CO-ED DEBATES ARE PRAISED AT ALUMNUS

Miss Irene Collier Attends Debate in Seattle Last Thursday

Praise for the Sabio coeds who upstaged Fresno State College was heard at the University of Washington Thursday night, when the debate team from Miss Irene Collier, a student at California State College, was found to be better than the home team. Constance Taylor was the girl who represented the University of Oregon. The following issue presented: Resolution of the argument that women should be granted the same educational opportunities in the universities as men:

"That the University of Oregon should be graunted the same educational opportunities in the universities as men."

At the conclusion of the debate, Miss Collier said it was one of the most enjoyable debates she had ever attended. She considered it an excellent opportunity to learn more about the subject and to gain experience in public speaking.

PRINTED NOTES FOR STUDENTS

Following the completion of the debate, notes were made of the preparation of the debate and use of printed notes before the debate. The printed notes contained information on the preparation of the debate and included the following:

For this he was sent to prison

Roger Bacon may not have invented gunpowder, as has been claimed by some biographers of the famous Franciscan friar, but he exploded some of the outstanding errors of thirteenth century thought. Because of his advanced teachings, Bacon spent many years of his life in prison.

In an age of abstract speculation he boldly asserted the mathematical basis of all the sciences. But even mathematical calculation, he showed, must be verified by experiment, which discovers truths that speculation could never reach.

In the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company, Bacon's principles are followed in every experimental investigation. The gas-filled electric lamp and the electron tube were developed at General Electric, but it was experimental verification of the underlying mathematical theory that made electric illumination, radio broadcasting and X-rays what they are today.
TODAY is celebrated throughout the United States as the birth day of Abraham Lincoln. January 12th was the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. As the years go by, his influence, his work, and his memory grow and live on as a perennial flower, which bears fruit in the lives of all who are near to him.

And it is only right that we should pay tribute to the man who earned the love and confidence of our nation to its fullest, to a solidified nation that has advanced almost unbelievable ranks among the world powers of today.

And this is not only a tribute to the man and the country to the people of the nation in the world for the service and the work of today.

And from his life, the college student may well take advantage of the opportunities to be found in his high school education, because the true value of this self-learning can be found in his writings that have been handed down to us. He needed an education of the mind, an education for the soul, the spirit of a man, the spirit of a nation.

And rising from the lowest place in the country to a position of supreme power in a man of the greatest, he did place a kindred, a love for humanity, and a justice that was never forgotten. Long after the political ideals of Lincoln fade, and the story of his great deeds, his kindness, and his love will live.
