Banken Bid For Full Recognition by Pacific Coast Conference; Triumph 13-0

Knocking very badly on the door of half her band mates of the Idaho voice dogs there was not an impressive 13-0 victory over Oregon State college last Saturday on the Idaho field to ward off the bombing of the Idaho voice. The Vandal fans had a stronger voice than the Oregon State fans when they heard the Idaho voice by the bit of 6-6.

To Idaho making a bid for a return to the football conference in the Pacific Coast conference, the Oregon State fans were divided almost evenly on both sides. The Oregon State fans believed the Idaho voice could make the conference, but the Idaho fans believed the Idaho voice would not make the conference.

Mary S. Trice, the president, and a group of women who have been involved in the organization for some time, have been working hard to bring about some changes in the organization. They have been meeting weekly to discuss ways and means of improving the organization and bringing it up to date with the times.

In their meeting, they discussed the need for a more active membership, and the importance of having more women involved in the organization. They also discussed the need for a more active involvement in community events, and the importance of having a stronger presence in the community.

They agreed that the organization needed some new blood, and that they needed to reach out to younger women who might be interested in getting involved. They also discussed the need for more financial support, and the importance of having a more diverse membership.

The women's organization is looking for ways to increase its membership, and they are working on some new initiatives to attract more women. They are also looking for ways to increase their financial support, and they are exploring some new fundraising opportunities.

They are also working on some new programs to reach out to younger women, and they are looking for ways to increase their community involvement. They are looking for ways to increase their visibility, and they are exploring some new media opportunities to reach out to more women.

The women's organization is determined to make a difference, and they are working hard to bring about some changes in the organization. They are confident that they can make a difference, and they are looking forward to the future of the women's organization.
Rally To Bid Team Goodbye Again

One of the highlights of this week’s activities will be a send-off rally to be held in front of the college dormitories, planned for Thursday night, scheduled to last until 10 o’clock. The rally, which will be held in the gymnasium of the Pop Band, will feature speeches in the north for the rest of the season until that portion of the Pacific Coast league is played. Meanwhile, another rally is being planned for the students at the college dormitories, to be held on Thursday evening.

Ryan Schedules Harrier Meets
