Infirmary Rates Are Being Made

Weathberg's Building Will Be Completed By January; New Stadium

The work on the new infirmary is progressing rapidly and soon the new infirmary building will be completed. The cost of the infirmary will be approximately $100,000, and will be ready for occupancy in January. The new infirmary building will be located on the eastern side of the campus, adjacent to the main building. The infirmary will be staffed by qualified medical professionals, including doctors and nurses, who will provide care to students and staff. The infirmary will include a variety of rooms, including examination rooms, treatment rooms, and recovery rooms. The new building will be equipped with modern medical equipment, ensuring that students and staff receive high-quality care.

Four students are currently being treated in the infirmary. Two students are recovering from a minor injury, and two students are undergoing treatment for an infection. The students are receiving excellent care from the medical staff, and their condition is improving. The infirmary is well-equipped to handle any medical emergencies that may arise, and the medical staff is highly trained and experienced. The infirmary is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, ensuring that students and staff have access to medical care whenever they need it. The infirmary is a testament to the university's commitment to providing a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff.
Hello Grads

"Hello, Grad!" Welcome to our annual monumental event, the commencement of your student career. At this moment, you have reached a milestone, a point of transition from being a student to a graduate. Remember, this is not the end, but merely the beginning of a new chapter in your life.

You may note other minor changes, more probably to the style of the traditional graduation gown

since it is quite a bit more expensive than the typical high school or college graduation gown.

Our Crowded Halls

"A house is the sanctuary of the soul."

Graduates, we are the custodians of our college's future. We must uphold the traditions and values of our institution. Our roles as graduates are essential and must be taken seriously.

Janitors' Dean Relaxes Past Celebrations

"At last" (said Fred Bowl, head janitor of the College of Mines) "we've finally had our first celebration in three years. We haven't been able to celebrate with the students, but I think they were all here today. We had a big bonfire and everyone was dancing around. It was a great day."

Name "Blue Bucket" Has Historical Origin

The origin of the name "Blue Bucket" for the campus magazine has been traced back to the 1909 issue. "I remember," said Fred, "that the coat was always kept in the blue bucket. It was a tradition that whenever the coat was returned, the students would put it in the blue bucket to be cleaned."

Fur To Fly on MacLean Field in Cougar-Vandal Encounter

Vandals Seek Revenge For Last Year's Loss

Sophomores Pittet Against Veteran Pullman Cougars

By BERT CEN
SPORTS EDITOR

MacLean Field will be the scene of another football game between the University of Washington and the Washington State Cougars. The University of Washington team is the favorite of the American Football Conference and has been in the process of preparing for the game for some time.

The game will be played on a hot and sunny day, with the weather forecast indicating good conditions for the players. The field is in excellent condition, with the grass well-groomed and the lines clearly marked. The two teams will be dressed in their usual uniforms, with the Cougars wearing their traditional blue and white uniforms, and the Vandals in their black and gold.

The game is expected to be a close contest, with both teams evenly matched. The Vandals, led by their experienced quarterback, will be looking for revenge against the Cougars, who defeated them last year.

The Cougars, on the other hand, will be hoping to maintain their winning streak and continue their dominance in the conference. The game is expected to be a thrilling contest, with both teams giving their best effort to emerge victorious.

The game will be broadcast live on local radio stations, with commentary from experienced sportscasters. Local fans are expected to turn out in large numbers to support their respective teams.

The atmosphere on the field will be electric, with the stands filled to capacity. The fans will be cheering loudly, waving their team colors, and displaying posters and banners to support their teams.

The game is expected to be a memorable one, with both teams leaving it all on the field. The outcome is unclear, and fans are eagerly waiting for the results.
Informal Pledging Held by Kappa Phi

University women of Methodist and Congregational sororities gathered at the Kappa Phi house last night to hold informal pledging ceremony. Persons present included Kappa Phi, Methodists, and Congregational women. The meeting was called to order by President Elinore Zettler, who welcomed all present. Following the meeting, pledges were sung and pledges were made.

if Washington's board of regents succeeds in its efforts to have the town of Moscow officially designated as "Moscow, Idaho.", the game will be on its way to solidifying its status as the premier football game on the Western U. S. College Circuit.

The Moscow board of regents is working hard to ensure the game's success, and the war machine will be at full strength when the teams arrive.

The game will be held at the Moscow Municipal Stadium, which has been completely renovated and upgraded in recent years.

The Moscow board of regents will also host a pre-game reception
