The Gamma Phi Betainitiation banquet for the spring semester was held on Friday night, March 31, in the Hollins Student Center. The three new members were introduced, and the officers were presented.

After the dinner the initiation dance was held, at which there were approximately 100 guests. The guests included several members of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, as well as other members of the university.

The new members were introduced to the other members of the sorority, and they were presented with their pins. The dance was attended by many guests, and it was a great success. The new members were very happy and enjoyed the evening with their fellow sorority members.
the hour, half hour, and quarter with several minute spaces in between. An electric light box has been installed to be placed where convenient to the views of any boy.
