New Deans Assume College Duties

Miss Bonnie Olson, new dean of women and Harbert Kelvin, new assistant dean, and administrative secretary, have completed two new campus positions of special interest. Over 100 new freshmen enter the University of Idaho this fall.

Miss Olson, substitute to Dr. Evolve Miller in the direction of women's activities, has made the transition with ease and with a new position of the union for college students.

Professor Takes Beau Award

Bruce Allen, director of the College of Education, has been appointed to the beaver award for excellence in teaching. He is the first faculty member of the University of Idaho to receive the award.

Dr. Allen has been teaching at the University for 15 years and has won many awards for his teaching performance. He is known for his ability to make complex ideas accessible to students in an engaging manner.

Men's Halls During Summer

Brother to Twin Idaho Club; Finished; Chris

Many events are planned for the new students during the summer months. These events are designed to help students adjust to their new environment and to foster a sense of community among the student body.

Appointees booster Stall, circulation rise due

Argonaut officials bid students to help support the newspaper. The newspaper's circulation has been rising steadily in recent months, and the officials believe that this is due to the efforts of the student body.

The newspaper's staff is made up of students who are dedicated to providing quality news and information to the university community.

Registration officially begins Thursday; procedure traced by Argonaut

Freshmen men and women, you're welcome to join the University community. Please be sure to register during the schedule of events at college during the next few days.

This is your opportunity to get to know the University better and to meet other students who share your interests.

The Idaho Argonaut, the official student newspaper, will be on hand to assist you with your registration needs. Please stop by the Argonaut office on campus to get your registration forms.

GREETINGS

To Idaho Students--Greetings

It gives me great pleasure to welcome to the University of Idaho all new students. I am sure you will all feel as do I on discovering new associations. Great care has been taken to provide for making your college life as pleasant and successful as possible. Here you will have the opportunity of being in the midst of wholesome, honest, and manly young people. We have an unusually beautiful university campus. It is built up of valuable, solid brick buildings and is surrounded by 80 acres of parkland and 10 acres of golf course. This makes it one of the most attractive campuses in the country.

New Faces Appear Among Faculty

Thirty-Five New People, Including Ruby France Downes

The faculty is growing fast and will soon be as large as the student population.

Dr. G. H. Burton, assistant professor of English, has been named to the faculty of the University of Idaho. He was formerly an instructor in English at the University of Chicago.

The University of Idaho will be opened on September 26. The faculty is now ready for the students.

Vandals Need Set School Date

The University, as is well known, is opening for the fall semester on September 26. Some students are already on campus, and others will arrive soon. Those who have not yet arrived should do so as soon as possible.

Councilors Serve As 'Big Sisters'

The Big Sister program, recently adopted by the University of Wisconsin, will be carried out in the same way at the University of Idaho. The program is designed to provide a helpful and friendly relationship between the older and younger students.

The Big Sister program is open to all students who have not yet graduated. The program is designed to provide a helpful and friendly relationship between the older and younger students.

Miss Edmonds Helps Dean

Miss Edmonds, a student, has been chosen to help the dean of women.

Miss Lake Land's Home Ec Job

Miss Lake Land will be the new home economics teacher at the University of Idaho.

Bank Stifles Optimism That Arises Over Prospects For Grid Team

"Don't be too optimistic about the Vandals," Coach Ted Devine warned Idaho football fans early in the year. "We have a lot of work to go." But Bank said, "and our reserve strength has been bolstered as rapidly as I expected. We have more home games, but when we win we will have a well balanced team.""

Former Athlete Joins University

There were 3000 Idaho football fans at a recent Idaho football game and one of them was inserted into the starting lineup. The former athlete, who has been in the Vandals' training camp, has been added to the Idaho starters. He is a running back, and his name is Smith. His coach, Devine, said, "Smith is a valuable addition to our team. He will be a major factor in our offensive line."

Morrow Defeats Canadian Champ

Irv Morrow, former University of Idaho basketball player, has defeated several Canadian basketball players in recent matches. Morrow, who was a member of the Vandals' basketball team, has been working on his skills to improve his game.

STUDENT UNION

Our school is fortunate to have a Student Union Building in which we can devote our time and energy. The building is structured in a way that allows for the proper use of the student activities department.

Come in and see the artist's drawing of the project which are located all student body activities.

The way to build an activities department is to have a clear legal division of the Union...
