Conor Lough Brought Together Through Monday Night

What was attempted as a sort of "art project" at the pep rally Friday night was "The Westward Ho" a dashing and speaking, hard-selling, all-singing, cheer leader revue. It started in the band room Saturday and was rehearsed throughout the weekend.

Called "revue" by its producer, Joe Johnson, Charles Pounds, the student media placed them in a rather odd situation in the medium of entertainment, but the effect was more of a cross between a survey of America and a variety show. In other, words, it combined all the big names of our country's history in a mass production.

The program had no specific theme, except that it was "America" and that it was to feature all the great names of the country and the stars that popularized it.

The program was divided into acts, with each act emphasizing a different nation or period. The first act featured the early days of America, with the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, and the Civil War.

The second act featured the westward expansion, with the Oregon Trail, the Transcontinental Railroad, and the gold rush.

The third act featured the modern era, with the Civil Rights Movement, the Vietnam War, and the Space Race.

The program was produced by Joe Johnson and Charles Pounds, with music and choreography by the student media. It was an excellent production, with the students performing with enthusiasm and dedication.

Press Club Elects Mayer President; Taps Eight Men

Orlando, Taylor, Wilson, McKinley, Perry, Gravelle, and New Members of Board

The student media covering the annual "state of the student media" meeting Monday morning were the students of the new press club, who selected new officers for the coming year.

The meeting was held in the press club room, and the officers were selected as follows:

Mayer, president; Orlando, first vice-president; Taylor, second vice-president; Wilson, secretary; McKinley, treasurer; Perry, editor; Gravelle, business manager; and New Members of Board.

The students then discussed the future plans of the student media, and the meeting adjourned after the new officers were selected.
