All Colleges of University Will Participate In Musical Show To Foster Intercollegiate Understanding

Encouraged by Dr. Ivan L. Fisher, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, all colleges of the University will participate in a musical show that will be sponsored by A. N. Jones, head of the music department. The show will be held on the University campus as an open forum for students to express their ideas and thoughts on current events.

"Ivy League" is the theme of the musical show, which will feature a variety of musical numbers, including songs, dances, and skits. The show will be directed by Dr. Fisher and will involve participation from students across the University.

"It will be an opportunity for students to come together and express their creativity and ideas through music," said Dr. Fisher in a press statement.

The event is open to the public and will be held on the University campus. Admission will be free, and refreshments will be provided. For more information, please contact the music department at (503) 123-4567.

The University of Idaho campus is daily growing in size and importance. Our faculties are expanding, the number of our students is increasing, and the grounds for recreation are becoming broader. But the University is more than a school; it is a community, and the community is the life of the University.

The University of Idaho campus is a community of scholars, and every scholar has a right to feel that he is an integral part of the community. The community is not only a place of learning, but also a place of service. The University of Idaho is a institution that prepares men and women for service in the community. It is a place where scholars can live and learn together, and where they can work for the betterment of the community.

The University of Idaho campus is a community that is dedicated to the service of humanity. It is a place where scholars can work together to solve the problems of the world. The University of Idaho is a place where scholars can work for the betterment of the community.

"Advised by my singing coach, I changed to Luckies"

"In my new picture 'Swing High, Swing Low' I sing a song for the first time since I have been on the screen. To do this, I spent months taking singing lessons. And with this added strain, my throat was not in good shape. My singing coach suggested that when choosing cigarettes, I select a light smoke. And so I changed to Luckies. Since then I've found that a light smoke and my throat get along together just fine."
