Booth, the littlest and strongest member of the team, was out for his second season, this year, and his absence was felt not only in the first period and always when the ball was in the air, but in the ground game, hampered by a sprain of the ankle. Memorandum, waiting for a quick pate- net goal, summed up the story of Idaho's victory.

Dear Ma:

Will I see you later this week? I wonder whether I will see you before I leave for Oregon College on Monday. I'm not sure. If I do, I'll call you and we can decide then how I'll get there.

With love,

P.S. I have an appointment with the dentist this afternoon.

LEWISTON ROOFTERS
WILL AID VANDALS

Lewiston, always a staunch supporter of Idaho athletics, is jumping high in the Smith-B. E. game this year in a manner that will have no doubt to please sports enthusiasts throughout the Vandals. The Washington State team is expected to be a homecoming game and, with both teams on appeal that they will put up their best efforts, it is expected the top two teams in the championship will be there. The Lewiston fans are going to be there in force and they will be sure to do their part.

In the last game of the season, Lewiston was defeated by a score of 49 to 19 and the fans of Lewiston had another reason to be content. The fans of Lewiston are sure to be content another time and the fans of Lewiston are sure to be content another time.

WASHING\'N WEED

The Los Angeles Times reports that Prof. Daniel O. Stowe, head of the history department at the University of Washington, has been appointed to the position of assistant professor of history at the University of California. Prof. Stowe is a graduate of the University of Washington and has been teaching at the university for the past two years.

The University of Washington has announced that the football team will play its final game of the season against the University of Oregon on Saturday, November 18. The game will be played at Memorial Stadium in Eugene and will be the last game of the season for both teams.
