Vote Correctly Thursday

PROPORTIONAL representation will be discussed and much explained at tonight’s meeting of the ASU. Remember that a vote has a real meaning. The weakening of P. R. and every other reform is that the voice of the people is weak and that reform will not serve of itself.

If you live in a democracy, every vote counts. A vote that is not cast is not counted.

The success of the ASU and its battles against the forces of ignorance and apathy rests solely upon the willingness of the students to use their votes correctly.

"The two things that make a political party flounder are ignorance and apathy."

The vote is your weapon against apathy and ignorance. Your vote is your weapon against the forces that would destroy the democratic process.

"In this way none of the voters have a real share in the election of the representative body."

And your vote is your weapon against ignorance. Your vote is your weapon against the forces that would destroy the democratic process.

"For in the end, the greatest of all is the right of the individual to be heard."

The vote is your weapon against ignorance. Your vote is your weapon against the forces that would destroy the democratic process.
