; but Idaho spirit demands this tribute to the opposing team regardless of the fortunes of battle, and Idaho will not fail to measure up to it.

SOCIETY

The past week-end had been a most exhilarating experience for the members of the Idaho state section of the National Women's Fraternal Order of Police. The department meeting was held at the hotel in town, the members coming from various parts of the state on the last Sunday of the month.

On Monday evening the ladies held a social at the home of Miss E. H. L. B. in the church. The event was enjoyed by all.

The following is the schedule for the coming week:

- Monday, December 11: Meeting at the hotel.
- Tuesday, December 12: Dinner at the hotel.
- Wednesday, December 13: Meeting at the home of Miss E. H. L. B.

Idaho's players in this game are expected to show up and beat our great team and probably take the regular season title. The strength of the Idaho basketball team is its defense. The Vandals have scored fewer points than any other team in the conference and are ranked second in the nation in scoring defense. The game will be played at the Crandell Arena and is expected to be attended by many people, both fans and students. The game is scheduled to start at 7:30 PM.

When Henri rang the bell

If any bell was ever heard around the world, Joseph Henri rang it in his famous experiment at the Albany Academy. The amazing development of the electrical industry traces back to this schoolmaster's coil of insulated wire and his electro-magnet that lifted a ton of iron.

Four years later when Mose used Henri's electro-magnet to invent the telegraph, Henry congratulated him warmly and unselfishly.

The principle of Henry's coil of wire is utilized by the General Electric Company in motors and generators that light cities, drive railroad trains, do away with all need for ruggedery and perform the work of millions of men.
