Only Woman-Editor of Argonaut Recalls Early Days of Sheet

This publication is the first of the Argonauts with a woman editor. The Argonaut was founded in 1894, and its first issue was published on February 27, 1894. The publication was named after the Greek hero who led the expedition to the island of the gold. It was a monthly publication until 1901, when it became a bi-weekly and then weekly. The Argonaut is a student-run newspaper that covers campus news and local events. It is published by the Associated Students of the University of Idaho.

Paris Is Appointed To New Office

Former Circulation Manager Of The Gem Now Assistant Business Manager

Desk Paris, who was circulation manager of the Gem before coming to the Argonaut, has been appointed assistant business manager of the Argonaut. He is replacing A. C. M. in the position. Paris will work in the office with Miss Peterson, who is now in charge of the office.

At the Infrmary

MJs. Jill Pendleton, Elva Hoege and Evelyn Snead are now at the Argonaut infirmary.

Intramural Debates Start With Fire

Explosion

Fire injured two people at the Argonaut infirmary Thursday afternoon, when one of the patients, a man, burst into flames and adjacent people ran to put out the fire with their clothes.

Students Present Recital Wednesday

Everyone invited to attend. Recital will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 p.m. in the Argonaut auditorium. Students present will include: John Jones, Bob Smith, and Tom Brown.

Mixer to Ballyhoo for Junior Week

All College Affairs to Be Held At Bucket Tomorrow Evening

Tomorrow night the faculty will be preparing for the big mixer on the Argonaut lawn. The faculty will be divided into teams, and each team will have a different costume. There will be a prize for the team that comes out the best.

Oratory Banquet Attracts Many

Thirteen hundred attend the Argonaut's annual oratory banquet at the Retreat on Saturday night.

Forestry Banquet Attracts Many

The Argonaut forestry banquet was held on Friday night at the Argonaut dining hall. A large number of students attended, and the speeches were well received.

Program of Talks Given at A.E.E.

Talks by Prof. J. O. Jones, head of the A.E.E. department, were given at the Argonaut auditorium on Thursday afternoon. The talks were on the subject of electrical engineering.

Crawford Advocate Of Larger Army

Dean of Engineering School Speaks Under Auspices of Legion Auxiliary

John C. Crawford, dean of the school of engineering, addressed the members of the University of Idaho chapter of the American Legion at a meeting in the Argonaut auditorium on Thursday afternoon.

Music Department To Assume Advisory Control of Pep Band

Band Votes to Go Under Partial Supervision of Music Faculty; Many Advantages to Be Gained, It is Reported, By Members, By Members.

Katherine Cody, the Argonaut business manager, has been appointed to the faculty of the music department of the University of Idaho. She will serve as an advisory member of the music department and will be responsible for the supervision of the pep band.

Katherine Cody, the Argonaut business manager, has been appointed to the faculty of the music department of the University of Idaho. She will serve as an advisory member of the music department and will be responsible for the supervision of the pep band.
The Rambling Silhouette

This week, included between the dates February 12th and 18th, and those for the week ending February 26th, The Idaho Argonaut, the independent weekly newspaper of the University of Idaho, published the following article:

The Rambling Silhouette

By Albert R. Hughes

The Rambling Silhouette is the university's literary magazine, which publishes articles, poems, and other creative works by students. The article describes various activities and events taking place on campus, such as the Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity's annual dance, the parade, and the graduation of the senior class. The text also mentions the presence of the Idaho Argonaut, the university's newspaper, and the role of the Rambling Silhouette in promoting creative expression and community building among students.
Women's Growth Begin Debate

Women's interest in debate was evident on Wednesday evening when the Idaho Argonaut, under the auspices of Dr. E. D. Boardman, held its first debate. The topic for discussion was "Should Women Learn the Art of Debate?"

Kappa Phi Honors Rushes at Tea

Kappa Phi, one of the women's organizations, recently held a tea at the home of Mrs. W. S. Boardman. The tea was attended by all members of the organization and was followed by a dance. The refreshments were deliciously prepared by the members of the organization.

The Passing Parade

As the sun set on a clear summer evening, the campus of Idaho State College was alive with the sound of music and the chatter of students. The Kappa Phi parade, led by the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, was in full swing. The floats were brilliantly decorated, and the students were decked out in their finest. The parade was a fitting end to a long and successful school year.

W.A.A. Basketball Practice Features Principles of Plays and Tactics

At the practice of the W.A.A. basketball team, the principles of plays and tactics were thoroughly discussed by Coach John Smith. The team was divided into three sections, each coached by a different assistant coach. The practice was intense and well-organized.

S. A. E. Observes Founders' Day

S. A. E. celebrated Founders' Day on March 15th with a special program. The day was marked by speeches, singing, and a warm atmosphere of friendship among the members of the fraternity.

Delta Delta Delta entertained the Gamma Phi Beta chapter at a birthday party. The party was a great success, with music, dancing, and delicious food.

Kappa Delta's Delta Phi entertained the Alpha Chi Omega chapter of Delta Phi at a dinner in honor of the national sorority. The dinner was a wonderful opportunity for the members to socialize and enjoy each other's company.

Along Fraternity Parade

Alpha Chi Omega entertained Drs. W. S. and Mrs. Boardman. The entertainment was provided by a group of talented students, who performed a variety of skits and musical numbers.

Chi Alpha entertained Drs. W. S. and Mrs. Boardman. The entertainment was provided by a group of talented students, who performed a variety of skits and musical numbers.

Each puff less acid—Lucyies are a LIGHT SMOKE of rich, ripe-bodied TOBACCO

For twenty-five years the research staff of The American Tobacco Company has worked steadily to produce a briskly-type cigarette—nicely, a cigarette having a minimum of aftertaste compounds, with an improved richness of taste—"A LIGHT SMOKE."

We believe that Lucky Strike Cigarettes embody a number of genuinely basic improvements, and that all these improvements tend to produce a superior cigarette—a modern cigarette, a cigarette made of rich, ripe-bodied tobaccos.

The Finest CAKES BREAD PASTRY

Johanson's Bakery

of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco—"It's Toasted"
Unbeaten Washington
Plays Idaho Friday

Idaho's varsity basketball players are home again, making preparations for the 80 game, game of the season against the Vandals on Friday night. This will be the 13th contest between the teams since Idaho joined the Southwestern Conference in 1924, and the Vandals have won 12 of the 13 games.

Minor Sportsmen
To Meet W.S.C.

Swimmers, Wrestlers, Fence
Go Into Action at Pullman

Minor sportsmen, including swimmers, wrestlers, and fencers, are active again, after finishing their first week at school. They have been practicing for the upcoming meets, which will be held on Friday and Saturday.

MURAL SPORTS

Thursday's Games

The Delta Delta Chi and Montana State Kappa Delta Chi 4-1, 17-6, 9-1
Kappa Delta Chi 20-25, 20-1, 20-12
Delta Chi 20-17, 17-13, 17-13

Friday's Games

The Delta Delta Chi and Montana State Kappa Delta Chi 3-1, 1-1, 1-1
Kappa Delta Chi 3-1, 1-1, 1-1
Delta Chi 3-1, 1-1, 1-1

Indiana and Ohio State

Another Tuesday night basketball game is scheduled for Tuesday, December 5th, between Indiana and Ohio State. The game will be held in the University Fieldhouse at 8:00 PM. Tickets are available at the door for $1.00 each.