Students Offered Opportunity to Put
A.S.U. I. on Sound Business Basis
Under New Governing Plan

ESTABLISHMENT at the University of Idaho of elective student government, a concept never before heard of in the annals of the school, was the result of a movement initiated by the A. S. U. I. recodification committee. The complete constit-tution, and an act of the board of regents, was passed on Tuesday evening by Floyd E. Marchais, chairman.
Consult.
tion with the students of the arts faculty executive committee and supervision of all acts of the general manager by the executive committee will be accomplished by the head of the department in charge of the student body. The recodified constitution has been delegates to the new house; these delegates will form a student business unit with actual supervision of all activities. The bands of the students themselves through the medium of the executive board.

A.S.U. I.'s proposed student government is a calculated move to put the interests of the students first, as an individual, and as a group, in all actions of the university. A.S.U. I. is the official student body, and the students are the sole source of its power and authority.

The vote for the acceptance of the new constitution will be taken in the union hall on Wednesday, March 12, noon of that day.

The constitution as recodified has been approved by the faculty, and the\nstudent body, as well as the officials and the board of regents, and is ready for the consideration of the business men of the school.

The new constitution is written in such language as will be understandable to everyone, and will be submitted to all interested parties for their approval.

THE KENWORTHY

"What’s the use of it?"

Michael Faraday saw the real beginning of the age of electricity nearly a hundred years ago when he thrust a bar magnet into a coil of wire connected with a galvanometer and made the needle swing.

Gladstone, watching Farady at work in his laboratory, asked, "What’s the use of it?"

The experimenter jestingly replied, "There is every probability that you will soon be able to see a world-wide use of electricity that has followed the Faraday discovery abundantly justifies the retort to Gladstone.

Faraday’s theory of lines of force is constantly applied in practical ways by the American Electric Company in devising new electrical apparatus of which Faraday never dreamed. Every generator and motor is an elaborately instrumented machine with which first discovered and explained induction.
Large Fortune Realized on Student Stock Market

Art Golden Cleans Up $300,000 on Exchange—Remsburg Annexes $100,000. Operations Conducted by Class

"On the basis of my knowledge, the 32 shares of American Copper that I purchased yesterday or yesterday afternoon were sold today." The voice belonging to the speaker was a bit hoarse, and the line was not of the most reassuring character. "The Remsburg Company, which has been the subject of much speculation, was included in a package of 400 shares I bought last week. I'm afraid I was taken in by the seller's promise that the price would go up."

The speaker was J. R. Golden, who is a member of the University of Idaho student body. He had been busy trading on the student stock market, and his recent transactions had resulted in a gain of $300,000. The Remsburg Company is one of the more active companies on the student stock market, and its stock price has been volatile in recent weeks.

Resistless Force—Controlled!

The chemical engineer has created, in explosives, a power that can blast a quarry or clear a cellar—dig an oil well or drive a mining cavity.

"The explosion power is equivalent to all the energy in the sun for seconds," said Mr. Smith, a chemical engineer. "But it is controlled by the right mix and the right conditions."

Recently at the Idaho State University, Mr. Smith demonstrated the power of explosives by setting off a charge in the campus quad. The resulting explosion was seen by hundreds of students who had gathered to watch.

The Constitutions

A recollected constitution has been offered to the student body for approval. It is a constitution that embodies all the knowledge and wisdom that have been passed on through the years. It is a constitution that outlines a plan whereby the A.S.U. can be placed on a sound financial basis, with management so controlled that it may be self-sustaining. It is a constitution that terms the duties of every officer and organization within the university and makes all things and so do things that a self-governing organization can never be able to do.

The Constitution of the University of Idaho has been in present renovate form, is no anti(clone, doctal project. It is rather the result of many successes and universities and colleges have achieved in similar governing plans. Finance can be nothing but successful.

The student government for ratification. No undergraduate who reads it can help but realize that it is exactly the kind of government that should be under the student body's care for an efficient organization. Every vote cast should be in favor of the adoption of this new plan.
