Debate Team Accepts Invitation To Appear At Nazarene College

Juniors Jam to Judge Job Justly Failing To Favor Faulty Fellows

"A bad jury will not hang a man," said the late Hon. Mr. Justice Cardozo, of the New York State Supreme Court. But when a jury is composed of bad men, it is easy to see why a bad verdict is rendered. A jury is composed of men who have been selected for their good qualities.

J. E. Buchanan Was Appointed As New Dean of the College of Engineering by the Board of Regents, announced by University President, J. E. Buchanan, in his address to the Idaho State University.

E. L. Buchanan has devoted the last year of his term of office as dean of the college of engineering at the University of Idaho. He has been affiliated with the university for nearly 30 years.

The new dean will take office immediately and will serve a term of three years.

The appointment is effective July 1, 1936. While attending Idaho, Buchanan maintained a high academic standing, which was made possible by hard work and determination.

When Alexander Ross was transferred from the Intercollegiate union to the British, Peter snow had the following comment on the matter: "I agree with all of you. I believe that Ross is an excellent addition to our team.""

Idaho Campus Loses Big Chance

To Co-Star With Sonja Henie

The opportunity to co-star with Sonja Henie was a significant one for the Idaho campus. The chance to work with such a legendary figure in the world of entertainment would have been a career highlight for many students. Unfortunately, the campus lost out on this opportunity, and it will be remembered as a missed chance in the annals of Idaho Campus history.

Well, with the football team returning again to its spring training schedule, the coming season will have some of the same problems, but the spring training of 1930 seems to be different in some ways from the spring training of 1929. This season, it seems to be a matter of selecting the best team possible, and trying to make it work.

The football team will have a lot of new faces this year, and it will be interesting to see how they will work together.
