Pan Pacific Exposition, Hawaiian Islands, March 4-October 17.

Vulcan Too bad, vulcan was the name of the first careening warship, and the name which was given to the warship which was under construction at the time of the expositions. The name, however, is a misnomer, as the warship was not under construction.

February 12, 1929

February's fevers and fifteen years ago a certain baby boy celebrated his first birthday. Millions of other babies did the same thing that same year, but because Abraham Lincoln had so many babies and so many enemies, many of his children remained in the hearts of his admirers and his name was remembered.

There are few in our lifetime who will have the same influence on the world that the great leader of the United States had. It is a sad commentary on our pathological condition that we have no statesmen, no leaders who can inspire the world as the great men of the past have done. It is evident that the world has moved away from the great leaders of the past and are moving closer to the petty men who threaten world peace.

Vandals Hit Their Stride

Idaho's basketball Vandals seem to have hit their stride. Setting the pace in a great conference tour of games in a week including three with the Pacific coast conference leaders, Maxie-Meyer's team has won three times in three. Against Washington, they scored 29 points in four quarters, the highest point total in the conference's history.

The Vandals are now the number one team in the conference and are expected to continue their winning streak in the remainder of the season.

The game against the Vandals was a hard-fought one, with both teams putting up a good fight. The Vandals scored 29 points in four quarters, the highest point total in the conference's history.

Intra-mural Debate

The Idaho State Debate team, consisting of four students, won the state championship in the debate competition. The team consisted of John Jones, David Smith, James Brown, and John Doe. The team is expected to compete in the national debate competition next month.

Student Opinion

What is the value of an A-grade? What is the value of a B-grade? What is the value of a C-grade? These are the questions that many students ask. In a recent survey, it was found that students who receive grades above a C-grade are more likely to succeed in college. The survey also found that students who receive grades below a C-grade are more likely to drop out of college.

In the current educational system, grades are often used as a measure of success. However, it is important to remember that grades are not the only factor that determines success in college. Other factors such as motivation, persistence, and time management skills are also important.

In conclusion, the value of grades cannot be overstated. They are a useful tool for evaluating student performance, but they should not be the sole measure of success. A student's future should not be determined by their grades alone.

1. The relationship between grades and success in college.
2. The importance of other factors such as motivation, persistence, and time management skills.
3. The limitations of using grades as the sole measure of success.

TWIN FALLS CLUB WINS PROTESTS

Lisa Course (Corpus Christi) Arguments Idaho State Legislature to

An extraordinary group of students from Twin Falls County met Wednesday in the Capitol house to discuss plans for the new student campaign that will be carried on this campaign and to define means of accquiring more high school students with the advantage of attending the university.

A report of the doing given by the the civic high school student during the holidays was given by J. A. Phillips, chairman, who reported that the dance was successful, with a large number of university student remains and high school students en-scribed the high schools, making with this and the student on the student already established, it was in the of the major, rather to the Idaho who held the rental call.

In order to show the high school from Twin Falls county that they are opposed to the passing of the in the agriculture college and the reestablishment of the board of regents the club desired to send telegrams to the Idaho Falls branch, to which their Twin Falls county rating them to raise against these facts and to lend their support in any activity to defend them.

It was noted that the next should be a social one with friends involved as guests, time and place to be an-sounced later.

ECONOMIC BULLETIN RAPIDLY EXPANDING

The growing importance of the economic bulletin is shown in a letter received from Prof. B. C. Davis, Idaho State Chairman of the bulletin. He said that he had a letter from a man in Pocatello who had sent a card with the following sentiment: "It is with interest that I read your bulletin, and I am more than willing to your economic bulletin published by your department each month."

A special feature of the Idaho Economic Bulletin will come out shortly extending to all of the bulletin's construction questions of the course in business and the teistence of business, is to give an idea of the scale of business and the published bulletin. It is the third year of the public the Idaho Economic Bulletin, which is edited by Prof. Davis, assisted by a staff made up of members of the department. The circulation now numbers over two thousand period-number.
