IDAHO FANS PRAY FOR MIRACLE AGAINST HUSKIES

State basketball fans will have a small contingent today in Seattle to cheer on the Idaho basketball team in its second-round game against Washington State University at 1 p.m. at the Coliseum.

Tickets will be available at the Coliseum today, but only for students of the two schools and some special groups. It is not thought that any tickets will be available at the box office, and fans are advised to get them early if they want to attend the game.

Idaho fans are expected to be conspicuous in the stands, and it is felt that the fans will be a great help in the contest.

The game is being broadcast to Idaho by WHKL, and KNDL and will be heard over the radio stations in the state.

Idaho fans have been active in the state, and it is expected that they will be as active today as they have been in the past.

The big Olympic Games show closed its winter sports' portion today, and boasted an attendance of approximately 50,000. The new world records set on the ice were not very great. The teams were carried off the ice by the end of the competition. The United States entered teams which would probably clear the undefeated nations of the world.

Concerned that斯ich Richard Heumans was summoned to be the only American to win a world's mark at hockey. He won the event by a margin of 8.5 seconds.

The board of the United States' hockey team selected the best performers of the winter season. The team was expected to be the best in the world and was expected to win the world's championship.

The Congress of the United States is organizing to present a presidential mansion to the United States' hockey team. The mansion will be built in Cleveland, Ohio.

The geographical location of Moscow has again been the source of much excitement. The city is known for its rich cultural heritage and its beautiful architecture.

As the sun sets on the last day of the winter season, the city is filled with the sounds of music and the shouts of the people. The streets are crowded with people, and the air is filled with the scent of food.

The annual festival takes place in the heart of the city, with a parade leading the way. The festival is a celebration of the culture and history of the city, and is attended by people from all over the world.

The festival begins with a parade that features floats, music, and dance. The floats are decorated with flowers and other festive decorations, and the music is performed by local bands.

As the parade makes its way through the city, the streets are filled with people who are watching and enjoying the festivities. The parade ends with a grand finale that features a fireworks display.

The festival is a wonderful opportunity to experience the culture and history of Moscow, and to see the beauty of the city. It is a must-see event for anyone visiting the city.

The department of art and culture will present for one week starting March 3, an exhibition of prints of national artistry, ranging from the works of local to those of national artists. The exhibition is sponsored by the Idaho Art League and is open to the public.

Among the artworks on display will be a series of lithographs by Thomas Hart Benton, a noted American artist. These works, which are known for their vibrant colors and bold brushstrokes, will be displayed in the main gallery of the Art Museum. In addition, there will be a selection of woodcuts by artist David Hockney, who is known for his unique style of abstract expressionism.

The exhibition will also feature several paintings by local artists, including works by John Taylor, a well-known Idaho artist, and a collection of contemporary works by local artists. The opening reception will be held on March 3 from 6 to 8 pm, and the exhibition will continue through March 9.

ART MUSEUM ANNOUNCES NEW EXHIBITION

The department of art and culture is pleased to announce the opening of a new exhibition, "The Art of the American West," which will run from March 4 through April 3.
