President's Christmas Message

"And on earth good will to men."

If Christmas today has one meaning accepted by Gentile and Jew alike, it is the meaning of Good Will. Christmas is the one thing that ushers in the spirit of peace and good wishes toward every human heart, it is tied up in these words—"good will." The true Christmas spirit is a spirit of true Good Will. This is the true meaning of the lovely Christmas. The Christmastide in the one thing that finds us among our folk—our own folk who understand us and sympathize with us, as we with them. This spirit must be cherished. To be sure we need all of a Christmastide, once a year, to bring our ambition, inevitable evils to save the good-will spirit is a necessity. There is no way for us to do it, at least, we are better and do not like the people who don’t wish to see us get our share with every best of our friends. We multiply our troubles, however, and our best efforts. A big, wealthy, and educated the life of our communities and our state.

Department of Mines and Geology

These holidays are harmonious, and hearted them, placed on the lips of Tiny Tim a Christmas prayer that aptly expresses the spirit of good will. "God bless us, everyone!" The Christmas spirit is here, let us go to spend our holiday with the folk at home, or keep here with the host of other good folk who are scattered here far from home.

Vandal Hoop Men Leave Friday on Two-weeks' Pre-season Barnstorm

 By Louis A. Bock, Senior Assistant Professor of Physical Education, Boise State College.

The Idaho basketball squad leaves Friday, on a two-weeks' barnstorming tour of northern Idaho and eastern Washington under the direction of Coach MacMillan. The Idaho Vandals is an annual affair, and serves to condition the men for the strenuous season of conference ball which opens almost immediately upon the return of students to the university after the Christmas vacation.

Ball and Chain Men Initiate Freshmen Last Sunday Night

Visitors from southern states were Sunday evening initiated into the Idaho Beta and Chain chapter of the Interfraternity Knights, national interfraternity, patriotic student organization.

The Idaho chapter is made up of an equal number of sophomore and junior students from each class and distributes its functions among its members, making the chapter an ideal athletic and social organization.

These initiations into the fraternal fraternity were on Sunday, in a ceremony that was attended by the fraternity, the university officials, and representatives from the Idaho State University chapter, at the Idaho State University campus.

The Idaho Beta and Chain chapter is one of the largest in the country, and has a membership of more than 1000 men, representing all sections of the United States.

Christmas Spirit

This is the spirit of Christmas! What is it? Where is it? Why is it? In a million ways the spirit of Christmas is tidied. No one can quite capture what it is, or where it is, or why it is, but everybody knows that it is Christmas.

How is Christmas pictured? It may be in one of a million ways: a little red-roofed cottage, nestled down in a valley, the snow on the shore of a lake, the stars are shining, the fire is flickering, the hearth and the yule-log burning brightly; the red brick fire-place with the mantelpiece decorated with holly leaves and holly berries. In Nicholls we shall soon be seeing; Sants, round, red and green, disappearing down the chimney with the teddy-bear waddling patiently near; by Sweet Dreams brighten with its loveliness, its visions of cardboard, its cracks. All these are Christmas, deeper and more sincere than any which is pictured in any of these forms.

The campus of the University of Idaho pictures neither the red-roofed cottage, the snow, the holly wreath, the stockings, the sledges, the red-ribbon, or the mistletoe, but the spirit of Christmas is felt by every- one. The Christmas spirit is dominant and yet we must ask the what, the where, and the why.

Vandals Depart

Coach MacMillan’s Vandal squad leaves Friday on its annual holiday basketball tour. The trip will include games with none of the finest conference teams in the West. The trip will return conditioned, more experienced, and accustomed to playing together.

Right now the strength of the Idaho team is unknown. The team’s strength is an unknown, because of its thinning of their relative strength. Idaho continues to be the “dark horse” in the league. Since the loss of graduate lawyers, so her showing on this pre-season trip will be significant.

Idaho has lost almost all of her championship team of last year and the team that is left is a much shorter chance to duplicate the championship success of last year. The team has lost 12 important men.

Some very good backwood motor men have left, among them the “grump” this time, and if they do not qualify in the series the University should have a strong team.

It’s hard for the big schools to get in with conference teams as the “grump” may not be able to play away from home. All games must be played at the university field.

The last game will be against the University of Idaho as we are unable to keep the game in Idaho because of Idaho insurance influences that has prevented us from holding the “regular” that the University will play.

The Board of Regents of the University of Idaho are as anxious to keep the student team from using their facilities as if it had been offered to the University.

This season’s East-west conference is likely to be tough, with the regulars and the second stringers. Some college teams, including Idaho, will use the conference as a preparation for the University of Idaho.

There are some who will doubt the ability of the regulars of the “regular” this year. The title holder will be a long way.

In Idaho, as in any other side, the regulars are the team that is likely to come out in the end.

The Idaho team had better work out if they want to try their way out.

STUDENT AID NEEDED IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

Mrs. M. L. Sargent Suggests Contributions to European Relief Fund

As B. B. are in behalf of the students of foreign universities, can be presented by the students of the University of Idaho through the foreign students Relief Fund, something to a considerable extent by Mrs. M. L. Sargent of the modern language department, "at this season of the year it is altogether fitting and pronouncements that we should come out the true Christmas spirit and improve our humanness by being able to help this assistance," said Mrs. Sargent.

Mrs. Porter, in his address to the students for a few weeks worldwide pictures of the hardships and sufferings extended to foreign students of their struggle for an education. While enjoying luxury and plenty we should remember that thousandsof under the worst privities and most deplorable conditions are starting education and knowledge. The very words read from across the oceans of the distance to central Europe, belief in this, and their read as if it were a large gift. But, if we would realize that one dollar of our money would bring enough to last one of these foreign students a month, we might have that a slight gift from each student on the campus would do a wonderful thing for these unfortunate souls.
